

PERSONAL SOCIAL

BEAUTIFUL GIFTS FOR A BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Nelle Vogelongs Who Will Marry Clarence Deller Honored by Friends

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, 411 South Fourteenth street, entertained in honor of Miss Nelle B. Vogelongs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vogelongs, of Mechanicsburg, whose marriage to Clarence R. Deller, of this city, will be a Fall event. Covers were laid for eight.

Following the dinner there was a miscellaneous shower, arranged by Mrs. Brady C. Agie and Miss Minnie Deller at the home of Mrs. B. C. Agie, 1420 Swatara street, a complete surprise to the bride-elect, who was the recipient of many beautiful gifts of cut glass, silverware, linens, aluminum and china.

Pink-shaded candelabra with hearts, cupid and flowers carried out a color scheme of pink and white in the dining room where refreshments were served to the Misses Lenna Agie, Miss Emma Brindle, Clara Bucher, Miss Crawford, Minnie Deller, Ruth Hoerner, Edith Houseman, Emma Hoyer, Martha Neiss, Minnie Smith, Elizabeth Snyder, Cora Tripper, Mary Werts, Mrs. B. C. Agie, Mrs. William Daires, Mrs. George Deller, Mrs. Harry Gumpert, Mrs. Alf. Hoerner, Mrs. John Kosek, Mrs. William Logan, Mrs. Jesse Miller, Mrs. Charles Schultz, Mrs. Charles Shaffner, Mrs. William

Butterfly Place Cards Announce This Betrothal

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 18.—The engagement of Miss Jean Fredericks, daughter of T. C. Fredericks, a leading plumbing contractor, and E. E. Barnitz, a prominent attorney of the Cumberland and Dauphin county bars, was announced to-day at a large tea given at the Fredericks home. Receiving with the bride elect were Miss Elizabeth Arnold, Miss Sarah Maust and Miss Mary Brenneman, all of whom will be married during the autumn.

Appointments of yellow and white were beautifully arranged, with masses of chrysanthemums, and butterfly place cards painted by Miss Fredericks, an accomplished artist.

Mr. Barnitz is a member of the Carlisle school board and well known throughout this vicinity and Harrisburg.

Walk in the Moonlight Through Cameron Parkway

Miss Margaret T. Wheeler, of 1266 State street, arranged a moonlight hike in honor of her cousin, George Wheeler, of Pittsburgh. The party of young folks, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ulrich, hiked through Cameron Extension to Paxtang Park, where they enjoyed lunch, coming home by way of Bellevue.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ulrich, Miss Martha Dunlap, Miss Ruth Pee, of Duncannon; Miss Almeta Harper, Duncannon; Miss Sue Long, Miss Agnes Sanderson, Miss Carolyn Lewis, Miss Isabella Sanderson, Miss Opal McCann and Miss Margaret Wheeler, George Wheeler, Pittsburgh; William Park, Carlisle; Charles Paxton, Walfer Slaymaker, James Fitzpatrick, Charles Patterson, G. Roy Geist, Harold Binaman and Paul Stecker.

Give Birthday Surprise to Mrs. Leon G. Hawbaker

A special feature of the birthday surprise given to Mrs. Leon G. Hawbaker, of Camp Hill, was the "winiest" roast held on the lawn after games, music and contests. The guests were the Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Hartsock, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Datesman, the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Datesman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foulke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hawbaker and family, Mrs. Gernyer, Miss Marie Gernyer, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gleim, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reaser, Charles Reaser, Jr., Mrs. Hattie Baughman, Mrs. N. G. Hawbaker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolf and family, Dr. Lawton, Mrs. and Mrs. Leon G. Hawbaker, of Camp Hill, Mrs. T. J. Adams, Mrs. James Fetterman and son, Harold Fetterman, of Harrisburg.

MOTOR PARTY TO HERSHEY

Mrs. Samuel Long and son LeRoy, of Lemoyne, gave a motor trip to Hershey Park to the following friends of Wormleysburg: Mrs. J. R. Neldharmer, Mrs. William A. Evans and Mrs. Robert N. Sadler. They were accompanied by another car containing Mrs. C. A. Musselman, Mrs. H. C. Wittman, Mrs. Whitney Mumma, Mrs. Walter Shope, of Lemoyne, and Mrs. Jacob Miller, of Shiremanstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Boswell and small daughter, Mary Jane, of 30 North Seventeenth street, are at Atlantic City.

Mrs. George E. Klugh of 707 North Second street, has opened her house after spending the summer on her farm near Highspire.

A Turner, Pennsylvania, railroad freight car was a visitor in Columbia yesterday.

Clarence Chester, of Cottage Hill, Steelton, has accepted a position with the Smet Solvay company at Syracuse, N. Y.

ATTENTION—BOYS AND GIRLS!

Saturday, September 25, the Civic Club Fly Contests for this year will end, and you are all asked to bring your flies to 11 North Market square, on that day between the hours of 9 and 12, noon. The committee in charge will be glad to have you come as early as possible. Five cents a pint for all flies turned in, and also numerous prizes.

ENGAGEMENT DINNER GIVEN LAST EVENING

Flowers Convey Announcement the Shuman-Gramm Wedding This Winter

MISS ESTHER G.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gramm of 2201 North Second street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Esther Galbraith Gramm to C. Ross Shuman, of Millerstown, at a dinner of twelve covers last evening.

The table appointments were of pink and white, with a basket of pink Killarney roses as a centerpiece. Corsage bouquets of the same lovely flowers tied with fluffy pink tulle and given as favors had attached tiny cards bearing the names of the betrothed. The marriage will be an event of the winter.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Central High school and a member of the D. V. V. Sorority. Mr. Shuman, a State College alumnus and Phi Kappa Sigma man, is now engaged in scientific farming.

Guests at last evening's dinner included Miss Helen Rinkenbach, Miss Dorothy Black, Miss Gertrude George, Miss Mabel Wolbert, Miss Elizabeth Dohoney, Miss Gramm, Mr. Shuman, Charles Barnes, Ray Hoffman, Ted Keet, Ralph Tomlinson and Francis Smith, of Allentown.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Stackhouse of 113 South Front street, have returned home after a trip to Atlantic City and up the Hudson to Albany.

Dr. Harvey Smith of 130 State street has returned from Rochester, Minn., where he attended the Mayo clinic.

Miss Ida E. Marshall of 909 North Second street has returned home after a vacation outing at Ocean Grove and Asbury Park.

Miss Mary J. Sourbier of 122 Bos street is spending this evening for a visit at the home of her son, William J. Sourbier, at Allentown.

William J. Kishbaugh of 409 South Sixteenth street has resumed his work at the Maryland Agricultural college, after spending the summer in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bailey and family of Third and Peffer streets are home after a six weeks' stay at '19 yard Haven, Mass. Miss Sarah Hastings of Bellefonte was their guest for several weeks.

Miss Martha Orth Soller, Miss Sue Soller and Miss Mary Robinson are guests of Miss Anne McCormick at Rosegarden for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight P. Jerauld of 14 Evergreen street are enjoying an extended trip through New England.

Mrs. David Watts is visiting friends in Chambersburg.

Miss Isabella Adrian Ryder of Cottage Ridge is a teacher in the Myerstown schools, and is spending the week-end at her home here.

Mr. H. Ross, Cover of 1623 North Sixth street, Miss Longenecker of 1919 North Third street, and M. H. Lyons of Pittsburgh, are spending several days among their friends.

Mr. H. B. Smith, of Sunbury, spent yesterday visiting in this city.

Miss Jane Stuber and Miss Alice Windsor started for a pleasure jaunt this morning, including Asbury Park and adjacent resorts.

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

Special to The Telegraph
Miss Gertrude Bates, a student nurse at a Baltimore Hospital, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bates, at Lemoyne.

Mr. Mervin Eckert and son, of Lemoyne, have returned home after visiting friends at Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. E. D. Keen, of Wrightsville, visited friends at Lemoyne yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Young, of Lemoyne, are visiting friends at York.

Miss Ruth Throckmorton has returned to her home at Richmond, Va., after spending several months with Mrs. Edgar S. Everhart.

Miss Camille Weidlick, of Waynesboro, has returned home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. Stoner, at Lemoyne.

Mrs. J. F. Hummel, of Wormleysburg, spent Tuesday at Newville, attending W. C. T. U. Convention, of which she is superintendent of Mother's Work.

Miss Helen Stephens, of Wormleysburg, has gone to Martins Ferry, Ohio, where she will be the guest of her sister.

Mrs. Samuel Long, of Lemoyne, took Mrs. Bertha Sadler, Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. Katherine Neldharmer to Hershey on Thursday, by automobile.

LUDWIG FAMILY REUNION

Special to The Telegraph
Mariatá, Sept. 18.—The Ludwig family reunion was held at Little Springs Park. Officers for the year were elected.

REAL JUMBO PEANUTS, 12c PER POUND

Roasted fresh daily at the Imperial Tea Co., 212 Chestnut street. It will also convince you of the merit of our "Home Roasted" Coffees.

Mrs. Laura Reede

Announces her return after a season at New York and Atlantic City, all the new Metropolitan ideas in Hair Dressing, Manicuring and Facial Massage. A full line of French Toilet Specialties at reasonable prices.

La France Beauty Shop

216 CHESTNUT STREET
Bell Phone 3038-J.

Miss Eby Entertains Friends at Creek View

Miss Fannie M. Eby, of this city, and her mother, Miss Elizabeth Eby, of Philadelphia, are entertaining about 150 of their friends to-day at Creek View, the Eby country place at Carlisle.

A special train took most of the guests over for a buffet luncheon, while many who own automobiles invited friends to join them in going that way. Miss Eby is lovely at this season and the slight rain didn't at all interfere with the pleasure of the guests.

Miss Marian Leib, of The Terraces, New Cumberland, is home after a trip to Asbury Park.

Dr. John T. Ensminger, of North Second street, is home after a trip over the Great Lakes and a visit with his brother, Dr. George Hurst Ensminger, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, of Vernon street, went to Philadelphia to-day for a visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hoover.

Miss Adeline Greathead has returned to the School of Horiculture at Ambler, Pa., after spending the summer vacation at her home, 132 Locust street.

E. Pierce Shope, a Dickinson student, is at his home, 610 North Third street, for a brief vacation.

Mrs. William H. Bradley, who is summering at King's Gap, the Cameron country place, spent yesterday in the city.

Walker E. Swift, of New York city, is visiting Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., of North Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter, of Germantown, former Harrisburgers, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sides in this city.

Miss Susanna Fleming, of State street, has come to Chambersburg for a visit with Miss Margaret Kennedy at Ragged Edge.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Lindemuth, of Carlisle, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. Lindemuth's mother, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, at 23 South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobson and children, of Cynwyd, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morris Sides at Riverview.

Mrs. William H. Spooner and Miss Spooner of Locust street, are home after an extended western trip including the exposition and a visit with Frank Spooner at Seattle.

Leland Johnson, of Cottage Hill, Steelton, has returned to Lawrenceville, N. Y., to resume his studies for another year.

Miss Winifred McGrath, of 213 State street, is improving in health after an operation for appendicitis at the Harrisburg Hospital.

Miss Margaret Stackpole and Miss Margaret Stackpole are home from Sharon, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruce Caldwell.

HOME TO ATLANTIC CITY

Mrs. J. H. Kremer and small daughter, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoffman, at 821 Penn street, have gone to Philadelphia to join Mr. Kremer and return to his home in Atlantic City. Mrs. Kremer was formerly Miss Rae Hoffman.

HOLD SOCIAL ON LAWN FOR LUCKNOW BIBLE CLASS

G. W. Cromleigh, of 2240 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, gave a lawn social to the Lucknow Bible Class. The orchestra and choir of the Otterbein United Brethren church of Kelly street furnished the music. A four-stringed instrument quartet gave a few selections too. Refreshments were served on the lawn to over a hundred and fifty guests. The feature of the evening was the waltz by Mr. Cromleigh's horse, "Billy," on the vacant lot adjoining the lawn.

HOME FROM COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Missemer, 2448 Derry street, have just returned after spending a very pleasant three weeks in Colorado, guests of Mr. Missemer's brother, John Missemer, receiver of the United States Land Office at Hugo. Besides climbing Pike's Peak to see the sunrise they visited Denver, Pueblo and Colorado City.

GAMES AND MUSIC ENJOYED BY MERRY PARTY OF HIKERS

A number of young people hiked to Riverside last evening and then came down the River Road to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Blackson, 124 Broad street, where they enjoyed games and music. Refreshments were served to the Misses Ruth Blausser, Laura Knight, Catherine Lindsey, Bertha McCann and Mary Bickler; Mrs. J. F. Hummel, William Maguire, William Klitch, Banks Kirstetter and Paul St. Peters.

Table was decorated in purple and gold garden flowers and crepe paper.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Sollenberger, of 810 North Second street, are home after visiting relatives at Green-castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Todd leave to-day for a western journey. Mr. Todd will remain for several days at Brownsville and Charleroi, while Mrs. Todd goes on to her former home at St. Claire, Mich. and afterward, Detroit, for a several weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Finney left for their home at Ann Arbor, Mich., to-day after a ten days' visit with relatives in this vicinity.

ASTRICH'S

MONDAY CUT-PRICE SALE

BRINGS TO YOU THE MOST UNPRECEDENTED BARGAINS EVER HEARD OF

Large manufacturers of Hats finding themselves overstocked on account of the unusual hot weather ARE UNLOADING VELVET HATS AT ANY PRICE.

We were right on the spot and have taken advantage of these circumstances and Monday will be the day on which we offer these Hats to you at practically the bare cost of the velvets.

Our Great Monday Leader
Silk Velvet Hats
Worth From $1.50 to $2.50
$1.00
This Monday Only

TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE—as has been our custom for the last 12 years—even at this low price.

In Addition to Those Wonderful Bargains We Offer on Monday and on Monday Only the Following:

Velvet Sailors with 79c inch wide grosgrain bands; ready to wear; Monday, at 79c
Velvet Sailors and Small Shapes, regular price 98c; Monday, at 79c

Large Broad Brimmed Silk Velvet Sailors
Large Poke Shapes—Turbans and Medium Shapes—of finest Silk Velvet, values $2.50 and $3.00. We sell these and all worth $1.98, on Monday at $1.59

An unusual assortment of all the light colors. Hats guaranteed to be actually worth $3.00 in this lot.

GIRLS' SILK VELVET TAMOSHANTERS—with cord and tassels; black or black and white. Monday only 79c
GIRLS' PLUSH TAMOSHANTERS—black, navy, brown, etc; worth $2.00. Monday $1.39

VELOUR FELT HATS—in all the new colors; newest shapes; value $2.50. Monday $1.69
WHITE FELT OR KID HATS—your choice of any hat in the store; values to $4.00. Monday 98c

MONDAY SPECIALS IN TRIMMINGS

FANCY FEATHER STICK-UPS, OSTRICH AIGRETTES, ETC.—odds and ends; values up to 75c. Monday, 19c

BLACK OSTRICH POMPONS—with aigrette centers; actual value $1.00. Monday 44c

LARGE SILK VELVET ROSES—beautiful colors; large velvet petals. Monday 44c

FRENCH OSTRICH PLUMES—broad tips; the new trimming; black, white and 10 new colors; value $2. Monday, 87c

OSTRICH FANCIES—with Marabou; all the new colors; values up to 75c. Monday 29c

GOLD AND SILVER FLOWERS—beautiful patterns; actual value 49c. Monday 22c

VELVET POPPIES—white, black and fixed; value 75c. Monday 23c

HANDSOME OSTRICH FANCIES—plumes and band effects; all good colors; values up to $2.50. Monday 88c

MANY HUNDRED OTHER SPECIAL MONDAY FEATURES
LOOK FOR RED MONDAY SALE TICKETS

HAS HONOR OF ATTENDING ALLIES' EXPERT CHEMIST

Just a few days ago there was a great explosion at the plant of the Aetna powder works, at Emporium, and among those injured was a man whom a few knew as the allies' expert chemist on the latest high-power explosives. In making a chemical test some of the material was thrown in his eye and the loss of that member was feared. Dr. Samuel Z. Shope, an eye specialist, of 619 North Third street, was called to Emporium in consultation and has just returned to the city.

OFF FOR PLEASURE

Miss Mary Ennis, of 2338 North Sixth street, is spending several weeks in Philadelphia. Later in the month has resumed her children's classes in drawing and water color painting, at her home, 265 Boas street. Children under 12 years, special terms.

MISS MARION BECK

David Sharkis VIOLINIST

Private Lessons Phone 170

BEGINS MEDICAL COURSE

Edward P. Kerper, of 223 North Third street, leaves Monday for Philadelphia to enter the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania for a four years' course. Mr. Kerper has been at Gettysburg College for the past three years.

RETURNING FROM PHILIPPINES

John R. Lindsey, of this city, is returning home from the Philippine Islands, where he has been in the service of the United States Army. He is making a week's stay at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco before coming east.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaffner and sons, Howard and Robert, 1940 Green street, have returned after a trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edward A. Latham and children, 446 South Thirteenth street, are visiting Mrs. Latham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Newton Haupt, in Bellefonte.

Miss Nelle Stone and Miss Bertha K. Stone, of Rochester, N. Y., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Wilhelmnia Watson of Market street.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wharton and small son Howard Jay Wharton, of Philadelphia, were in the city for several days this week visiting relatives.

David Fleming, Jr., is taking a trip to Princeton, Rye, N. Y., and Bridgeport, Conn.

Miss Martha Winters and Miss Thora Winters have gone home to Fishkill, after a short visit with their cousin, Miss Mayme Glasgow in this city.

The Rev. Harvey N. Bickel, of Pottsville, is the guest of his brother, C. M. Bickel, 1509 North Sixth street.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hartman, of 35 North Twelfth street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna Mary Hartman, to Frederick A. Schnupp, at Washington, D. C., Wednesday, September 15, by the Rev. Paul A. Menger of the Lutheran church. Following a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Schnupp will be "at home" after October 1, at their newly-furnished house, 1834 Park street.

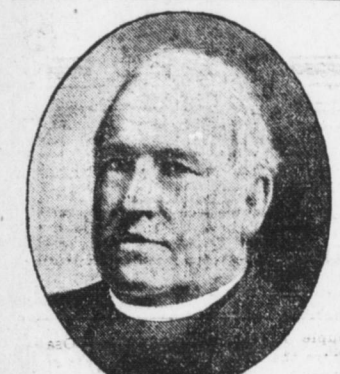

WANT WORLD PREPARED

By Associated Press
London, Sept. 18, 12:47 P. M.—The hope is expressed by the Globe that the publication of the official story of the Zeppelin attack on London was designed not only to forestall and silence disturbing versions but to prepare the world for a stern and persistent policy of reprisal.

The Seiler School WILL REOPEN WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER TWENTY-NINTH

Kindergarten, Primary, Intermediate and College Preparatory courses.

Apply to 17 North Front Street

If you are losing weight, are thin, pale and run down—you are in danger.

Father John's Medicine will build new flesh and strength for you. It is a body builder and strength giver.

It is safe for children, too, because it does not contain alcohol.

Father John's Medicine is best for colds and throat and lung troubles. 50 years in use.

SARA LEMER

Concert Violiniste

Has resumed the teaching of violin playing, at her studio
2123 GREEN STREET

Awarded the honor scholarship, four consecutive years, at the Hyperion School of Music, in Philadelphia, of which she is a graduate. She is the pupil of the famous Henry Schradieck, of New York, and of Lucius Cole, of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

The Bell Telephone

Voice Culture and Students of Singing

The Phillips Studio, now open, will be a permanent institution in Harrisburg, so that Students of Singing and Voice Culture will always receive sympathetic interest and support. Voices tried without charge.

The Phillips Studio

121 State Street

JOHN W. PHILLIPS
Director of Music M. E. Grace Church—Conductor
Tutor—Teacher—Conductor
Twelve years of real success.

Mrs. Jno. W. Phillips,
Assistant and Accompanist

Bell Phone 801-R

Advertisement for Mrs. Laura Reede and La France Beauty Shop

Mrs. Laura Reede
Announces her return after a season at New York and Atlantic City, all the new Metropolitan ideas in Hair Dressing, Manicuring and Facial Massage. A full line of French Toilet Specialties at reasonable prices.

La France Beauty Shop
216 CHESTNUT STREET
Bell Phone 3038-J.

Advertisement for Stieff Pianos

Buy a Stieff and Save $200 On Your Piano

It is simply a matter of addition and subtraction.

All over the Country—and Harrisburg is no exception to the rule—piano dealers must purchase their instruments from the manufacturer. After the manufacturer gets his profit, the dealer must get his—and there's the extra cost to you!

Buy at the New Stieff Store

When you purchase a Stieff Piano you buy direct from the factory; there is no middleman's profit and the price you pay represents Piano Value, not extra charges.

"Investigate"

CHAS. M. STIEFF

24 North Second Street