

Will You Buy a Piano?

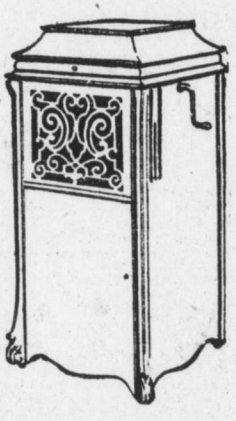

Or will someone sell you one? Will you pay for what you know a piano is, or for what someone tells you it is? Here, in this store, we have no particular piano to sell—thus limiting your choice. Side by side you view the world's leading makes. You can compare them in every way and buy the one which suits you exactly.

Our big business means lower prices, more liberal terms and stronger guarantees. Can you afford not to look at our pianos?

CARTOONS MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER

A picture gallery of the world's thought, a graphic presentation of the viewpoints of all nations, is contained in Cartoons Magazine for October. According to the American cartoonists, Germany and the United States had about come to the parting of the ways following the "Arabie" incident, and in more than one wordless editorial Ambassador Von Bernstorff is shown the "way out." The recent activity of the German sympathizers and their efforts to foment trouble in America also have

ALLENTOWN FAIR GAY
Special to The Telegraph
Allentown, Pa., Sept. 22.—While rain marred the opening day of the great Allentown Fair, the receipts were surprisingly large. It was school children's day, and the majority of the 10,000 pupils of the city managed to visit the fair between showers.

and Helena Smith Dayton who illustrates her ideas with clay models, has some new "Fall Fashions in Interviews."

Perhaps the most striking section of the magazine is given over to the Dutch cartoonists, Baemakers and Gabrielse, whose work in depicting the downfall of civilization has attracted attention throughout Europe and America.
