Governor Brumbaugh Works in Shirtsleeves

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh got back to his office in the State Capitol to-day after his trip across the continent and plunged into his work with his coat off. The Governor arrived shortly before noon and did not take any time for lunch. News of his return to the Capitol had spread and department chiefs, Legislators and men here to appear before boards or just plain seekers after place gathered promptly in the big offices. Very few of them, however, got a chance to sit down because the chairs in the various offices are being renovated and only those in the private office were on duty. So the visitors stood about and looked at the pictures. The Governor shook his head and said that he had no announcements to make when asked about appointments, saying that he had a number in view, but was looking over the people suggested. He plans to remain here until tomorrow night at least and may go to Pittsburgh to address the big Bible Class in that city, but is uncertain about it. Owing to the delays in the furniture the Executive Mansion will not be ready for the Governor for some time and he is living at The Senate Hotel.

The Governor to-day wired to Rochester, Minn., for news of the condition of James S. Hiatt, his private secretary, who is in a hospital for observation. "He is there for study and observation, that is all," said the Governor when asked about reports that Mr. Hiatt was critically ill.

Ambassador Dumba Will Be Recalled

By Associated Press Washington, Sept. 17.—The Austrian government intends to recall Ambassador Dumba for consultation, according to intimations given to Ambassador Penfield, when he delivered the note from the United States asking for the return of the Ambassador to Austria.

Such an arrangement which is in accord with Ambassador Dumba's own request for recall on leave of absence, is satisfactory to the American government.

NURSERY WORK IS NOW AGRICULTURAL

Attorney General Gives an Opinion to the State Forestry Commissioner

Juvenile workers in State forest nurseries are not to be considered as under the child labor law, but are declared to be engaged in a pursuit which can be classed as agricultural, according to an opinion just given to Robert S. Conklin, State Forestry Commissioner, by Attorney General Brown. The opinion is taken at the Capitol to indicate a liberal spirit in interpreting the child labor law in regard to certain occupations.

The forestry commissioner has been employing young people to keep State tree nurseries, whence the State draws its supplies of trees for reforesting, free from weeds and other light work. The opinion says: "Under familiar rules of construction the provisions of an act of Assembly must be construed and interpreted with reference to its intent and purpose as well as to its subject matter. . . . It is my opinion that the employment of young people at the forest nurseries, where your department sows tree seeds, for the purpose of keeping them free from weeds, which work is really agricultural in character, falls within the exception provided in the act."

System Working.—The mothers' pension system appears to be working very well and the payments being made under the new law. Several counties are about ready to apply for appointment of boards of trustees.

Law in Bound Form.—The Public Service Commission has issued the Public Service Company act of 1913 and the amendments made at the recent session in pamphlet form. It is known as circular No. 1 and is a valuable publication.

Cunningham Earnest.—Highway Commissioner Cunningham stated in Greensburg yesterday that he was well pleased with the assistance given to his department in enforcement of the automobile laws by the State Police and appreciated what Superintendent Groome was doing.

State Officials to Speak.—Dr. John Price Jackson, Commissioner of Labor and Industry, is to preside at one of the sessions of the National Safety Council in Philadelphia next month. Lew R. Palmer, chief inspector, is a vice-president and in charge of the program. Several officials and inspectors of the department will speak.

Investigations Under Way.—Inspectors of the Department of Health are busy in Western Pennsylvania, making inspections of several boroughs where typhoid has appeared. Water and milk supplies are being looked up. General at Erie.—Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart was at Erie yesterday attending the meeting of the trustees of the Soldiers' Home.

On Inspection Tour.—Commissioner Buller has gone to Erie to make inspections of the State hatcheries in that county and to speed up distribution of young fish.

Ex-Governor Writes.—The Public Service Commission offices to-day received a letter from ex-Governor Penypacker, written with his left hand, in which he states that he will be compelled to wear his arm in splints for some time, but that he hopes to get back to his work soon.

Money Received.—The first big payments of money for the State treasury in many weeks were received to-day. The Lackawanna railroad paid $323,000 in capital stock tax and Register of Willis Conner, of Allegheny, sent $101,000 as collateral inheritance tax, the largest from any county in a long time.

Governor Returns.—Governor Brumbaugh came back to the Capitol to-day. He has a busy week ahead. The various boards of which he is a member plan to resume meetings. The governor will be here to-morrow.

Commission to Meet.—The Public Service Commission will resume its Harrisburg meetings next week. A calendar of considerable size is being prepared for it.

Speculation is Rife.—There is no end of speculation about the successor to Major General C. D. Doutrich as commander of the National Guard. Brigadier General Charles M. Clement, of Sunbury, is mentioned.

Reopens the Fight.—The Philadelphia Commuters have reopened their fight over rates. The papers outlined yesterday in Philadelphia newspapers were filed with the commission.

Pizzimenti Asks His Pardon From State

Bruno Pizzimenti, convicted of second degree murder in this county in 1907, asked a rehearing of the State Board of Pardons to-day. He was released on parole in 1913 and has been seeking pardon, having been refused in 1914. W. L. Loeser to-day made the plea for reconsideration. Mr. Loeser also presented the Florence Wilson case from this city.

The meeting to-day reopened the winter series. Twenty-nine cases were listed, but owing to absence of the lieutenant governor two of the first degree murder cases were deferred, the attorneys preferring to have the whole board present.

The case of Mark L. Swab, deputy county treasurer of Northumberland, was argued. It is a companion case to that of William M. Lloyd, heard last June. The board will give decisions to-night.

Among attorneys at the meeting were Ex-State Treasurer James S. Beacom, District Attorney C. Ward Elcher, Greensburg; Senator S. W. Salus, Philadelphia; Senator J. H. Thompson; Beaver Falls; ex-Representative E. M. Abbott, Philadelphia; and General C. M. Clement, Sunbury.

MRS. WHITMOYER'S FUNERAL Funeral services for Mrs. Susan Elizabeth Whitmoyer, aged 37, of North Fourteenth street, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 1.30 o'clock from her late home, the Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of Derry Street United Brethren Church, officiating. Burial will be made in the Hummelstown Cemetery.

Weaver.

The first charter to be issued under the act of 1915, permitting State incorporation of associations formed for protection of wild life was granted to-day to the Wild Life League of Pennsylvania which will have offices in Pittsburgh. Prominent sportsmen and conservationists are incorporators.

MOUNT VERNON TRUCK IS OUT OF SERVICE

The Mount Vernon Truck will be out of service until next week. Work started to-day to prepare the truck for the tractor which will be here on Monday. The Friendship steam fire engine is also expected to arrive at the same time.

State Now Owns a Valley Toll Road

Governor Brumbaugh to-day approved the agreement entered into by the State Highway Department and the Harrisburg, Carlisle and Chambersburg Road Turnpike Company for the purchase of the Company's property which will be freed by the State.

State Highway Commissioner Cunningham entered into negotiations with the officers of the company in August and has succeeded in getting them to agree to his terms for the purchase of their property. For the sum of $25,000

the State becomes possessor, clear of all encumbrances, of all of that portion of the turnpike road owned by the company extending from the dividing line of the counties of Cumberland and Franklin to the limit of the Borough of Chambersburg, in Franklin county, together with all the interests and real property used in connection with the road including bridges, toll houses other structures and quarry rights as well as all road materials and equipment on hand. Purchase is made with the agreement that in case the occupants of the toll houses are unable to move out at the time the sale is consummated they shall be permitted to remain in the dwelling portions of the toll houses until April 1, 1916, for a nominal rental of one dollar.

Extras To Small-Tire Users

Sizes 30 x 3 1/2 and 30 x 3

Extra Size

This year we are building our small-size tires larger than any rival. We have added 20% to the air capacity. And that is what carries the load. Large tires as you know last longer than small tires, used under like conditions. So this extra size means extra mileage for you.

Extra Strength

We have added 30% to the rubber in the side walls just above the rim. That's where constant flexing breaks so many tires.

We have made new molds for the small-size tires, adopting a new design, which also combats such breaks. These new extras alone will this year cost us $317,000. Yet Goodyear prices were this year enormously reduced.

Added to This

These new extras are added to the tires which hold top place. For years, on sheer merit, Goodyear tires have outsold any other.

These small-size tires of Goodyear make are always four-ply tires. Their anti-skid tread—the Goodyear All-Weather—is always double-thick.

Now we add three more extras, to give you still more mileage, less upkeep and less trouble.

The greatest tire value in the world now lies in these Goodyear tires. You can't be fair to yourself and not get them.
