FITZSIMMONS LOSES HIS FARM AND HOME---INDIANS ON SLIDING BOARD

WIFE DESERTS HIN

Sheriff Forecloses, Leaving Former Champion and Family Without Lodgings

Special to The Telegraph New York, Sept. 14 .- "It isn't what game). you used to be; it's what you are today," said Bob Fitzsimmons yesterday after going to the mat financially from swift jab to the pocketbook. The ex-champion of the world has fought bitter bout with fate and found no purse at the end of it. His fourth has gone to the Coast and now purse at the end of it. His fourth wife has gone to the Coast and now his farm has slipped away.

The estate of forty-nine acres at West Dunellen, N. J., once belonged to Senator Dryden. Of late years its entrance has been graced by a huge sign: "Bob Fitzsimmons, Boxing Acaiemy and Training School." It has been the joint property of the fighter and his third wife, Julia May Gifford, who divorced him last January.

Sheriff Sells Farm

Sheriff Edward F. Houghton, of Middlesex County, sold the farm under foreclosure proceedings to Joseph Hendricks, of Atlantic City, one of Fitz's creditors. The price was $100. The new owner is subject to all claims, which may amount to $6,000. The place is worth at least $12,000, according to Fitzsimmons, who did not go near the sale.

Rosalle, his seventeen-year-old laughter, has been taking care of the house. With her live the two boys. Bob. Jr., aged twenty, and Martin, eighteen. Now they will have to seek new lodgings. Lanky Bob has not been seen around the place very often. It has been in the hands of young Bob, who has taught prospective pugs the jabs he inherited from his mighty father.

of Peace at Bethlehem, according to the Bote Aus Zion (the Messenger from Zion), a paper published in Palestine by a Swiss missionary.

Nearly the entire Holy Land has been transformed into a military camp. Soldiers are maneuvering every day on the Mount of Olives, at Golgotha and Jerusalem. The English, French and Russian convents have been turned into barracks, and between Judea and Jericho, where transportation was by mule pack in the days when Christ came to bring "peace on earth," a road is being constructed for armored motorcars.

Long columns of buffaloes driver Long columns of buffaloes, driven by Arab peasants, are hauling carts loaded with powder, projectiles and other supplies for the Turkish army over the favorite routes of pilgrims in Palestine. Fast dromedaries of the camel corps maintain communication between the camps in Palestine and the Turkish headquarters. It is supposed that the concentration of the joung recruits in the Holy Land is with a view to another attack upon Egypt.

When we were boys we used to lie on our alimentary canals near the root of a tubular tree where a dog had chased a closely-pursued bunny to sequester himself, and twist at that entrenched wat till we had so much of his foliage on the green briar we were using, that he was glad to come out and join the majority of his fleece.
