Fall Fashions For Men Demonstrated by a Professional Model

In Our Windows Thursday Evening
In Our Store Friday Morning and Afternoon

Everybody Invited

This is "Improvement Celebration Week" and you should "DRESS UP."

You're surely proud of your city. Let your city be proud of you. We are doing our share to help Harrisburg maintain its reputation of having the best dressed men in our State.

Bring the ladies with you. They are discerningly critical about style--because they know. We want "her" to see how well you look in one of our many new Fall models.

MANSION NEARLY READY TO OCCUPY

Governor Goes Into a Few Rooms of His Renovated Home

BULLETINS FOR FARMERS

Department of Agriculture Issues List of Publications of Much Value to State

Renovation and refurnishing of the executive mansion has been practically completed, and when furniture which has been delayed in receipt next week will be ready for Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh. The governor has been occupying a couple of rooms, including the library since he returned to the city on Monday, but the remainder of the building will not be in shape for a week or so.

The dominant tone of the decorations is ivory and rooms which were florid, to say the least, in the old scheme has been treated with grays and whites with rugs in accord, the general effect being more of a private home, while the huge mahogany staircase in the front hall has given way to a simple colonial affair which adds immensely to the general appearance of the entrance. The light mahogany of the dining room has been stained the traditional mahogany color and throughout the house the color scheme has been much toned down, while old heavy furniture of design in keeping with the style has been replaced by new of lighter form and shades. Considerable of the old official favor to the furniture and decoration has disappeared.

Bulletins for Farmers.—Over 150 bulletins covering nineteen general subjects with a few miscellaneous ones are made available for public distribution by the new bulletin of the State Department of Agriculture which has just been issued. The most elaborate list ever issued by a State department and covers a very wide range, the bulletins being by experts. The general classification is on soils, including survey, farm sanitation, fertilizers, lime, corn, wheat, alfalfa, tobacco, fruit, market gardening, dairying, beef production, cattle disease, poultry, swine, sheep, horse breeding, domestic science, farm sanitation and hygiene, ornithology, co-operation, institutes, fairs, agricultural education, dynamite on the farm, concrete farm buildings and rural uplift.

To Meet To-morrow.—The State Water Supply Commission will meet to-morrow to hear the representatives of the city of York discuss propositions for improvement of water courses in that city.

Fined For Pollution.—The Bare company, one of the largest in Blair county, has been fined by a magistrate at Tyrone on the charge of polluting streams. Blair county sportsmen got after the company on the ground that it was killing fish.

Has Killing Fish.—State officials who went home for the primary election came back to the city to-day. Most of the Allegheny countians came back last night.

Interests in Bridges.—The State Highway Department expects some brisk bidding for the contracts for bridges to be let on September 30. Numerous inquiries for specifications have been made.

Pittsburgh to be "Free."—Formal orders released the Pittsburgh stock yards from quarantine for foot and mouth disease, expected to be issued by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board officials to-day. This step is being taken in conjunction with federal authorities.

Attending Fairs.—Officials of the Department of Agriculture and farm advisors are attending Allentown, Carlisle and other fairs. They are giving demonstrations and lectures.

Commissioner's Protest.—The Public Service Commission to-day heard protests against the contracts of the York Haven Power, Heidelberg Electric and Ambridge Light companies, all local matters. The Pottery and St. Clair Railway matter came up this afternoon. To-morrow the Philadelphia Electric case will be discussed.

Want Crossing Protected.—The Mahanoy Businessmen's Association has filed a complain against the grade crossing of the Lehigh Valley railroad in that borough.

Capitol Visitors.—Congressman Kiess, Hughesville Senator W. W. Hindman, Clárlán; Senator J. H. Thompson, Beaver, and ex-Representative James A. Dale, York, were at the Capitol.

School Payments.—The following Cumberland districts were paid to-day: Upper Allen, $1,595.40; East Pennsboro, $2,122.75; Upper Millin, $983.37; Independence, $174.80 and these in Perry: Liverpool borough, $818.14 and Liverpool township $1,035.20.

Mr. Johnson Hurt.—Insurance Commissioner Johnson was injured about his left hand at his home in Norris-town by a door slamming on it.

Case Dismissed.—The Public Service Commission to-day dismissed the complaint of the Delaware River Steel company, which operates a blast furnace at Chester, against the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroads, involving demurrage charges. The opinion filed by Commissioner Monaghan holds that the acts complained of took place in 1913 or before the Public Service Company law, under which the commissioners operate, became effective, so that it is without power to order refunds. It is understood that the case will be taken higher.

STEELTON

REPUBLICANS WILL WIN HANDS DOWN

Stees Wins Justice of Peace Fight; Keim, Henderson, Reymnders on Top

Unanimously endorsed for re-election to Council.

E. C. HENDERSON Unanimously endorsed for re-election to Council.

The smoke of the most bitterly-fought primary battle in Steelton's history has cleared away. What was an unsolvable political conundrum yesterday has been reduced by the voters to a simple little problem solvable by most anyone. Since the tabulation of yesterday's vote it would be a comparatively simple matter for anyone to name the men who will be elected to office in Steelton on November 2. So overwhelmingly large was the Republican vote yesterday that there is not even the slightest chance for a Democrat or Bull Mooseer to slip into office here. In fact yesterday's returns made it look as though there weren't any voters except Republicans in Steelton.

Stees Wins For Squire.—In the Republican contest for justice of the peace, the most sought-for office, Frank A. Stees came out at the head of the parade with a majority of 167 votes over Fred Wigfield, his nearest opponent. Stees ran heaviest in the Second precinct of Third Ward and in the First Ward. Stees and Wigfield led the field with large margins. Thomas, who had been occupying this office, landed third place with five votes more than O. P. Baskins, the Democratic nominee. Haines and Sellers brought up the rear.

Keim, Henderson, Reymnders.—The councilmanic contests, without exception, resulted as was predicted in the Telegraph a week ago. Charles E. Keim is now the unopposed candidate for justice of the peace, by O. P. Baskins on the Democratic ticket. The Washington party nomination went to Fred Keim.

Keim, Henderson, Reymnders.—The councilmanic contests, without exception, resulted as was predicted in the Telegraph a week ago. Charles E. Keim is now the unopposed candidate for justice of the peace, by O. P. Baskins on the Democratic ticket. The Washington party nomination went to Fred Keim.

School Director Fight.—The school directorship contest, over which there was some misunderstanding, was won on the Republican ticket by William H. Neil and John R. Reider, for the full terms and Samuel L. Brehm for the 2-year term. H. Russell Rupp with Neil and Brehm will represent the Democratic party. Rupp and Reider tied with nine votes each for the Washington nomination according to the unofficial returns.

Constable Contests.—The various constable contests were closely contested. In the First Ward John H. Gibb won both the Republican and Democratic nominations. Robert Brashears took the Republican nomination in the Second, and Thomas Anderson landed the Democratic nomination. In the Third Ward Silas Bailey was renominated on the Republican ticket over A. P. Bomgardner, now high constable. Clinton Jones, a former patrolman, and John Wood, in the Fourth Ward George Lehr was renominated on both Republican and Democratic tickets and in the Fifth Ward Harry C. Dick was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Complete Returns from Steelton will be found in the various tables printed elsewhere in the Telegraph.

BISHOP RENOMINATED TREASURER SWATARA

O. C. Bishop was renominated for treasurer of Swatara township yesterday on the Republican ticket. He had an overwhelming majority, assuring his re-election in November. Mr. Bishop had a total of 268 votes. William Stephens had 44 votes and Martin Zohl 58.

MISS ROLAND DIES

Mary Roland, 38 years old, died Saturday of heart disease at the State hospital in Hollidaysburg, where she was employed as a nurse. The body has been taken to the home of her brother, Joseph Roland at Oberlin, where funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon.

TO GIVE SUPPER

The degree team of the Poaching Council of the Daughters of Poochontas will give a chicken corn soup supper to-morrow noon and evening in the Market house at Steelton. The meals will be served at 12 o'clock noon and 6 in the evening.

UNCLE SAM AS THE DEVIL

An Austrian cartoonist in a drawing reproduced in Cartoons Magazine, has Uncle Sam playing a new role—that of the devil. The scene is in a haunted forest, near a waterfall. Owls and skulls enhance the gloomy atmosphere. Russia is seen kneeling in supplication to the diabolical figure which stands on a ledge near the torrent. As the legendary Freischutz, he is pleading for annihilation. According to the story, Freischutz was a hunter who entered into a compact with the evil one by which the latter was furnished with seven balls. Six of these invariably hit the mark, while the seventh remained the property of the devil, who could direct it at his pleasure. Japan, rather than the United States, remarks the editor, might more appropriately have been made to represent the devil.

NIGHT EXHIBIT AT CARLISLE

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—The Carlisle Fair held its first electric-lighted night exhibition last night. Rain early yesterday morning slightly kept down the attendance on the opening day of the 109th year of the great Carlisle exhibition. Horticultural Hall is this year too small and an overflow exhibit has been placed in the building just west of the main entrance. The fancy work display exceeds expectations. A display of more than usual interest is conducted by the Carlisle post office this year in the interest of the parcel post system.

FIGHT NEAR VILNA CONTINUED

Petrograd, Sept. 21, via London, Sept. 22.—The following Russian official statement was given out to-night: "In the region northwest of Dvinsk, near the village of Munze, we drove the Germans from their trenches by a victorious attack. East of Vilna the fighting continues."

FRENCH RESCUE ARMENIANS

Paris, Sept. 22, 2:15 A. M.—The rescue by French warships of a large band of Armenians from pursuing Turks is recounted in a statement issued last night by the ministry of marine.

CARS OF NEW DESIGN BUILT FOR GOTHAM SUBWAYS

Cars larger and better than those heretofore operated and embodying various features for safety, comfort, and sanitation, are being placed in service in the New York subways. They are of steel construction and built a foot wider and 16 ft. longer than former cars, providing seating capacity for 78 persons and auxiliary accommodations for a score more. The cars are described in the October Popular Mechanics Magazine as follows: "The interior of the cars is finished in white enamel. The floor is made of cement composition which allows it to be flushed and thoroughly washed at the end of a run. Posts replace the proverbial straps, while the seats are especially designed for comfort. In making these, the measurements of a large number of persons were taken in order to determine a pattern which would best suit the requirements of the average New Yorker."

"Platforms have been eliminated. Three double doors, facilitating the loading and unloading, are arranged on each side. These are operated electrically and controlled by a guard stationed at the middle entrance. A train cannot be started until each door is closed and locked, at which time the motorman is signaled automatic-

CARTOONS OF TRUANCY

"Certain cartoonists," says a writer in Cartoons Magazine, "have been taken to task for picturing with too alluring a pencil the joys of going barefoot in summer, of hunting Indians, of climbing apple trees, when they should have been in school studying. Their work is an invitation to the small boys to play truant, especially when the birds are singing and the sun is shining, and a dog companion clamors for an excursion over hill and dale. Enter the plea 'Guilty.' 'Who would care to be the owner of a small boy who, when the red gods called, wouldn't follow; who wouldn't occasionally steal away from school and come back bramble-scratched and sunburned? Any boy whose name is Johnnie, and not Archibald or Ferdinand, will need no invitation to run after the pied piper of happiness, and seek relief from the eternal three R's under the willows or in forbidden apple orchards. Given a golden day, the smell of summer in the air, a south wind, and the drone of bees—well, a schoolroom, no more than iron bars, can a prison make. Nobody but an old-fashioned schoolmaster would expect a 'feller' to be proper—always."

ally. An emergency lighting system, receiving current from storage batteries, is put in operation when contact with the third rail is broken or the regular power temporarily cut off."
