WELLS TELLS HOW HE HAD CONEVAGO VOTE

Democratic Vote Controlled by One Man Up Until Last Spring; Sheriff Cheerful

Sheriff Harry C. Wells, Washington-Democratic candidate for county commissioner, believes he can count on the support of at least half the Democratic vote of Conevago township. He learned during a recent visit to the township how nearly he might have corraled it all. True, he was a bit skeptical about it, so he looked up last year's registration records to satisfy himself. Here's the story he told about it: "While in the township a few days ago on business I had occasion to meet Isaac Dimler. Naturally our conversation swung round to politics—that's liable to happen these days, you know—and in the course of our talk I had pretty good reason to believe that Mr. Dimler would be for me. He told me incidentally that he is a Democrat. "Yes," he went on, "I think I can safely say that I controlled half the Democratic vote in this township. In fact until last Spring I controlled it all. "Sho!" said I, for this looked interesting, "why what happened last Spring?" "Why," said Mr. Dimler, "another Democrat moved into the district. "City Representative at Pasadena, Cal.—Scores of splendid pictures of Harrisburg's park and playground system which had been included in the great municipal exhibition in Pasadena, Cal., a few weeks ago, have been returned to the park department. The exhibition was held by the Pasadena Board of Trade and the cabinet of pictures was considered one of the finest of its kind.

"THE RED ROSE"

The advance sale for the special engagement of John C. Fisher's musical comedy success, "The Red Rose," at the Orpheum for Thursday and Friday at the box office of that playhouse to-morrow. Owing to the heavy demand that will come up, Manager L. P. Jones Hopkins has made arrangements to receive mail orders accompanied by check or money order and file them in the order of their receipt. "The Red Rose" is the musical comedy sensation of the setting season, and its coming to the Orpheum at this time will introduce here for the first time an entire original and remarkable dancing chorus and production that made it so popular during its long run at the Globe Theater, New York City.—Advertisement.

"DADDY LONG-LEGS"

Jean Webster's famous comedy, "Daddy Long-Legs," which comes to the Orpheum on Friday for a two-day engagement, has already received a remarkable tribute of praise from the representative dramatic reviewers of America. Her new just "Sensation-seeking Broadway has a great deal to learn from "Daddy Long-Legs" and the play is a real gem. "Daddy Long-Legs" is the heart-walks right in without stopping to knock.—New York Herald. "Chicago has been asked to give a verdict in the case of "Daddy Long-Legs" and the verdict is that it is the faintest and most delightful play of the season.—Chicago Examiner.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE

The Majestic's Labor Day bill has made its mark. "Round at Harrisburg's new vaudeville house a capacity audience this afternoon branded it a sure fire success. "The Beaux and Belles," a beautiful musical tableau with its pretty girls and matry youths, which occupies the top-notch position, is as neat and bright an attraction as the most fastidious could wish for. Webb and Burns, the comedians, singers and instrumentalists, who were remembered as having appeared at the Orpheum last season, scored also. Marie Hart, the versatile artist, doing a little of everything in the afternoon, receives a warm welcome; and Patricia and Meyers, nifty couple in a flirtation skit, received probably the biggest bulk of the applause. A couple other fine Keith novelties and two reels of splendid moving pictures complete the deserving performance.—Advertisement.

"THE MOTH AND THE FLAME" AT THE REGENT

"The Moth and the Flame," the greatest of all plays by Clyde Fitch, has been produced with remarkable effect by the Famous Players Film Co., and is the great attraction on the Paramount program at the Regent to-day and to-morrow. The moth is Marion Molton, a fashionable but very lovable girl in New York, who is in love with Edward Fletcher, is warned by her friends of his character. "Womanlike, she openly declares she does not believe the stories of his past. She is about to marry him, when another woman, with a child, presents herself, and claims the name of the man. The moth is misled by the flattery of the man, and not see the peril threatening her. The moth sees her danger, however, just in time to avert it, and the extinguishment of the flame, the moth, though her wings are singed, still manages to fly to safety and rescue her soul from the devouring fire. Wednesday and Thursday—"Cocher Ocoers," on the Paramount program, will be the chief attraction, featuring Henry Ainley.—Advertisement.

Big Tabernacle Dedicated by the Rev. Dr. W. N. Yates For Marysville Campaign

Hills, Sept. 6.—Yesterday the big Hills tabernacle was dedicated, hundreds of persons from practically all of cross river towns being in attendance. The meeting was in charge of the Rev. E. L. Moore, and the Rev. Dr. William N. Yates, of Harrisburg, delivered the dedicatory sermon. The Stough chorus and the Christian Endeavor choir of the Sixth Street United Brethren Church, of Harrisburg, were present and rendered some music. The evangelistic campaign will start next Sunday.

Schwab Will Build New Steel Mill at Monaca

Monaca, Pa., Sept. 6.—As a result of a visit made here by Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel Company, and a number of capitalists three weeks ago, it has been learned that a syndicate of Pittsburgh capitalists and manufacturers are formulating plans for a great steel plant on a site near the Colona Steel Works at the upper end of the city. Specifications are being drawn up for the erection of several open-hearth furnaces and steel billet mills. The demand for billets is now much greater than the supply, owing to their use in the making of artillery projectiles. While the new plant will probably be operated as an independent concern, it is said here that it will operate in conjunction with the Bethlehem Steel Company. When operating in full the new plant will employ 2500 men.

Automobile Wrecked on Road Near Greencastle

Waynesboro, Sept. 6.—An automobile party of some of the most prominent people of Waynesboro, composed of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Criswell, Mrs. J. B. Fisher, Mrs. Hazel Weagley and Jacob H. Stoner, cashier of the Peoples' Bank, figured in an automobile accident Friday night that resulted in the injury of all the party and the smashing into junk of two automobiles. The parties were returning from Chambersburg, and when nearing Greencastle they were run into by an automobile occupied by a young man and two women. Mrs. Weagley was thrown out and her back was sprained, her head cut and she suffered cuts on the body. Mrs. Stoner was struck above the right eye by the top of the colliding car. The other members of the party escaped severe injuries, while the occupants of the other automobile were not injured.

TOBACCO IS BACKWARD

Special to The Telegraph.
Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 6.—The cold weather that prevailed last week gave Lancaster County's tobacco growers a scare, as they feared an early frost and consequent damage to the crop. Many have not forgotten the great early frost of 1904, when thousands of acres of tobacco were ruined.

When at Newport

Warm weather even now would benefit the crop in a first-class crop. Considerable cutting of broadleaf was done last week. Must in consideration of tapping a spring. One old miner went on digging long after the others had given up hope of reaching water. When asked why, the old miner replied:

FINDS GOLD IN GALLIPOLI
Miner Among Australian Troops Makes Discovery in Sand
By Associated Press
The Dardanelles, Sept. 6.—Gold has been discovered near the British positions on the Gallipoli Peninsula. A few days ago a squad of Australian troops was digging a hole in expectation of tapping a spring. One old miner went on digging long after the others had given up hope of reaching water. When asked why, the old miner replied: "Well, this bit of country is just like western Australia, and if there ain't any water there's sure to be gold." Sure enough, his trained eyes soon after did discover gold among the sands, but not in paying quantities.

RUNAWAY HORSE WORSTED

Bloomsburg Equine Hurts Woman, Scares Crowds and Falls into Ditch

Special to The Telegraph

Bloomsburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—The horse of Frank Miller, of East Bloomsburg, figured in a runaway last Saturday night. Activities began when the horse, driven by Miller's son, Robert, collided with another horse, hurling both Miller and a young woman to the ground and badly injuring the woman.

The horse took to the pavement in Main street just as the motion-picture houses were discharging their crowds, narrowly missing pedestrians and plate glass windows. For three squares he kept to the pavements and then, taking to the street, turned into the fair grounds and fell into a 16-foot ditch. The horse escaped with a few scratches.

LETTERS DEMAND MONEY

Contain Threat to Blow up Banker's Mausoleum

Special to The Telegraph

Kane, Pa., Sept. 6.—Local police, as well as the county detectives, are investigating a threat to destroy the McDermott mausoleum in St. Callistus' cemetery. Mrs. E. H. McDermott has received two threatening letters, and both demand $1000. The letters stated that unless she placed the money at a certain spot on a small bridge near the cemetery the mausoleum would be blown up.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ON CROSSING

Special to The Telegraph

Glens Falls, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Nelson Norton, 67 years old; his wife, 62 years; their daughter, May, 20; their daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Norton, 30, and her three-year-old daughter, Edith, were instantly killed yesterday afternoon when a touring car in which they were driving from Lake George to their homes, in Whitehall, was demolished by a Delaware and Hudson excursion train. John Norton, a sixth occupant, saved himself by jumping from the machine.

YORK COUNTY RALLY

Special to The Telegraph

Lisburn, Sept. 6.—On Thursday the fourth annual rally of the twelfth district of York county, will be held in the Fairview Bethel Church of God. The district is comprised of Fairview and Newberry townships, and the boroughs of Goldsboro, Lewisberry and York Haven.
