Bethlehem Steel Company

By Associated Press By Associated Press Sea Girt, N. J., Sept. 13.—Captain Richard A. Stockton, medalist of the American Cross of Honor and the pro-fessor of military science at the Bor-dentown Military Academy, yesterday afternoon plunged into a treacherous surf to rescue Miss Mae Wells, daugh-ter of Mrs. Phoebe Wells, of New York, and Harold J. Peters, a mem-ber of Battery A, New Jersey Artillery, of East Orange. Governor Fielder and Adjutant General Sadler saw the res-cue. Stockton, who is a captaln in the New Jersey National Guard, was walk-ing on the beach, when he heard the shouts of Miss Wells and Peters, who had gone to the rescue of the girl and was overcome by the strong tide. Last year he was awarded a gold medal by the American Cross of Honor for his attempt to save his cousin, Ed-ward Stockton, who was drowned in the Passaic river.

six months. Mr. Bair was one of the best-known businessmen of this city, his firm, lo-cated at 24 North Fourth street, being widely known throughout the tobacco trade circles of Central Pennsylvania. He came to this city sixteen years ago, but had been in the cigar manufac-turing business many years before that, his activity in the trade cover-ing fully forty years. Before coming to this city he was interested in a cigar factory at New Cumberland which he sold to the John C. Herman interests. He was the manufacturer of the "General Hartranft" and other popular cigar brands. Mr. Bair was a member of the Church of God for thirty years and was well-known because of his ac-tivities in church work. He was a charter member of the Church of God in New Cumberland and was instru-mental in the building of the Church of God at Goldsboro. Through him the First National Bank of Goldsboro, was organized, he having served as president from the time of its inception until his death. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning from his late home, the Rev. W. S. Sturgeon, pastor of the Goldsboro Church of God offi-ciating. His sons will be pallbearers at the funeral. Mr. Bair is survived by his wife, eight sons, William, Fil-more, Harvey, Daniel, Charles B., Ross, Orville, Benjamin and three daughters, Annie, Mary and Ella Bair. which is now the largest in the coun-try. The steel company now has a con-tract to furnish about 600 guns of var-ius calibre for the English and 10,000,000 high explosive and shrapnel shells. This week it received an order for 4,000,000 shells for the Russian army. Mr. Schwab this week said he would expend $15,000,000 next year in adding to the plant.

NO PEACE PLANS OFFERED By Associated Press

By Associated Press Rome, Sept. 12, via Paris, Sept. 13. —In discussing the recent visit of Cardinal Gibbons to President Wilson, the newspaper Roma which often is considered to be inspired by the Vati-can says there is no idea at present of offering mediation to the beliger-ents but that the Pope's object is to influence public opinion in favor of peace so that mediation will have every chance of success when the cir-cumstances seem favorable. South Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 13.— Further evidence that the English Government needs heavy artillery and ammunition in a hurry is seen in the fact that the Bethlehem Steel Com-pany has decided to add three more stories to its No. 2 machine shop, which is now the largest in the coun-STAMPING GOLD BARS
