The New Bargain Basement Announces

The Sale, Commencing To-morrow, of the

J. B. Flickinger Stock of Dry Goods and Notions, 1520 Derry Street

THE Flickinger store was established for many years at the Derry street address and carried a complete line of general dry goods and notions. When the suggestion was made that we buy the stock we considered it would be a good thing for our new Bargain Basement, so we are pleased to start the second week of this lower price store with the stocks of the Flickinger store. The lots are small, in a number of instances, and the early shoppers will get the pick of the bargains.

MARY PICKFORD AND CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT THE REGENT
The film productions shown at the Regent Theater are superior to any film plays ever played in the city of Harrisburg. All first run at the Regent. The Regent is the home of the Paramount and does not show in any other theater in Harrisburg. Par-mount program is composed of all the most prominent actors and actresses. The Regent Theater is built especially for a picture house, with all the conveniences and comforts that you find in any metropolitan city. Regent is the first to install a pipeorgan, which is one of the biggest pipeorgan in any theater in Pennsylvania.

To-day is the last to see "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," featuring the world's foremost film star, and Harrisburg's favorite, Mary Pickford. Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums, whose undying optimistic and heroic courage even starvation and deadly peril are unable to quench. In addition to our feature we show Charlie Chaplin in his latest release, "The Bank," in two reels. This is a scream from beginning to end. Come and laugh with the rest.

To-morrow and Thursday—"The House of the Lost Court," a dramatic adaptation of the novel by Mrs. C. N. Williamson in five parts. Sir Anthony Elliott, an artist, is secretly engaged to Elinore Vane. At the same time that Anthony gets a letter from his brother, Paul, that he is coming to visit him, Elinore gets word that her friend, Nina, is to pay her a visit. A strong friendship is engendered between Nina and Anthony. On the other hand, as warm a friendship has arisen between Elinore and Paul, much to Anthony's discomfort.

These two days will also be shown the picnic at Hershey Park given by Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart for their employes.—Advertisement.
