nosed out Brooklyn.

As a result, the idle Phils gained a half game on their opponents. They are now five large, juicy box scores ahead of both Boston and Brooklyn, which is a tremendous lead at this stage of the game.

Small Chance of Losing

There is still a mathematical chance of one of the two rivals overhauling the potentates of the National League percentage table, but it is mathematical and not baseball. Only a calamity can keep the Phils from winning the first championship' in the long career of the Broad and Huntingdon corporation.

Schuyler Britton elected to play a double-header to-day, instead of extending the visit of the leaders to Wednesday, which is an open date.
