pigs. 25 Philadelphians to Enter Sales School of Elliott-Fisher Co.

Twenty-five young men from Phila-delphia will comprise the bulk of the enrollment at the next Elliott-Fisher school of salesmanship which opens Monday.

school of salesmanship which opens Monday. This is the third session of the school, which started last Fall. Each time men are taken from different lo-calities. This school is unique in that at the conclusion of the five weeks' instruc-tion in selling, the graduates are placed in the various Elliott-Fisher branches over the world at salaries of $25 a week and expenses. When they have had the experience of actual con-tact with the business world they will be paid from $2,500 a year to $2,000 and all necessary expenses.

ERB MAY RECOVER

By Associated Press By Associated Fress New York. Sept. 20.—Newman Erb, wealthy railroad reorganizer, was to-day reported to have an excellent chance to recover from the effects of two poison tablets he swallowed by mistake last Tuesday. Mr. Erb at his summer home at Deal, N. J., is now passing through the final hours of the critical period in this form of poi-soning.

"QUEEN" TO STOP AT HERSHEY THIS EVENING

Announcement was made by officials of the Reading Railway this afternoon that the Queen of the Valley express will make a special stop at Hershey to-night to bring Harrisburgers back to this city from the chocolate town after the address of Dr. Henry W. Stough. The train reaches Harrisburg at 10.10.
