GREAT INTEREST IN BIG WATER CARNIVAL

Hardly anything but the carnival is talked about among the rivermen and boatmen and even the sand flatmen are making preparations to have their boats decked out for the big water parade.

Inquiries Pouring In
Mr. Hoffert says that thus far no entries have been received for the two-mile motorboat race or the two hundred and twenty-yard canoe race for girls, but that numerous inquiries about these events are coming in and that he expects these races to be among the most exciting of the day. Ten entry blanks were sent to inquirers this morning.

With the announcement of the valuable prizes to be given the winners of the various events, entries began to come in fast to-day. Up until noon these entries had been registered.

Commissioners Trying to Beautify "Front Steps" For Great Celebration

City Commissioner Bowman to-day gave instructions to the Berryhill Nursery Company to proceed at once with the planting on the plaza at the pumping station. Considerable of the shrubbery which will be used can be secured at the city nurseries and planting of the trees will come later in the autumn. Commissioner Bowman has given much personal attention to this improvement and has been the recipient of many congratulations by reason of the artistic surroundings of the pumping station. His forces of employees are quite as enthusiastic as the Commissioner himself and are co-operating with him in making the place a beauty spot for all who pass along the River Front. Commissioner Bowman is co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce committee in arranging that the public work under his charge be completed, if possible, before the big celebration has given orders that temporary electric lights shall be used at night on the closing of the gap at Market street on the river wall. Elbridge Cowden, the engineer in charge of the work, has been pushing along with all possible speed and has had to overcome many difficulties by reason of the unprecedented stage of the water at this season of the year. Coffers dams have been used and Mr. Cowden feels now that it will be possible to complete the work before the celebration. Such fill as will be necessary to close the space between the concrete stringers and the steps is being obtained from several sources. Commissioner Taylor, who is doing his utmost to have everything throughout the park system in fine shape for the celebration will increase his force of men so as to place the work among the River Front throughout its entire length in presentable condition. Considerable damage was done to the planting during the construction of the concrete work and the heavy rains of the summer have still further aggravated the conditions, but Commissioner Taylor promises to make a personal inspection of the whole area and will fill in and grade and trim wherever necessary.

In short, it is the purpose of the heads of all these departments to do their level best to make the "Front Steps of Harrisburg" as attractive as possible before the celebration. To-day the employees of the Light and Power Company were busy installing the cables which will furnish current for the standard lights along the river front. It is the expectation of the company to have all this work completed before the celebration.

Committee Chairmen Will Report on the Celebration Plans

Beginning next week C. Floyd Hopkins, general manager of the great municipal improvement celebration, will get in personal touch with all committee chairmen in charge of the various activities to see just what progress each is making. It is possible that another general round-up session of the celebration workers will be held some time next week. Circular letters were mailed by Chairman A. E. Buchanan, of the Merchants' committee to-day. Each merchant is given an outline of the program for Thursday and Friday nights. Information is also given regarding the window display and dollar day features. Attention is also called to the change in starting the cabaret program at 9 o'clock. Each merchant participating will receive a card to be placed in his windows giving the following information: "This store will participate in Harrisburg's Civic Celebration, September 22-24-25. "Window display commences 7:30 p. m. Thursday, September 23. "Merchants' Dollar Day and Fall Sale all day Friday, September 24. Invitations went out to-day to the leaders of comic bands. Chairman Francis H. Hoy, Jr., expects eight or ten to enter. Two silver cups will be awarded as first and second prizes. Among the bands expected to enter the contest are Dives Fomeroy and

Stewart, Elizabethtown "Snitzel Bum," band; Lemoyne Sour Note Band; Rescue Hose, of Middletown, and bands from Hummelstown and Middletown.

2 BEERS A DAY FOR INTERNED GERMANS

Harrisburg Party Learn How Sailors on Eitel and Wilhelm Pass Their Time

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Fry, of Paxtang, and Dr. Samuel Z. Shope, Mrs. Shope, and their son Pierce Shope, of Third street near North, have just returned from a two weeks' jaunt to Baltimore, Norfolk, Newport News, Boston and New York.

The trip was notable for several things, one of which was an interview Dr. Shope had with Dr. Friedrich Zolle, an eye specialist on the interned Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who had visited the doctor and his party to visit the German vessel as his guests. Dr. Zolle explained to the Harrisburgers that the German officers and men, naturally enough, regret being in a position where they can no longer help their Fatherland, and that they one and all resent the offensive and neutral attitude of some of the American papers, pro-German as well as pro-ally. The Harrisburgers learned while in Norfolk that the men by their excellent behavior, politeness, and strict attention to the laws governing them as interned men, are winning the respect and love of everyone in that city with whom they come in contact. They pass their time in reading, playing, exercising and listening to the music of the bands on each ship. They are great writers to the home and about everything under the sun that goes for comfort and convenience. All the clothes for the men are made on the boats and the men are divided into squads such as machinists, painters, carpenters, iron workers, sailors, barbers, shoemakers, deckhands, stewards and so on. The men drill daily despite the fact that they will see no more of their officers and their text is usually like this:

Do not get intoxicated while on shore leave. Respect American women, American institutions and American laws. Act so as to compel American respect. Dr. Shope said this morning that the German sailors to a man insist that America does not come up to the standards of Germany. Dr. Zolle, however, declared that he must take his hat off to American eye specialists, and inquired of Dr. Shope after all the latest American discoveries in the science in which both are interested. Dr. Zolle is now taking a special course on the eye at Johns Hopkins University, and Dr. Shope is now working during the period of internment. "Two Beers" a Day C. J. Mains, head of the Virginia Advertising Service and an officer of the Norfolk Rotary Club, who entertained the Harrisburgers—both Dr. Shope and Mr. Fry are active Rotarian Club members—during their stay in that city, said that vast quantities of food stuffs and bought by the marine purser of both the Kronprinz Wilhelm and the Eitel from the Norfolk merchants. The sailors are all "hefty" eaters and they each drink an average of "two beers" a day aboard ship. They receive as pay, forty-three pence a day which is equal to about ten cents.

By Mistaken For Governor Carey
After the Harrisburgers had seen the sights of Norfolk and its environs, they went by boat to Boston where they arrived in time to see the review of the American fleet by the conference of Governors. There the party had an amusing experience when Howard Fry was mistaken for Governor Joseph M. Carey of Wyoming. The big smiling fellow carried the joke right through the big banquet of governors to which they were invited, and many a person went away from that feast with a picture of Mr. Fry's face pictured in their mind as that of the Wyoming chief executive.

While in Boston the Harrisburgers visited the Old Constitution and while there Dr. Shope won the everlasting gratitude of the aged caretaker of the old dog of war by taking a foreign body out of his eye. "He promised to give me a chunk of the old vessel," laughed the doctor this morning, "but I've yet to see it."

After the visit to Boston, the party returned home after a short stay in New York city.

Snoddy and Augst Favor Penbrook Road Improvement

Two of the three men who requested that their names be withdrawn from the paving petition in Penbrook have signed a request to permit their names to remain with the least possible expense to the public, favoring the paving of Main street. S. G. Snoddy and George M. Augst also requested that their names be withdrawn from the proposed improvement. Snoddy and Augst are members of the school board and active in affairs that pertain to the welfare of the borough, and among the most enthusiastic of the property owners along Main street who wish the best method of improvement made with the least possible expense to the public. Having received the councilmen's viewpoint and consulted with other property owners along Main street, they expressed themselves as perfectly willing to abide by the wishes of the majority. The following is a synopsis of their statement as presented to the council this evening:

Penbrook, Pa., Sept. 6, 1915. To the President and Members of the Penbrook Borough Council: We, the undersigned, do not wish to be withdrawn from the proposed improvement in the borough of Penbrook that meets with the approval of a majority of the property owners and the borough officials. Therefore, to avoid possible complications, we respectfully request that the councilmen permanently defeat the improvement which we all hope to attain even though our method of accomplishing it may differ. We respectfully ask that our names be withdrawn from the petition of protest presented to the council Friday evening, September 3, and allow our names to remain on the original petition favoring the paving of Main street with such material as the property owners with the greatest interest in the matter may specify, and by whatever method the council deems most practical. We are mechanics, and several of us are professional engineers on road construction.

S. G. SNODDY, GEORGE M. AUGST.
The committee was unable to get in touch with W. H. Wolf yesterday, but it is understood that he withheld his approval for the present but directed a letter to the council in which he will state his position. This evening Mr. Wolf is reported as favoring the retention of the original Telford foundation, which the councilmen say does not meet with the State engineers' approval.

SOMERSET COUNTY IS BACK IN OLD FOLD

Senator Penrose Is Told Progressives Have Returned to Republican Ranks

Special to The Telegraph

Somerset, Pa., Sept. 7.—Somerset County Progressives are virtually all back in the Republican party, the Republicans say. Somerset was a Roosevelt stronghold in 1912, and gave Gifford Pincho, Washington party candidate for Senator last year, a large vote. Senator Penrose was so informed yesterday, not only by stalwart Republicans, but by men who have been prominent in the Washington party. Senator Penrose's headquarters at the Vannor Hotel were crowded with active Republicans, including many of the candidates for the county offices. He conferred with V. A. Saylor, chairman of the Republican County Committee and District Attorney, who is a candidate for reelection.

Figures show that while the third party enrollment last fall exceeded 1200, this year less than 100 voters have enrolled.

Among Senator Penrose's callers were all of the Republican county leaders and some of the former Washington party leaders, including Robert R. Scull, Fred Beisecker, John R. Scott and D. B. Zimmerman. Senator Penrose made two addresses to-day, he spoke to the students at the Somerset High school, attended a rally of the P. O. S. of A. at Shankesville. The Senator was accompanied to Shankesville by the Rev. I. Hess Wagner, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Somerset, who also spoke. There was a reception in the senior Senator's honor at the Vannor Hotel last night.

It's Getting Close to Coal Time

Do you realize that it will be but a short time before we run into that weather when a fire in the house will be necessary to health and comfort? Better be prepared. Look after your bins now, phone us your order, and we'll send you the kind of coal that gives out the greatest amount of heat units—the kind that goes farthest.

DON'T KISS, JUST "PAT-TAT"
Tap Her Lightly on the Cheek, You Might Spread Disease.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Dr. E. W. Grover, president of the Board of Health here, has announced that the ancient custom of kissing must stop, because, he says, it spreads tuberculosis and other diseases.

Dr. Grover advocates the "pat pat" as a substitute. The method of greeting was originated in the Republic of Dominica, where a campaign against the kiss was waged with disastrous results to Cupid.

To apply the "pat pat," the doctor explains, a couple osculantly inclined should approach each other within handshaking distance, pat each other lightly on the cheek and smile. Dr. Grover says there is too much kissing.

SONG SERVICE AT DAUPHIN

Dauphin, Pa., Sept. 7.—A special song service was held last evening in the Presbyterian Church, by the Choral Society, under the leadership of Mrs. William Worcester. The Rev. Robert F. Sterling spoke of the writers of some of the songs which were sung and a double quartet consisting of Miss Ora Bickel, Miss Mary Poffenberger, Miss Carrie Gerberich, Miss Sabra Clark, Earnest Shaffer, Charles Gerberich, Edgar Forney and Paul Worcester, sang "Oh My Soul, Bless Thou Jehovah."
