New Tech Eleven Coach Will Be Here Tuesday

Eight licenses for automobiles have been removed and nine have been canceled by State Highway Commissioner R. J. Cunningham in the last few months because drivers operated the cars while intoxicated and scores more have been warned not to repeat violations of the automobile laws of the State.

Enforcement of the automobile laws was inaugurated early in the summer, supplementing the efforts of the department for the last few years to see that automobile tags were properly displayed and many reports have been received from local authorities all over the State of infractions of the law. Motor clubs have added considerably in bringing about checking of speeding and reckless driving and the State Police have assisted in rounding up violators.

The department has taken the position that the automobile laws are now so well known and the number of machines has grown so much that everyone must be familiar with them and the strictness with which reports of violations are being followed up is taken here to mean that the regulations will be enforced vigorously.

The number of machines now in use in the State is double what it was four years ago. There has also been a big increase in the number of motor cycles.

A MIXED PICKLE RECEIPT
The number of pickles consumed by Americans has long been a standing newspaper joke. In fact, so much has been said that foreigners may be excused for believing that as a nation we live chiefly on pickles and pie! However, pickles in their place are very good and by no means to be despised. The pickle of commerce is good in these days, but the home-made pickle is better. To make good pickles two things are absolutely essential—care in the choice of utensils and the purest vegetable vinegar, be it cider or wine. The safest of all utensils is of course enameled ware as there is no danger of the action of the acid on metal. Take, therefore, a good sized enameled ware preserving kettle and make chili sauce. First slice four dozen ripe tomatoes, add ten ripe peppers and two onions chopped fine. Pour over these two quarts of vinegar. Add four tablespoonsful of salt, two tablespoonsful each of cloves, cinnamon, nutmeg and all-spice and a few leaves of mace. Finally stir in a large cup of sugar. Cook it a down until thick enough to serve. Sealed in glass, this keeps perfectly and is a wonderful addition to a cold meat dinner or luncheon.

A FINE BELGIAN DISH
A delicious dish much favored by the Belgium housewife is made of red cabbage and apples. Slice the cabbage thinly into an enameled ware pot and boil half an hour. Add four apples, also sliced, a pinch of salt and a half cup of sugar. Cook an hour longer. Serve cold on lettuce leaves or hot with fresh pork. Acidulous foods of this nature should always be cooked in enameled ware vessels, as metal utensils sometimes slightly affect the taste of the food and darken the color.

AIRICKS MEN MEET
The first Fall session of the Airicks association, last night was attended by a hundred members. Ellwell L. Wright was the principal speaker.

FRED W. GREEN Varsity Star of Lehigh Eleven Who Will Coach Tech High

Fred W. Green, new football coach at Tech High school, will take charge of the Tech Squad Tuesday afternoon. In a letter received to-day by Athletic Director Percy Grubb, Green says he was detained at Lehigh by examinations.

Records at Lehigh show Green a star in football and basketball. Members of class of 1914, Green was the most popular athlete at Lehigh. He won four letters last year, was captain of the Lehigh Varsity basketball team two years and the lacrosse team one year.

THE CLICK OF THE TYPEWRITER

An increasing number of the letters we get from subscribers are written on the typewriter. This is indeed a good thing. The letters are easier to read, they look more business-like, and, as everybody who uses a machine knows, they are certainly easier to write.

Sometimes the farmer's wife or daughter acts as his typist, but more often than not he writes the letter himself, on his own printed stationery. His farm has a name and has assumed a definite and important place in the world.

We recommend the typewriter, and the printed letter head. The cost of either need not be excessive. The children who use the machine always learn to spell better, and compose more correct English. The family has more pride in its correspondence and keeps it up to date. An increasing proportion of the buying and selling is now done by mail, and often a writing machine becomes a source of profit rather than an expense.—Farm Life.
