Visit the Autumn Fashion Revue Tomorrow

The second of a three-days' Fashion Show — to-morrow, will present to women of style, the most striking and authentic creations in Suits, Coats, Millinery, Blouses and Gowns for the present season and cooler weather to come. Graceful Models will afford visitors a continuous entertainment from 10 to 11:30, and from 2:30 to 4 On the fourth floor. Music. Come.

There Is Much to Tell About Plentiful Assortments of Women's Suits When Each Message Goes Forth.

IN fact, too much for your convenience in reading. Therefore, of style; of the endless variations in style; of the numerous models that vie with each other for popularity; of fabrics; of shades; of qualities—only a mention can be given at this time.

We desire to lay emphasis, instead, on the exceptionally large assortments that our new third floor department is featuring. (This applies not only to suits, but other garments as well).

Take, as an instance, a nobby suit around fifteen dollars, or less. Can you imagine the wide range that must be had on up through the popular "twenties"—"thirties"—"forties" and on up?

Among the popular-priced garments, new models are—

—Navy gabardine with a coat that flares in true skirt fashion; loosely belted; priced at $25.00

—A lustrous broadcloth in genuine military style, on which buttons, braids and tassels hold full sway $37.50

—The much talked of "Chin Chin" model; buttoning high around the neck and trimmed with fur at collar and cuffs . . . $37.50

—Reminder of "Norfolk" days, but a greatly improved model in navy whipcord; full box back $25.00

—A host of other creations that you will care to see; to thoroughly inspect; to compare with others' garments; and finally to decide in their favor.

—A large collection of trimmed hats referred to above are priced at $13.50

Coat Styles Are Perhaps More Varied Than Ever

We aim to present large varieties because they afford easy choosing; but won't you agree that sometimes it's even hard to choose then, every style is just as smart and jaunty as can be?

We'll help you, of course, in choosing the most becoming.

Here again, we speak of assortments as the leading factor, and ask you to see the styles for yourself. Note the wide range—

—A green and white barred boucle; semi-formfitting; flare bottom $9.98

—Subdued plaid in zibeline with a large, comfy collar and wide belt $17.50

—Silk corduroy; a beautiful material in field mouse shade; double over-lapping belt and flare bottom $22.50

And upward to—

—African brown duvetyne; fur collared and cuffed; long, unbroken lines in back; flare side $42.50

In all the assortments are decidedly pleasing, and you may depend upon securing something to suit your fancy.

New Skirts Are Arriving Almost Daily

A skirt season some term it; but nevertheless, skirts are gaining in popularity as the season advances. New models which we have added include—

—Odd, two-tone checks in contrasting shades; button trimmed $7.50

—Black and white plaid serge in two-piece style with smart side pockets . . . $5.98

—Beautiful black broadcloth in wide circular style, and trimmed with exceptionally large pearl buttons $10.00

—Novelty broadcloth; new in Harrisburg; field mouse shade; also green and black. A two-piece skirt with seam pockets . . $7.48
