

Two Reasons Why

QUESTION NO. 1—WHY MUST AN UPTOWN STORE SUCH AS OURS SELL CHEAPER THAN A DOWN TOWN STORE?

QUESTION NO. 2—HOW CAN AN UPTOWN STORE SUCH AS OURS SELL CHEAPER THAN A DOWN TOWN STORE?

OUR ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 1

A furniture store as large as ours must depend upon drawing its trade from all sections of a city or district. It can not live upon a business gotten from any single locality. We know just as well as any one that our store is situated at a considerable distance from the main shopping center and also that the great tendency of people is to shop where nearly all the large stores are located. Hence, we realize that in order to get a goodly number of people to our store, we must necessarily show a stock of goods at all times equal in every way to the down-town stores and also at prices considerably below.

OUR ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 2.

In the first place, lower rents and true economy in all other store expenses. No unnecessary number of clerks sitting around half the time doing nothing. The proprietors satisfied with a moderate annual income. In this store the proprietors do all the buying and also nearly all the selling. We think this counts for something in the interest of our customers. There are many other reasons that could be given, but visit our store and judge for yourself.

this world. Every school boy can quote you "yon Cassius hath a lean and hungry look," and this type has stalked through history and fiction, threatening the peace of individuals and nations.

It is not surprising that the person who suffers from dyspepsia should take a pessimistic view of life. One of the chief functions of the body, digestion, is amiss and three times a day the sufferer is apt to be reminded of the fact.

The manifestations of digestive disturbances differ materially. Often enough they are not recognized as such, in fact in many cases the symptoms show themselves elsewhere than in the digestive organs. It may result in headache, defective sight, heartburn, dizziness or similar ways which continually recur or vary from time to time.

In the earlier stages indigestion may only discover itself as a general feeling of discomfort. The causes are numerous, hasty eating, when exhausted, or some functional disorder of one of the digestive organs.

Care as to the diet, sufficient time for meals, regularity in eating and care about overloading the stomach when tired, are things which should be observed by those who would avoid indigestion.

The causes of indigestion are numerous and sometimes so serious that the best medical skill should be called in to determine the source. The use of home remedies and patent medicines if depended upon, may consume time that should have been devoted to more radical treatment.

WOMEN CAN'T WORK OVER SIX DAYS NOW

Attorney General Gives an Opinion on the Subject to the Department of Labor

In an opinion given to the Department of Labor and Industry Attorney General Brown holds that women may not be employed as railroad telegraphers or telephone operators more than six days a week, even though the work be very light. The opinion is the first to be given on this feature of the women's employment act of 1913 and is very positive in its language.

The attorney general says: "You forward the letter of two telegraph and two telephone operators of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and request an opinion based upon their letter as to whether the act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1024, regulating the labor of women, is mandatory, in so far as it prohibits working more than six days in one week."

"The act provides, in unmistakable terms in Section 3, 'No female shall be employed or permitted to work in, or in connection with, any establishment for more than six days in any one week,' etc."

"This department has heretofore interpreted this law as liberally as possible, so as not to work hardship, and we have considered this request with reference to the facts stated in the letter submitted with your request, viz: that 'this provision of the law will ultimately close this line of work to women,' with a view, if possible, to finding some method for so construing it as not to work such result."

"We are unable so to do. The language is plain and there is no room for any other construction. The prohibition that 'no female shall be employed for more than six days in any one week' is mandatory. We are not permitted to deviate from the plain letter of the statute. The appeal for relief, if the hardship exists as indicated in the letter which you submit, must be made to the Legislature, but as long as the law stands as now written, I advise you that it is unlawful to permit women to work in any establishment more than six days in any one week."

A. W. Holman Will Open Men's Clothing Store Here

A. W. HOLMAN

Mr. Holman is one of Harrisburg's well-known younger businessmen, having been a resident of this city for the past six years. He has been identified with the men's clothing and furnishing business for the past sixteen years in this and other cities, acting in the capacity of buyer and manager. His experience has been wide and he is equipped with his opportunity to study the wants of local people during his business life in Harrisburg, have been important factors in his decision to establish a business for himself in the city.

Berlin Paper Comments on Wilson, Bryan and T. R.

By Associated Press

Berlin, Sept. 1, via London 11:20 a. m.—The National Zeitung publishes to-day a leading article under the heading, "Wilson, Bryan and Roosevelt," which is noteworthy for its friendly tone and for the ungrudging admiration expressed for President Wilson.

The article begins by saying that discussions of the Arab affair have been in a quieter tone since Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador at Washington, presented his request to the American Government to delay action until Germany had had the opportunity of presenting its side of the case. Even the anti-German newspapers admitted the justice of this request, the article says.

President Wilson is pictured in the article as standing between two rivals, whose activities threatened to bring about such a situation that the President might make his attitude toward Germany dependent on domestic political considerations.

Mr. Wilson is characterized as a more clever politician than "the unlucky Bryan and the astute politician, Roosevelt."

Orthodox Jews in U. S. to Pray For Peace Sunday

By Associated Press

New York, Sept. 1.—All the Orthodox Jewish synagogues throughout the United States were notified to-day that Sunday, September 5, had been set apart as a day of fasting and prayer. The proclamation revives the old Jewish custom of establishing a time to fast and pray on account of national tribulation.

The proclamation was made last night at the great synagogue of the Orthodox Jews here after imposing ceremonies attended by 100 rabbis from all over the country. The speakers told an immense congregation of the sufferings of their brethren in Asia and Europe.
