INDIANS BEAT YANKEES; SCHACHT BIG FACTOR

Pieh Is Good Eating For Local Hitters in Two Innings; Shawkey in Game

The Indians put one over on Bill Donovan's Yankees yesterday, taking the game; score, 4 to 1. It was not a gift on the part of the American League, but a real victory. Al Schacht was the big factor. Winning this game puts the local twirler in line for promotion later on.

The Yanks had star players in the line-up. Some of the fielders have not been prominent in recent games in the West. Donovan has been switching his players all season. Fritz Maisei, the real star with the Highlanders and this season's greatest base runner, was out of the game on account of illness.

One Sensational Play in the Game

The only sensational play in the game was a running catch by Mowe, when he snatched a foul fly from the left field fence, running through water knee deep. Eddie Zimmerman made a try, but Mowe beat him to it. Bob Shawkey, the former Harrisburg twirler, stirred up enthusiasm when he went into the box for two innings.
