

Elsie Janis in Paramount Pictures

ELSIE JANIS has written a novel comedy for herself. The title? "Twas Ever Thus." It is the latest photoplay in which this versatile comedienne appears. Produced by

Bosworth Inc.
and shown only at theatres featuring
Paramount Pictures

"Twas Ever Thus" is a romantic comedy which begins with the brute-strength days of the cave dwellers and takes you right up to the present century. Elsie Janis is at her best in Elsie Janis' own play and you surely must see her.

Patrons of Paramount Theatres have given Miss Janis' plays an unusual welcome to the screen. Her previous successes—"Caprices of Kitty," "Betty in Search of a Thrill" and "Nearly a Lady"—are creating enthusiastic applause wherever shown. Watch the advertisements of the local Paramount theatre for the announcements of each Elsie Janis appearance.

Friday and Saturday with matinees daily, September 24 and 25—Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival.
Tuesday and Wednesday with a special matinee Wednesday, September 23 and 24—"The Only Girl."

IMPROVE BY TRAVELING
The richest treasures in architecture and symmetry will be revealed at the Orpheum Friday and Saturday with daily matinees especially arranged for this purpose. Tuesday and Wednesday Lyman H. Howe to the California Expositions via the Panama Canal. The "fifty million dollar show" at San Francisco with its heroic proportions, triumphal arches, giant columns, splendid courts and magnificent boulevards as filmed by Howe's photographers seems well worth the cost. It is well calculated to hold spectators spell-bound with admiration. It is a dream city of palaces with colonnade avenues and as portrayed by Howe marks an epoch in the history of the great International Expositions just as the completion of the great waterway at the isthmus is epochal in world history.—Adv.

"THE ONLY GIRL"
Among the many engaging numbers contained in the brilliant score that Victor Herbert has composed for the musical comedy success, "The Only Girl," which is announced as the attraction at the Orpheum for two days commencing next Tuesday with a special matinee Wednesday, and which already has found great popularity are "The More I See of Others, Dear, the Better I Love You," "When You're Away," "Personality," "Antoinette," "Tell It All Over Again," "You and I," "Give a Part to Make a Hit," "When Your Ankle Wears the Ball and Chain," "Equal Rights," and "You're the Only One For Me."—Adv.

AT THE MAJESTIC
A spirited bill of clever Keith vaudeville is certainly making things hum at the Majestic these days. "The Six Serenaders," a sextet of pretty girls and clever youths lead the van of excellence. These merry trilliers offer an interesting arrangement of vocal selections that range from some of the old favorites to present day hits and very pleasing stage pictures are called in for each number. On this bill also are Bonnie Wyde and George Wade, presenting their bright sketch called "Good Night," which they offered so successfully at the Orpheum a season or two ago. The Lavine-Cimero Trio add a happy mixture of laughs and thrills in a playlet called "Imagination" and some interesting gymnastic stunts. Max Comedy Circus, vaudeville's best known animal attraction, will be the most pretentious of the offerings for the last of the week. A gala array of comedians, singers and dancers will be grouped on the same bill.—Adv.

COLONIAL TO-DAY — BETTY NANSEN IN "THE SONG OF HATE"
"The Song of Hate" which is based upon Sardou's celebrated modern dramatic play, "Tosca," and which will show the distinguished actress, Betty Nansen in a well-adapted role, is to be the feature at the Colonial to-day and to-morrow. In the story, Mario, a young artist, becomes infatuated with Floria Tosca (Betty Nansen) in a dreamy old world town where it is always afternoon. Baron Scarpia, prefect of police, a justful man who would stop at nothing to reach his own ends and his admiration of La Tosca is ripened into jealousy when he hears of Mario's intentions. Hatching a scheme involving Mario, he has him arrested and places him in the torture chair and sends for La Tosca. As she arrives he applies hot irons to Mario's forehead and if La Tosca will pay Scarpia's price for Mario's life, he will free him. Her great love knows no price too great to pay for Mario's safety and she meets Scarpia's demands and during a scene at a gala restaurant, seizes a knife and plunges it deep into the heart of the tyrant. Supporting Miss Nansen is Dorothy Bernard, Arthur Hoops and others.—Adv.

ELSIE JANIS IN "BETTY IN SEARCH OF A THRILL AT THE REGENT TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW"
That Elsie Janis, the world-famous comedienne starring in "Betty in Search of a Thrill," which will be shown at the Regent to-day and to-morrow, under the auspices of Bosworth, never had a blither role, and the role could never have had a bonnier player is doubtless due to the fact that this sparkling film comedy is from the pen of Elsie Janis herself.

The vivacious, impulsive little New York heiress just out of a convent hurls to know the life of America's biggest city from which she has been shielded since a baby. She imagines it must contain all sorts of wonderful mysteries. But when Betty follows her impulsive desire and abandons her home and her friends, she finds the mysteries are dark ones.

But when we see Betty emerge from the consequences of her prank without a scratch we draw a deep breath of relief. When she finally accepts the hard-some, manly young New York clubman she ought to have accepted in the beginning we feel as happy as though she were our own sister.

The supporting cast is splendid, and is headed by the youthful debonair Owen Moore.

Friday, one day only — "Brewster's Millions" with Edward Ayles, Paramount, will be shown.—Adv.

THE ROMANCE OF THE RAIL
With all due respect to our railroads, there are many conveniences which do not fulfill their part. We look forward with great anticipation to a glorious time when we start on a railroad trip over one of our four-track trunk lines. The changing scenery, the tempting bills of fare, and the luscious ozone wafted at us while the train hits up a sixty-mile clip remind us that life is worth the living. Now that is optimistic anticipation, pure and simple! But here is pessimistic realization: you get aboard and find that there are no berths left; if you neglected to wire in advance, you'll have to sit up in the smoking compartment and perspire, and before the night is half gone your system is transformed into a hot and cold, and you are in and while—in your case—a hospital car would be a welcome adjunct, the diner is hooked on instead, but you have no appetite for breakfast, the odor of liver and bacon, fried eggs, and coffee persists in creeping through every crevice in your car; then you endeavor to bury your misery in scenery, but an incessant line of freight cars going in an opposite direction shuts out your view.—Zim, in Cartoons Magazine.

LIGHT FROSTS IN OHIO
By Associated Press
Toungstown, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Light frosts visited many sections of North-eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania last night. It is believed that crops were not much damaged.

Fly Contest Prizes on Saturday
On Saturday of this week, the second Fly Contest of the Civic Club for 1915, will come to a successful close. From 9 till noon on next Saturday flies may be brought for measurement to 11 North Market Square and the Committee asks that the contestants bring in their flies as early as possible. The first contest of this year ending August first was the most successful campaign ever conducted by the Club. The committee in charge of this contest will be present for the measuring: Mrs. Robert H. Irons, chairman; Mrs. William Henderson, president of the Civic Club; Miss Rachel Pollock and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones. Five cents a pint will be paid for all flies turned in, and numerous prizes will also be given.

OCTOBER'S APPEAL TO THE CARTOONIST
"It would seem almost like painting the lily," observes a writer in Cartoons Magazine, "or, rather, the sunflower and the goldenrod—to paint the glories of October. Yet the cartoonists, some of them with genuine poetical insight into nature, have pictured for us the various phases of this gorgeous month."
"To the painter October is a radiant goddess, her golden hair wind-blown, drowsing languidly amid the poppies, or beside the cider press. Her cornucopia runs over with the fruits of the earth. Again, she is the queen of summer, gliding like a dream of beauty through the crimson woodlands, over hills bathed in gold.

"The cartoonist is of a more practical turn of mind. To him October is the month when competent housewives do their preserving. It is the month when Halloween occurs, and when the small boy with his jack-o-lantern comes into his own.

"Spring has her delicate beauties as she unfolds her mysteries at the love time of the year. Midsummer, with her smiling calm and drone of bees, appeals to the dreamer and philosopher, and frosty winter, crowned with mystic starlight, has her charms. But in all the calendar there is no season like Autumn."

Lime-Loss in Tuberculosis

In the Journal of the American Medical Association (January 17, 1914) was the following:
"It has been many times stated that in tuberculosis or in the pre-tuberculous stage an increased amount of calcium (lime) is lost both in the urine and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be a forerunner of the development of tuberculosis."
If tuberculosis is due to lime loss, the success of Eckman's Alternative in its treatment may be due, in part, to its content of a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Always we have urged consumptives to attend strictly to matters of food, but often some effective remedial agent is needed. In many cases of apparent recovery Eckman's Alternative seems to have supplied this need. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs so is safe to try. From your druggist or direct.

To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs From Face

(Beauty Notes)
Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delatone paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered delatone. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes then rubbed off and the skin washed to remove the remaining delatone. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is delatone you buy.
