SWEEPING VICTORY FOR REPUBLICANS IN NOVEMBER INDICATED BY RETURNS

Nonpartisan Election in City Gives Meals Undisputed Place on Ticket For Mayor; Gorgas, Bowman, Lynch, Taylor, Royal, Gross, Steiner and Copelin For Council

STAMM, KEENE AND ENDERS WIN OUT

Lentz For Recorder, Mumma For Treasurer, Stine and Cumbler For Commissioners and Stroup For District Attorney

The primary election yesterday demonstrated that Dauphin county, in-cluding Harrisburg, will be overwhelmingly Reupblican at the Novem ber election. The Republican vote was in every respect up to the expectations aroused by the big registration in the oughs and townships, in some in aroused by the big registration in the city and the enrollment in the boroughs and townships, in some ingrances the men nominated by Republicans receiving votes far and away above the total polled by the coalition of the Democrats and Washingtonians. The machine fusion was launched without a hitch, but it is headed for a stone wall in November.

In the State contest for the nonrartisan nominations for Superior Court Judge George B. Orlady received a magnificent vote in the county, a tribute to a neighbor in the Juniate Valley. Judge B. Head ran well and J. Henry Williams, of Philadelphia, ranks third, with ex-Judge E. D. Wallace, of New Castle, fourth. Many voted for Judge Orlady alone.

The City's Big Contests
The fight of greatest interest in Harrisburg and which had attracted State attention was that for the mayoralty nomination, which has been won by Dr. Eara S. Meals, former mayor and former legislator, over Harry F. Sheesley, the candidate of the coalition. Dr. Meals received over 51 per cent. of the votes cast for mayor and will have the unprecedented honor in Harrisburg of being alone on the ballot for the chief magistracy.

In the councilmanic fight Commissioners W. L. Gorgas and Harry F. Sowman both polled more than 51 per cent. in a field of sixteen candidates. To-day lawyers were discussing whether they are not elected the same as Dr. Meals. Eight were to be nominated for the four places. The men running next to the leaders were City Commissioner W. H. Lynch, ex-Mayor John K. Royal, City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, ex-Mayor E. Z. Gross, ex-Councilman C. C. Steiner and City Treasurer O. M. Copelin. Ashton D. Feace was nominated for city controller by a thumping big yote.

For the School Board A. Carson Stamm led the field and is nominated on all three tickets.

Mr. Stamm received a Republican vote which is highly complimentary. Robert E. Enders ran a very close second on the Republican ticket with Dr. C. E. L. Keene as the third nomince. On the coalition ticket there were nominated Mr. Stamm, whos were nominated Mr. Stamm, whose popularity and standing compelled the fusionists to take him up; Harvey Bair and Dr. M. L. Wolford. Mr. Bair is a Democrat and Dr. Wolford a Bull Mooser. The election of Messrs. Stamm. Enders and Keene is a foregone conclusion.

Ward officers were also nominated, the Republican showing big votes.

By Votes in County.

As was expected, Dr. H. M. Stine, Harrisburg, and Charles C. Cumbler, Highspire, were nominated by the Republicans for county commissioners and will be elected hands down. J. William Bayles ran third. James E. Lentz, of Elizabethville, was nominated for recorder over William S. Tunis and Frank J. Roth. Lentz polled the biggest vote in the upper end that has been recorded at a primary in years. Williamstown alone gave him 200 votes. W. F. Houser, Middletown, was nominated for register of wills, end for sheriff W. W. Caldwell beat J. Rowe Fletcher by a 2 to 1 vote. District Attorney M. E. Stroup was renominated by an equally large vote over Paul A. Kunkel. Mr. Kunkel was the unopposed coalition nominee. Henry W. Gough was given a very complimentary nomination for county controller again. Mark Mumma, of Steelton, won out handsomely over John E. Shupp, a fellow-townsman, for county treasurer, while Fernando Loudermilch, Halifax, and Frank B. Snavely, Hershey, were nominated for poor directors in a canter. Charles J.

The big votes cast for Dr. Ezra S. Meals for mayor and for William L. Gorgas and Harry F. Bowman for city councilmen were responsible.

Dr. Meals, it was figured, had polled more than fifty-one per cent. of the vote and this it was held in some quarters, would mean that his name alone would go upon the official ballot at the November election without opposition.
