Motor Club Members Deny Royal's Charge of Playing Politics

of Playing Politics Motor club members were indignant to-day that Mayor Royal should have attributed politics to their letter to council yesterday. The club has al-ways co-operated with the police de-partment and yesterday's letter was written as a result of a meeting at-tended by H. H. Helfkin, F. H. Bom-gardner, R. J. Haldeman, F. B. Wick-ersham, Robert McCormick, Sheriff H. C. Wells and C. R. Miller. It is pointed out that these representative members would not have countenanced dragging the club into politics. Officials of the club say that fol-lowing the employment of special of-ficers by the club to enforce the traf-fic regulations, Mayor Royal promised to instruct his patrolimen to take spe-cial pains to safeguard the public in the streets and his utter failure to pro-duce results was the cause of yester-day's letter. The club has absolutely no purpose other than to bring to bear the influence of council upon, the mayor to make him either enforce the traffic ordinance or say that he does not intend to do so.

Here is the man who put Kingman, Kan., on the map the other night when he kissed William J. Bryan before a large audience. And also Mrs. Graber whom he kisses regularly. But Mr. Graber is not a German at all, and he didn't kiss Mr. Bryan because he thought the former secre-tary of State was trying to prevent a war with Germany. Mr. Graber was a Russian; now he is a first-class American, for he has been in the United States, and in Kansas at that for thirty-two years. So Mr. Bryan's alleged friendliness for the Germans had nothing to do with it.

A thoroughly reliable sale of dependable grades, and you need only to make comparison to find that Bowman prices are LOWEST on same grades.

Take as an illustration, a beautiful silk taffeta which we are offering at $1.38 yd. You cannot purchase this grade anywhere for less than $1.75. That is only one. Among the numerous others, including Peau de Soie, satin messaline, Gros de Londres, Faille, Moires, Satin de Paris, satin charmeuse and satin Duchess, there are equally important savings.

It will pay you to attend this sale to-morrow
