"WILDFLOWER" AT THE REGENT TO-DAY

By request return engagement of Margaret Clark in "Wildflower" at the Regent to-day only. The "Wildflower" is one of the most attractive film plays ever exhibited on the screen, and with Miss Marguerite Clark, in her most bewitching manner as "Wildflower" brings the play to the height of dramatic success. The scenic beauty of the place, the clever portrayal of the different parts and the enchanting surroundings marks this as one of the most successful of the higher class pictures projected upon the screen. Monday and Tuesday. — The exquisite Marguerite Clark will appear in a charming photoproduction of Frances Hodgson Burnett's celebrated romance, "The Pretty Sister of Jose." As the tiny, exquisite Spanish girl of a thousand moods and whims who has vowed never to lose her heart, but who, when finally conquered by the handsome Sebastiano, loves truly and devotedly. Miss Clark is utterly incomparable. With her fascinating dark beauty and charming grace of form and motion, Miss Clark, is exceptionally adapted to the role of the dainty little dark-eyed bell of Madrid. The rapidly changing development of the story, with its wealth of color and romance, has resulted in a thoroughly unusual photoplay.—Advertisement.
