Combined With Sulphur Makes Good Old-Fashioned Treatment.

A good old fashioned remedy for darkening gray hair is a compound of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Avoid the trouble of making it yourself by getting a 50c bottle of Sulpho-Sage. This is a dainty toilet preparation based on the old-fashioned formula with other helpful ingredients added. It is in no sense a dye, but merely causes nature to bring back to each gray hair the original rich, dark shade. This is done so evenly that no one knows you are using anything. New gray hairs are using anything. New gray hairs are using anything. New gray hairs are using anything. Sulpho-Sage removes dandruff, glass your hair agolosy uster year young sold the thing from George A. Gorgas. He recommends it to Harrisburg, Pa., ladles; will refund price if it fails. HOW RESINOL STOPS ITCHING

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of exzema or other such skin eruptions, the relief that the first use of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap gives is perfectly incredible. After all the suffering they have endured and all the useless treatments they spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple, mild and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning IN-STANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that Resinol really drives away the eruption completely in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 30-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. What's the Good of Wishing?

By Beatrice Fairfax

"If wishes were horses, beggars might ride," says the old sons; but! think wishes are far better than that! Wishes are the fairy steeds on achievement. And in the other old saying, "The wish is father to the thought," there is far more of life's real truth. The series and kind—it is because you have in your soul the germs of inness and as weetness and kindmess. If you wish to be strong and powerful and prave, and kind—it is because you have in your wish lies in you asleep, and by wishing it long enough and earnestly enough you are calling to it to wake which you are dropping the sunlight and rain of your own fertile desire. No lion tamer is likely to wish samestly that he were a poet. No lion tamer is likely to wish samestly that he were a poet. No lion tamer is likely to wish samestly that he were a poet. No lion tamer is likely to wish samestly that he were a poet. No lion tamer is likely to wish samestly that he were a poet. No lion tamer is likely to wish same that the were an astronomer. But if he should-se wish in his heart, he will surely not be quiescent in his ditch-digging or satisfied with his grid to wishing to live to the world. Thirty years your prosphility for growth, What you wish is the measure of your pown personality must drive you to try to attain.

The world is the world with the world wished to have an education—for I do to what my wishing to be able to see a way to make my wishing to be able to see a way to make my wishes come true. Look about you for the world wishing to be able to see a way to make my wishes come true. When the world wishing to be able to see a way to make my wishes come true. TRAVELETTE By NIKSAH SALINA CRUZ

Three-fourths of the way from San Francisco to Panama is Salina Cruz, at the point of the elbow where it swings furthest to the south and west swings furthest to the south and west—a town which has the distinction of being an outpost of civilization, and at the same time the possessor of the most modern port facilities to be found anywhere in the world.

The steamships that ply back and forth through Uncle Sam's great canal nearly all stop at Salina Cruz. They put in between rock-built jettles that would make Galveston proud, anchor in thirty feet of water that makes an artificial harbor at a point upon which formerly stood a town. They pass beneath drawbridges that work by pressing a button, and the cargoes are shifted off and on by electric cranes that are up to the very minute.

But the traveler, observing these cargoes are shifted off and on by electric cranes that are up to the very minute.

But the traveler, observing these evidences of enterprise, is disappointed when he starts out in search of a town to match them. Looking to sandward he sees a barrier of naked hills through which there seems no passage way. From them to the water's edge is a sand waste, over which the wind sweeps bleakly, driving the earth before it. In a semicircle a quarter of a mile away are a collection of inharmonious buildings, bearing unmistakable European earmarks and certainly not Mexican.

He begins to understand when he is told that an English corporation has developed the region. A railroad has been pushed across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec and Salina Cruz is the Pacific terminus. The steamships of one ocean unload at one side of the continent and those of the other ocean receive the cargoes on the other ocean receive the cargoes on the other ocean receive the cargoes on the other ocean receive the cargoes in the footsteps of Englishmen have dogged those of many strange visitors. When Cortez conquered Mexico, it is set down that he asked Montezuma (whether under torture is not stated) where the gold came from. These bleak hills were among the regions mentioned. Cortex sent Plzarro, afterward conqueror of Peru, to find the gold, and that buccaneer came near depriving Balboa of the glory of discovering rae Pacific, for he got within five miles of it. Cortez afterward explored the region himself, and it was granted to him by the King of Spaln, and remained in the possession of his descendants until 1908. The cattle of these hills are still branded with the Cross of Santlago, which was first paced upon their anindicate his ownership. Undoubtedly the sports coats makes one of the most important garments of the season. It is worn not alone for tennis, for golf and for occasions of the sort, but also upon the piazza, for the stroll upon the beach or at the mountains and indeed for any occasion when such a wrap is needed. This one is as simple as it is smart and so easy to make that any home dressmaker can undertake the task with assurance of success. The shoulders are dropped a little and that means that the sleeves are easy to fit, for the coat otherwise is loose, the sash confining it sufficiently at the waist line. In the picture, it is made of striped taffeta and that material is a new and a favorite one but plain colored glove or Jersey silks are much liked for coats of this sort, taffeta in various colors and in various effects is used, faille also is seen and the model also is an excellent one for serge, gabardine which was first paced upon their an-indicate his ownership.

SUMMER DRINKS SUMMER DRINKS
During canning season it is easy to save a little fruit or berry syrup and bottle it for use later in the summer, or early the next season, before fresh berries can be obtained. These juices and syrups may be combined into an unlimited number of punches and "adea" in various colors and in various effects is used, faille also is seen and the model also is an excellent one for serge, gabardine and the like. The fronts are faced and the collar is made double and the lining and the facing can be made of the same or of contrasting material, also the sash can match the coat or be made of a different material. It is simply a straight piece, passed around the waist and knotted. Cretonne is one of the newest materials for sports coats and is handsome with collar and cuffs of black velvet.

For the medium size will be required 5 yds. of material 27 in. wide, 3½ yds, 36, 3 yds. 44, with 2½ yds. 10 in, wide for the sash.

The pattern No. 8730 is cut in sizes from 34 to 44 in. bust measure. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents. milimited number of punches and "ades."

Another syrup, more in demand for cool drinks than berry julces, is that made from julce and rind of oranges or lemons, making a sugar and water syrup of any desired thickness as the basis. With a supply of orange syrup, lemon syrup, strawberry, raspberry, currant, loganberry, cherry, and grape julces or syrups, it is a simple matter to flavor both desserts and drinks during warm weather.

Plain lemonade and orangeade may be just as satisfactory to many people as more fancy arrangements of fruits. The flavor of these is much beter if they are made with boiling water, then cooled, and served as cold as possible. A good proportion to use for lemonade is one cup sugar, julce of four lemons, four cups boiling water.

ness and national defense and conservation of natural resources were the subjects under consideration at the concluding meetings of the governors' conference to-day. It was expected that the discussion on preparedness would continue beyond the formal sessions of the conference and be taken up at a clambake at Pemberton to-night.

The forenoon meeting was given over to the consideration of conservation, with former Governor John A. Dix, of New York, and Governors George A. Carlson, of Colorado and Ernest Lister, of Washington, as the announced speakers.

DISMISS READING POLICEMAN
Reading, Pa., Aug 27.—An aftermath of the recent prosecution of City Detectives Edward T. Hallissey and Peter S. McGovern on charges of extortion and receiving bribes by "Tony" Penn was the dismissal to-day of Patrolman Fred Marks. Several days ago Penn made an affdavit admitting the charges were a "frameup" and said that Marks and prominent Republican leaders instigated the prosecution.

ter. Some prefer a dash of ginger or nutmeg; the flavor of these also, is improved by mixing them in with the boiling water, instead of adding to the glass of lemonade. Orangeade is made as above, with the juice of four oranges and one lemon, one cup sugar, five cups boiling water. The addition of a well-beaten egg to either of these makes a nourishing as well as refreshing drink, and by this combination many people are able to take eggs better than in any other form.

ENGLISH MEAD

A drink very litle known in this country is old English mead, according to Farm and Home. It allows any number of variations, and to the children is as entertaining as the corner drug store with its soda fountain. The foundation is a syrup made of two pounds sugar, two ounces tartaric acid, half cup sugar, juice of one lemon, three pints water. Boil five minutes. When cool, stir in the beaten whites of three eggs, flavor with wintergreen. Bottle cool. Use two tablespoons of this in a glass nearly full of water; foam with quarter of a teaspoon soda. Instead of filling the glass full of water, you may add a tablespoon of any fresh or bottled fruit juices; orange or lemon, chocolate, etc.
