Tuneful Three-Act Musical Comedy With a Good Cast and Chorus Opens Theatrical Season

Last night witnessed the opening of the Orpheum, the home of the legiti-mate stage for this season. The attraction was John Fisher's production of 'The Red Rose," a musical comedy in three acts. The audience, which for the opening night was extremely small, was an appreciative one, and not infrequently encored both individual and ensemble numbers.

The show increased in attractiveness as the plot developed, for it must be confessed that the first act was rather made up for the shortcomings of the first. Familiar songs, for "The Red Rose" is not of this season's production; a singing chorus that had real merit; some really good comedy from the three comedians, made "The Red Rose" a show that provided a good en-tertainment.

Marguerite De Von was seen in the leading role.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE

The Majestic's new show embraces every feature that goes to make vaude-ville the popular type of entertainment it is. Chief of the attractions is a musical comedicta entitled, "Music Hath Chartms," which is presented by Mr. and Chartms, which is presented by Mr. and Islam of the presented of the chartman of the plane in artistic fashion. Emma Carroll displays a beautiful soprano voice; Miss Lovina Smythe, as a little Italian girl, dances charmingly, and F. Russell Gilbert sings up-to-the-wintle songs in spirited style. Another very popular turn of the bill is winsome Bessie Lecount, a sweet singer of popular songs, and Johnny Eckert and Billy Parker, in a rich comedy patter act called "The Golf Player," scores a laughing hit at each performance. Ernie and Ernie, the marvelous tumblers, and the Duneden Troupe of novelty comedians, complete the performance. Excellent moving picture features are included in each performance.—Advertisement. # The Harrisburg Diamond Claster has given Harrisburg a reputation as a diamond center. At Claster's the stock is the largest-at Claster's the assortments are so complete you have the widest scope in making selections.

Claster's Diamonds

are the finest examples of the diamond cutter's art. The stones are selected with critical care. They must be well proportioned and the facets laid with the greatest accuracy, producing a diamond of the greatest brilliancy.

Claster buys diamonds unmounted in large lots, for spot cash-gets them direct from the importers and saves all intermediate profits. Claster does his own mounting. He is satisfied with a small profit.

These are the reasons why you can get a Diamond here from 10 to 25 per cent. less than elsewhere.

night when it was found that young Kennedy was in a dying condition. He immediately gave notice to the supervisors that in the future when injured persons are brought to the hospital by other than the police the names of every person accompanying the patient must be recorded.

The accident which stirred up the hornet's nest happened directly in front of the boy's home. With several other boys, Young Kennedy was rollerskating. Grove, with his jitney was enroute to Steelton. The boy, according to Grove skated directly in front of the automobile and was run over. He was picked up by William Marshall and John Marshall who placed the boy in Grove's automobile. Tice McCabe who resides near the Kenendy home and who witnessed the accident acompanied the injured boy to the hospital.

"The boy was unconscious when he reached the hospital. He had a fractured skull, a broken left leg and internal injuries. His parents were sent for at once. An operation was impossible because of the boy's condition.
