Leo Houck Scores His First Knockout Victory

Special to The Telegraph

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 15.—Outclassed by Leo Houck, after going six of a ten-round scheduled bput at the Lancaster Athletic Club last night, Young Herman Miller, claimant to the Southern middleweight champiopship, threw up the sponge, having received the severest kind of a lacing. Houck went hot-footed after Miller from the first tap of the gong and while Miller, in the early rounds, landed some heavy blows, he had to take most of the punishment. This was Houck's first knockout victory in five years.

ORPHEUM

"TWIN BEDS"

"Twin Beds," the laugh festival by see, had their attraction at the Orpheum, Saturday afternoon and evening, when they will present this wholesome and indescribably amusing farce with a skillful company. A delectable story is told in "Twin Beds," of the dire calamity that befalls when six people, assorted in couples and housed on three floors of a fashionable big apartment building, have a neighborliness thrust upon them which fate never intended when they were born. Seats will go on sale to-morrow.—Adv.

AT THE MAJESTIC

one Game and Collection of the Control of the Contr into the hands of a marquis. Henriette is drugged and carried away, while the blind girl cries pitifully for her. Flerre hears her cries and takes her to the home of his mother, who forces her to sing in the streets while she and her elder son drink and make merry. While Louise drags out a wretched existence Henriette's freedom is schemed by the heroic Chevalier de Vaudrey, who pittes Henriette's plight and rescues her. Louise is not the sister of Henriette, but the daughter of Countess de Vaudrey. The countess, the chevalier and Henriette, who are accompanied by a strong guard, hasten to where the blind girl is held. They arrive at the hut and gain entrance by beating the door down. Louise is gathered in her mother's arms and taken to her home. Her sight is finally restored and a happy future is the reward. The performance at the Colonial will be continuous to-day and to-morrow from 11 until 11. Herman Yeager will be heard at the pipe organ in a new series of musical selections especially selected for this production.—Adv.

Find Baseball Pools

Special to The Telegraph

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15.—Investi-gation of an alleged baseball pool, which postal inspectors charge extended to all principal cities of the United States was completed yesterday by the Defeats Princeton Star in Interfederal grand jury.
Postal Inspectors Frank W. Smith

Postal Inspectors Frank W. Smith, of this city; Morgan Griswold, of Cincinnati, O., and J. N. Sharpsteen, of Wilkes-Barre, charge the alleged pool was operated with the aid of 100 paid agents.

John J. Kilcoyne and John C. Walsh of Wilkes-Barre, it is alleged, obtained subscribers through the medium of the Weekly World, published at Wilkes-Barre.

ed subscribers through the medium of the Weekly World, published at Wilkes-Barre.

It is alleged by postal inspectors that more than $4,000 was given to the "lucky" holders of tickets each week, the highest prize being $1500.

Postal inspectors assert that the plan was devised by a college pofessor and the various combinations of three teams each worked out by expert mathematicians. It is said the promoters made a profit of more than $3000 each week.

Marshall, Jr., it was considered that he would have little difficulty in wining the crown.

Philadelphia Wins Again

With Aid of Cravath

Special to The Telegraph

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 15.—"Babe" Adams withstood the furious fusillade of the Philadelphia sticks for just two and one-third innings yesterday and then the Philas made it three straight over the Pirates and pummeled their way to their seventh consecutive victory by a score of 4 to 3.

Cravath, the California clubber, personally conducted the winning tally, when, with the score tied at three all and one down in the third inning, be clouted one a ferocious smack on the jib and drove the ball far over the left-field fence for his twenty-second home run of the season. This is but the third time in the history of Foress Field that the ball has been driven over the left field fence here. Shernover the left field fence here. Sherno
