Brought Band Along to Close a Contract

Harrisburg's downtown business section was informally serenaded last evening by the West End Band and for an hour or so the promenaders got some idea of how nice "Merchants' Night" during the big Municipal Celebration next week is going to be. This is the way it came about:

F. F. Davenport, proprietor of a Market street restaurant, whose job is the arranging for the bands to play during "Merchants' Night" last evening decided to close a contract with the West End Band. So he called up George A. Hutman, the leader. Conductor Hutman explained that the band was rehearsing. "That's too bad," said Mr. Davenport. "I wanted you to sign that contract. But of course you can't leave the band?" "No, I can't leave the band, but—hullo!" "I'll bring it along!" And he did.

STEELTON RUTHERFORD URGES REVENUE FOR ELECTION

Prominent Banker Declares It Is For Best Interests of Borough

"Mr. Reynolds has done as much and more for Steelton than any other man that ever came into the community. He ought to be returned to council with a huge majority for the good of the entire borough."

This is the endorsement Robert M. Rutherford, president of the Steelton National Bank and Steelton Trust Company, has made for the borough's foremost citizen, gave to-day to the candidacy of J. V. W. Reynolds, who will be endorsed practically unanimously by the voters of the Third ward at the primaries next Tuesday. Prominent businessmen and others interested in the welfare of Steelton, regardless of party affiliations, have lined up for Mr. Reynolds and will strive to give him the largest vote ever received by a Third ward councilman.

Tax Rate Knocked Down
Mr. Reynolds, the vice-president and general manager at the local plant of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, has been president of council for six years. During this time the borough tax rate has been reduced one-half mill and many thousands of dollars have been spent in public improvements. More than seven miles of paved streets have been constructed, a new 30-inch intake has been built from the filter plant to the center of the Susquehanna river, the street lighting system has been wonderfully improved, and the cost greatly reduced, the sanitary sewerage system has been made the equal of any in the State and many other public improvements have successfully been carried out.

The next council will revise practically all the present borough ordinances to conform with the new borough code and men of experience and foresight should be selected for the task. And that is why far-seeing men of the borough, regardless of party politics, desire to give Mr. Reynolds such a large majority.

Schools on Half Session During Hot Weather

It's a safe bet that the weather man and students of Steelton's public schools are on excellent terms just at present. For until the present hot spell passes away there will be only half sessions in all borough schools. This decision was reached by the School Board in special session last evening.

Until the half session rule was passed students in one of the rooms suffered greatly from the intense heat. In a few of the rooms it was reported to the board, the thermometers soared to the 80 mark.

In the High school the boy students suffered particularly—for it is the rule there that boys must not remove their coats.

Banks Prefer Forgery Charges Against Youth Who Stole From Parents

Charges of forgery were brought to-day against George A. Redsecker before Alderman George Hoover by the First National Bank and the Mechanics Trust Company. Redsecker will plead guilty to these additional charges in court next Monday morning. Redsecker had intended to plead guilty to charges of false pretense last Monday in connection with his attempts to secure sums aggregating $2,000 from these two banks on stock certificates owned by his father, but the case was continued until after the forgery charges were brought. Redsecker, it is charged, forged the name of his father in his efforts to get the money. Augustine West, the youthful bank clerk who must answer to charges of embezzlement, will likely plead guilty Monday also. A number of other pleas will be heard at the same time.

ENHAUT

Township May Adopt Rutherford Streets

At the present time these streets are kept up by adjoining property owners. In company with the township attorney members of the board of township commissioners will inspect Huntington, Tioga and Somerset streets, three of the streets which the property owners want adopted into the township. Following this trip the board of commissioners will act upon the petition. The committee which is urging adoption of the streets includes Edward DeHart, Oscar Eshenour, the Rev. Mr. Vogelman and C. L. Brinser.

"Speed Fiend" Charged With Covering City Block in Four Seconds Flat

Frequent violations of traffic rules and speeding were charged against Raymond Walker, 1615 Regina street, a jitney driver, who was in an accident at Fifteenth and Berryhill streets Monday, by the Motor Club of Harrisburg, which brought Walker before Alderman Hilton last night for a hearing. He was ordered to pay fines and costs of prosecution totaling $21. According to officials of the Motor Club, Walker has continually broken traffic ordinances and is a "speed fiend." On Monday while driving a jitney in Fifteenth street Walker's car collided with a jitney driven by Philip Fleck, Carnation street, who was going east in Berryhill street. Fleck claims that Walker was responsible for the crash. Witnesses last night testified that Walker has covered a city block in four seconds.

"Service!"

"Service!"

"Service!"

As "Service" is our Foundation, our Creed and our Slogan, it is only fair to you to tell you what we mean by "Service."

It seems that everybody these days—including ourselves—is talking "Service." It has become quite a "fad" to talk service. A great many people—good people, too—seem to think it is something new. Maybe it is. As we understand it, every law that "Service" knows springs from the Golden Rule of "Do unto others as you would be done by." That is our idea of "Service." It is the only kind you will ever get from us.
