Coal Prices On September 1st

will be higher, except Pea and Buckwheat sizes. The final advance will go into effect the first of next month. The importance of coal quality. Kindly remember that coal shipped during the winter is usually poorer quality than is sold in warm weather. The reason for this is that the first cold day everyone thinks of coal, this means a rush or orders at the mines. To get out as many tons as possible the production and preparation is forced to the limit and coal is shipped that should never leave the ground. Place your order now, pay less for it and get better coal. United Ice & Coal Co. Forster & Cowden Third & Boas 15th & Chestnut Also Steelton, Pa.
