TECH HIGH WINS FIRST GAME---CENTRAL WORRIES LANCASTER---PHILLIES IN EAST

PHILLIES MOVE TO BROOKLYN

Two More Victories Will Put Quakers on Easy Street; No Game Yesterday

Special to The Telegraph

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—Pat Moran and his pennant winners were in the city long enough to-day to get a rousing welcome from many fans. They passed through here to-day en route from Chicago to Brooklyn. Rain prevented a game at Chicago yesterday.

One game out of four from Brooklyn and one out of four from Boston are all the Phillies must win to capture the National League pennant. The standing would then be: Phillies, 596, Boston, .562, Brooklyn. 552,

The Phillies and Brooklyn have 8 more games to play. Boston has 9.

As the result of yesterdays games the Phillies have a lead of 7½ games over Brooklyn and 6½ over Boston.

If the Phillies win 3 and lose 5 of their remaining games they will have a percentage of .575, which will win the pennant, for the best Boston can do by winning all its 9 games is, .569, and Brooklyn, by winning 8 games, .558.

If the Phillies win 2 and lose 6 they will have a percentage of .569, which Boston can tie by winning all its games, but Brooklyn could not even tie.

The Phillies' 8 remaining games are with Brooklyn and Boston. The Phillies play in Brooklyn September 28; Boston, September 29, 30, October 1 and 2, and at home with Brooklyn October 4, 5 and 7.

College Football Has One Big Surprise

College football Saturday brought few sensations. The results chalked up with one exception were expected. The one big surprise of the day was the failure of the Carlisle Indians to down Lebanon Valley College.

The Indians were unable to make any impression on Coach Guyer's eleven, and no score came during the game. Comparative scores show a repetition of past performances in the opening games. The games were free of accidents and most of the battles were short because of the heat.

CASKET IS MADE OF GLASS BOUND BY METAL

Made of two pieces which are bound together by heavy metal bands, a glass casket has been invented which will soon be introduced for burial purposes. This serves both as a coffin and vault, as it requires no protection against the chemical action of the earth. When closed it is hermetically sealed and is proof against both air and water. The two sections are molded in heavy glass, which gives the casket great strength. Its general form is the same, practically, as that of other burial receptacles. The chief point advanced in its favor is its obvious qualities of durability.—From the October Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The Smile That Won't Wear Off

TY COBB

The Tigers seem to have given up hope of winning the pennant, but Ty Cobb, the fleet outfielder can still smile. Last Wednesday he won the title of champion base stealer of the twentieth century by stealing the 89th base this season.

Ty passed Milan's American League record of 88, which the Washington speed boy hung up in 1912. Thursday Cobb stole his 90th base and his ambition is to make it a hundred before the season closes.

Dauphin Wins Battle; Pennant Chances Good

Two games were played in the Dauphin-Schuylkill League. Dauphin trimmed Duncannon, score 4 to 1; Newport defeated Millersburg, score 5 to 2. The latter game does not count in the league standing.

Dauphin's victory gives them a stronger hold on pennant chances. Marysville, the leaders, did not play. They have two games to play. The loss of one battle would mean a tie between Dauphin and Marysville. Millersburg plays at Dauphin next Saturday. In order to win the pennant Marysville must take both games.
