INDIANS ON FINAL TRIP---TWO GAMES AT RICHMOND---GARDNER CHAMPION

PICK TENNIS STARS FOR FINAL MATCHES

East Will Meet West in Semifinals Today; Williams Is Favorite

New York, Sept. 6.—The selections for the international tennis matches

R. Norris Wijliams, II. of Philadelphia; Karl H. Behr. of New York; Frederick B. Alexander, of New York: Nathaniel W. Niles, of Boston, and T. R. Pell, of New York.

It may be necessary to substitute W. M. Washburn, of New York, for Alexander, as the latter suffered an injury in his match with Maurice E. McLoughlin on Friday in the all-comerstennis championship tournament.

The intersectional series will consist of four singles and two doubles, to be decided Friday and Saturday, September 10 and 11, on the turf of the West Side Tennis Club, at Forest Hills.

The prediction was general to-day among tennis followers that R. Norris Williams, II, of Philadelphia, the playing-through champion, and Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, would stand as the survivors of the semi-final matches to-day. R. Norris Williams, II. of Philadel-

Dauphin Takes Two Games From Millersburg on Saturday; Other Battles

Special to The Telegraph

Marysville, Pa., Sept. 6.—Marysville will line up with Halifax to-day in the last Dauphin-Perry League season game. Marysville holds first place by the narrow margin of a half game Victory will mean a full game lead over Dauphin.

Manager Koppenhaver will present Mark Adams, the ex-Tri-State portsider who twirled the last inning of Mark Adams, the ex-Tri-State portsider who twirled the last inning of last Saturday's game and Bailor as his battery. Hart, who would have been credited with a no-hit game Saturday had it not been for an unfortunate slip of an outfielder, may go in the box and attempt to duplicate his Saturday's performance.

Dauphin was the bear cat team in Saturday's battles, taking two games from Millersburg. Dauphin is now in second place and promises to be a strong contender for pennant honors. Newport put a crimp in Duncannon's chances of winning, by a close score. Marysville shut out Halifax.

Only one game was played in the Dauphin-Schuylkill League and Williamstown won from Elizabethville, 9 to 4. The Firemen's League had two games. Friendship shut out the Citizen team, and Washington walked all over Camp Curtin. The Good Will won over the Relly by a forfeit.

New Cumberland strengthened their hold on first place by winning from Lebanon. Highspire with a new lineup crimped Middletown, and Steelton lost to Hershey in an eleven inning game, score 2 to 1.
