Contains Nine Planks

Harry F. Sheesley, the Democratic choice for mayor, in a platform of nine planks issued yesterday, sets forth that he stands for a clean, moral city and a "greater Harrisburg." He wants the sewerage system reorganized and the fire department improved. He also declares for better street car service for the suburbs and the improvement of the Market street subway.

and the improvement of the Market street subway.

"A City Hall at an early date," is also demanded and Mr. Sheesley wants the city asphalt repair plant used for the paving of streets as well as for repairs. In conclusion he says he is for anything that will be for a bigger, better city and increase the contentment and happiness of its people. Railroad Men Alarmed

Over Steel Activities Pittsburgh, Sept. 13. - Scarcity of bor, predicted earlier in the year; plant extensions, which are of a rush character, and still higher prices are the features attracting the attention of steel and iron makers. Railroad managers are thoroughly alarmed over the enormous activity in the steel trade. From present indications it any attention next year. It would not prove surprising if late comers would have to pay higher prices for their rails. The leading trunk line managers have their engineers gathering data for next year's requirements and contracts for 1916 delivery will be placed much earlier than has been customary of late years.

One of the strange occurrences in the steel market during the week was the appearance of a French woman buyer. She discussed the purchase of form 29,000 to 25,000 tons of steel ingots to be delivered in France, and 5000 to 10,000 tons of bessemer pigiron. The material was for immediate delivery. It would ing successfully against the Murditaing successfully against the Murdites, meeting with slight resistance. The Murdites are reported to have sent an envoy to him to treat for peace. It is supposed Essad intends soon to proclaim himself supreme chief of Albania.

Places Alarm Clock by Side When Lies Down in Gutter to Sleep

John Daugherty, aged 84 years, will take no more chances of oversleeping when he selects a small alley or step to sleep off a jag. "John," who is well Water Carnival? My! Yes!

Another event will be added to the water sports program for Friday afternoon September 24. It will be a snooze.
