

RAPS GIRL WHO FEARS TO SHOW HER ANKLE

"Does Show What She's Thinking About" Institute Speaker Tells Schoolma'ams

"There is never anything immodest in dress that is conventional and the woman who doesn't dare show her ankle, does show what she is thinking about," declared Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, in an address on "Personality" before the twentieth annual City Teachers Institute at Central High School this morning.

Urged to Get in Parade

The other leader on the program was Superintendent James L. Allison, of Wilkingsburg, who spoke on some of "The Teachers' Encouragements."

Penbrook Property Owners Receive Expert Advice

The largest meeting ever held in Penbrook for public improvement purposes assembled last evening in the town hall and heard the various phases of the paving question discussed by property owners, councilmen and an experienced paving contractor.

Joseph A. Miller was elected chairman and E. R. Speas secretary. Chas. R. Walter, a contractor from Harrisburg had been invited to give his views on the most practical method of procedure. He stated that it was a hard traveled street and should have a first-class job to insure satisfaction and advised acceptance of State-aid as the cheapest and safest policy.

RUSSIANS MEET WITH SUCCESS IN GALICIA

On the other fronts there is not as much action as in the past, so far as the official reports indicate. Sharp fighting is in progress along the Austro-Italian battle line, but no fresh news has been received from the Vosges and the Aronne, where the Germans have launched heavy attacks against French trenches.

"We Will Bond You"

DANGEROUS is the practice of signing your name as Surety on a Bond. The known defalcations in the United States in the last 14 years totaled $139,278,890.00 or $27,256.00 a day. Better say "no" to the next favor asked of you, and keep in mind that corporate surety bonds are BEST. Send your friend to see me.
