be hitched wrong, single or double; broke for the most timid person to drive.

One pair of Bay Cob Horses, Mutt and Jeff. They stand 16 hands high, weigh about 24 hundred lbs., are broke to all city objects and to all harness; a great show team. Can use either horse out of any team and make a great Road or Carriage Team. These four horses are the handlest horses in this part of the country, matters not how or where you hitch them, single, double or 4 in hand.

One pair Black Horses, Nig and Jim, weigh about 23 hundred lbs., a great livery team, as they cannot be hitched wrong. A handsome team suitable for Hearse, Carriage or General Business, a team worthy the inspection of any one looking for a team of this kind, and are broke to all harness and city objects.

One Bay Pacing Horse, John, a great road or pleasure horse, works heavy or light; a great fun horse that can pace a mile around 2:40 without any training.

One Bay Horse, "Dan," 7 years old, weighs about 1,000 lbs. A great livery or pleasure horse, used with Bay Pacing Horse as a team.

One Brown Horse, suitable for all business, has been my old stand-by for years.

If interested in any of the above mentioned stock, don't miss this chance, as you don't often find a class of horses like these in a livery barn.
