BISHOP ENTERTAINS CHURCH MISSION BOARD With Bishop James H. Darlington presiding, a meeting of the board of missions of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg was held yesterday in the Commonwealth Hotel. After general business was transacted the following were guests of Bishop Darlington at dinner: General Soltmagrove; Archdeacon A. F. McMillan, of Carlisle; Archdeacon L. F. Nichols, of Lock Haven; the Rev. George T. Bishop, of Altoona; the Rev. A. R. Taylor, of York; H. G. Hinkle, of Altoona; H. W. Hartman and George N. Reynolds, of Lancaster, and Richard M. E. Wharton, of this city.

SUFFRAGE BELL HERE TOMORROW [Continued From First Page.] blem at Dauphin and officiate as outsiders on the trip to this city. At Front and Maclay streets the suffragists of the city, in automobiles, headed by the Municipal band, will fall in behind the bell and will parade over the following route: Maclay street to Sixth, to Kelly, to Third, to North, to Front, to Market, to the Square. The truck bearing the bell will be parked in the middle of the Square all night. During the evening a roping rally will be held. Speakers will be Miss Emma L. MacAlarney and Miss Adella Potter. Miss MacAlarney's Work Miss Emma Lenore MacAlarney, who joined the forces of the State Suffrage Association last Fall, has been wonderfully successful in organization work in many parts of the State. She is responsible for the county organizations in Snyder, Dauphin and Perry counties and has organized many locals in Mifflin, Juniata, Montour, Cumberland, Franklin, York and Northumberland counties. Possessed of a magnetic personality and a fund of interesting information, she is a most valuable aid to the cause. Miss MacAlarney was born in Harrisburg. Her father, Joseph C. MacAlarney, was a well-known lawyer of this city, and her uncle, M. W. MacAlarney, was for a long time the owner of the Telegraph and postmaster here. On her mother's side she is a descendant of Peter Hoffman, who built the first church and first schoolhouse in Dauphin county. She is a graduate of Wellesley College and has since then taught in Harrisburg and in the Horace Mann School of Columbia University, New York city. Newspaper work has been out of teaching hours, her specialty, and this training and experience has helped in her suffrage work. The Bell The bell which is stirring up much enthusiasm for the suffrage cause is practically a replica of the original Liberty Bell, now in San Francisco. It is the same size and weight, 2,000 pounds. The only way the two bells can be told apart is by the fact that the crack in the old bell has not been duplicated. The clause, "Establish Justice," has also been added to the inscription "Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land to All the Inhabitants Thereof." The silent appeal of the chained clapper, which is not to be released until the day that the women of Pennsylvania are granted the vote, has struck a responsive note with hundreds of loyal Pennsylvanians. The itinerary is as follows: Tuesday, September 28—4 p. m., Halifax, half-hour stop for speeches; 5:30, Millersburg, dinner and night; 7, evening meeting. Wednesday, September 29—10:30 a. m., Elizabethtown, half-hour stop for speeches; 11:45, Lykens, noon meeting; 1:30, leave Lykens; 4:30, Dauphin, half-hour stop for speeches; 5:30, Harrisburg, dinner and night; 7:30, evening meeting. Thursday, Sept. 30—10 a. m., leave Harrisburg; 11, Hummelstown, half-hour stop for speeches; 12 noon, Hershey; 2, Middletown, one hour stop for speeches; 4, Steelton, dinner; 7:30, evening meeting.

IN JUNIATA AND PERRY Juniata and Perry counties were invaded yesterday by a party of woman suffragists with the woman's liberty bell. Miss Emma MacAlarney, formerly of Harrisburg, joined the speakers yesterday and she ridiculed some of the anti arguments. New Bloomfield, Newport and other places were visited and to-day the bell was on display at Duncannon, New Buffalo and Liverpool. To-night will be spent at Millersburg and the party will come into Dauphin county to-morrow. The "good enough for my grandmother and good enough for me" type of individual who is serving to oppose the progress of the movement by his standpoint attitude came in for a flaying at Newport, where one of the biggest meetings of the day was held. Miss MacAlarney reminded the men who crowded about the bell truck that tall dips, open fireplaces and stage coaches were good enough for their grandmothers, but they are not good enough for them. She called on them to wake up and modernize their minds as they have modernized their homes. State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss.
