BISONS WIN OUT IN FINAL GAMES

Rochester Winds Up With Victory Over Harrisburg; Players Back in City

Buffalo grabbed this season's International League pennant honors from Providence. The Bisons finished Saturday with a two-game lead.

There were no changes in the standing of the teams over the day's games. Harrisburg finished at Rochester with a defeat. Ten of the players came to Harrisburg to-day to meet President Edward J. Barrow.

Seven of them will remain here for the post-season games. Much interest is shown in the series of games which have been arranged as part of the celebration in this city this week.

On Wednesday and Thursday the Lincoln Stars, New York, the World's Champion colored club will be the attraction and on Friday and Saturday Chief Benders All-Stars will hold forth on the Island. The games will start each day at 3 o'clock.

Pick of League The Harrisburg club that has been procured for this series will contain a number of the members of the International League champion Buffalo club while the entire club will be a pick of the league.

From Buffalo come Jack Onslow, the catcher; McCarthy, the captain and second baseman, Carlstrom, the third baseman, who will play short and possibly a pitcher; Providence comes Eddie Enslow, the first baseman, while Rochester will furnish W. Zimmermerman, the former Brooklyn outfielder and Montreal will send Ireland, the former Philly infielder. Tamm, Schacht, Heckinger, Reynolds, Lee, Zimmerman and Smallwood will be the Harrisburg players on the great celebration week-end.

Chief Bender started his career in this city and will have the honor of pitching either on Friday and Saturday at a celebration which marks the jump of Harrisburg from independent to International League baseball along with the great municipal improvements.

"The Tombs Angel" Sued by Her Former Lawyer

New York, Sept. 20.—Miss Mary Clementine Smedley has been sued in the Supreme Court by John S. Wise, Jr., for $25,000 for legal services.

Miss Smedley, who is about 50 years old, for a time was known as "The Tombs Angel" and later became conspicuous through her fight for part of the estate left by Hiram H. Lamport, founder of the Continental Fire Insurance Company, who died in Paris in January, 1907.

When Mr. Lamport died he was 86 years old. Eighteen months before his death he made a will, giving to various relatives sums ranging from $200 to $5,000. He gave to Miss Smedley $15,000 and the residue of his estate. A short time before he died he also gave to her securities valued at about $50,000.

Mr. Lamport's relatives contested the will. Mr. Wise was Miss Smedley's attorney in the fight and he won. The value of the property that came to Miss Smedley from Mr. Lamport's estate has been variously estimated from $50,000 to $500,000.

Navy League Makes Plans to Organize Reserves

Washington, Sept. 20.—To supply crews which can be mobilized quickly to man the ships of Uncle Sam's reserve fleet in case of trouble, the Navy League of the United States has established a department which will operate with the navy authorities in the formation of an adequate naval reserve composed of officers and men who have seen service in the duties for which they would be called upon.

The committee in charge of the work is made up of influential men from every section of the country and is headed by Ralph B. Strassburger, of Gwynedd. From a retired naval officer and one of the football idols of Annapolis in the early years of the present century.

Grafton Bank Officers Indicted by Bank Jury

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 20.—The Taylor county grand jury, after a session of nearly five days at Grafton, W. Va., returned indictments against the directors of the Grafton Bank, a State institution, which closed its doors nearly a year ago, and which at the time, it was stated, would liquidate without loss to the depositors.

Colonel John T. McGraw, Democratic national committeeman from West Virginia, and for years the Democratic leader in the State, was president of the institution and was the Wilson leader in the State in the last Democratic presidential campaign.

President James A. Gilmore Sends Letter to National Commission

Special to The Telegraph New York, Sept. 20.—The Federal League, through its president, James A. Gilmore, yesterday addressed a challenge to the National Baseball Commission for participation in the world's series of 1915.

The executive of the independent organization requests a series between the winner of the Federal League pennant and the winner of the series between the National and American league contenders.

Gilmore states that the Federal League will leave the entire arrangements for such a series in the hands of the National Commission and agrees to give its entire share of the receipts to any charity named by a committee.
