Club Women Interested in Peace Day Program

MRS. PERCY PENNYPACKER.

White the entire program for "Peace Day" at the Grangers on Wednesday is delightful, club women are especially interested in the fact that Mrs. Percy Pennypacker, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs will be present and make an address. Mrs. Pennypacker is a fine orator, weighing her words and withholding them till the predetermined moment for utterance arrives. She is distinguished as one of the sanest and calmest minds in the forefront of the modern women movement, and at the same time, one of the most courageous and determined. Her home at Austin, Texas, is a social and intellectual center from which radiates a cordial and generous hospitality marked by simplicity, and her own hand is always on the domestic machinery. Her children are devotedly mothered and she manages her own financial affairs, her church activities and social duties. She is punctually and promptly personified in the keeping of engagements which is a secret of her wonderful record of accomplishments. Her enthusiasm and personal magnetism have won her hosts of friends and no one has ever heard her words of sincere appeal for progress along highest lines without acquiring a permanent inspiration for things worth while. The "Peace Meeting" will begin at 1:30 o'clock with Mrs. Edward Biddle of Carlisle, president of the Woman's Peace Party of Pennsylvania, presiding. Trains leave Harrisburg for Williams Grove at 7:50, 9:48 and 11:53 a. m., and it will be better to take an earlier one than risk the later which may be a long while on the way because of the crowds.
