Pennsylvania Boats May Go to New Yorkers

Special to The Telegraph

Baltimore, Aug. 27.—Edward C. Carrington and his business associates, some of whom are New Yorkers, are negotiating for the purchase of the bay steamers that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was directed last week by the Interstate Commerce Commission to surrender. Mr. Carrington said that in case the lines are secured by the interests represented by him, Governor Goldsborough will be asked to the best reasons for believing the frage will carry.

"Unquestionably women are entitled to vote. As a school man I have learned the value of their conclusions, and in some instances have even found it wise to defer to them."

"Will you be a candidate for the presidency, Mr. Brumbaugh?" he was asked.

This Fall

Denver, Colo., Aug. 27. — That Pennsylvania, the State second in population and containing one of the largest percentages of foreign voters, will go for suffrage this Fall and entranchise 1,500,000 women, able to throw control to any of the three major parties, was the prediction made by Martin G. Brumbaugh, Governor of the Keystone State. Governor Brumbaugh, with 123 members of his civil and military staffs and their wives, arrived in Denver on their way to the Pacific coast expositions.

"I was elected on a personal platform favoring woman's suffrage," said It is too far ahead to say anything
