WHARTON CLUB TO EAT BEEFSTEAK

Extension Students to Hold Dinner Tonight at Engineers' Club

A beefsteak dinner will be given at the Engineers' Club to-night by the Wharton Club, recently organized by members of the Harrisburg Extension of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce.

ments includes T. J. S. Kishpaugh, Norman J. Rintz, Nathaniel S. Hecker, Wilbur Minnich and Eland Cornell. Professor Raine, one of the University officials in charge of the registration of students, announces that there is still room for several dozen in the first year class, but that young men and women planning to advance their knowledge of business had better apply for admission to the Extension immediately. Registrations are being taken at the Chamber of Commerce offices in the Kunkel Building every evening of this and next week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fillem and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnhart, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wintemeyer, at York, have returned to Harrisburg. Miss Virginia King, 1605 North Second street, is in Philadelphia. Tolbert K. Wonderly, of Enola, and Frank Wonderly, of New Kingston, have left on a trip which will include Pittsburgh and Buffalo. On their way home Saturday they will stop at New York to see the auto races on the Sheephead Bay track.

ARABIAN MISSIONARY TO SPEAK
Mrs. E. E. Calvery, for five years a physician and missionary in Arabia, will speak in the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow evening at 7:45 o'clock.

MANY ACTIVITIES PLANNED BY CLUB

New Lockerhouse of Colonial Country Club Will Be Opened This Week

With the approach of winter, plans for a ver yactive season are being launched by the board of governors and the various committees of the Colonial Country Club.

The season will start informally next Saturday, when the Ladies Auxiliary committee will resume the serving of the tea every Saturday afternoon and evening during the winter. Invitations have been extended to all members, their wives, daughters and guests.

Encouraged by the success of the former masquerade dances, a ball masque will be held October 28. An out-of-town costumer will probably be secured. Under the auspices of the entertainment committee the first monthly dance will be held to-morrow evening.

Card parties will be held at the clubhouse on the second Tuesday of each month, beginning October 12. Suitable prizes will be given the winners in bridge and "500".

The athletic end of the Colonial Country Club's activities have not been neglected, either. The bowling committee announces that the season will be ushered in next Saturday. The alleys have been planed, oiled and polished and new sets of pins have been purchased. A schedule for first teams will soon be arranged under the direction of C. H. Kinter, chairman.

Locker House Completed
Saturday will mark the start of many other activities. The big event, out-of-doors will be the tombstone golf tournament. Prizes have been provided. Afterwards there will be tennis, bowling and supper. At the supper plans for the improvement of the club will be discussed. The new locker house will be ready for occupancy Saturday. Members will be asked to make reservations upon application to C. W. Burnett or S. B. Nissley. The locker house has been under construction this summer and contains modern equipment in addition to improved showers. The old locker house will be assigned to the ladies.

CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS
Officers were elected at a recent meeting of Class 3, of the Derry Street United Brethren Church as follows: President, Mrs. J. A. Lyter; vice-president, Mrs. Weaver; secretary, Mrs. Macdonald; assistant secretary, Mrs. Havensick; treasurer, Miss Walker; recording secretary, Mrs. Benson; and assistant, Mrs. Brackewig.

CHORUS TO MEET
Plans for the winter's activities will be made at a meeting of the music committee and the chorus of Derry Street United Brethren Church, Thursday night.

Mrs. E. M. Besh, of 1433 Berryhill street, has left for Salem and Calder Springs, Va., where she will spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

Captain and Mrs. George C. Jack will leave Saturday for a two months' trip to the Exposition. They will return home by way of the southern route, stopping off with relatives in San Antonio, Texas.

High School Romance Culminates in Wedding

A wedding of interest to Harrisburgers was the marriage at Pittston yesterday of Miss Mary C. Lynch, daughter of P. A. Lynch, of Pittston, and Edward J. Hart, also of that city, which marked the happy culmination of a romance begun while both were students at the Pittston high school. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. E. Lotz, a close friend of the bridegroom, at 6 o'clock, in St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Pittston. Miss Kathryn S. Lynch, the bride's sister, was the bridesmaid, and Allen Glennon was best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hart, with their attendants, motored to Scranton, where they enjoyed a wedding breakfast at Hotel Cassa. Mr. and Mrs. Hart left at 8 o'clock for New York. They will sail to-day for Bermuda. After November 2 they will be at home at 152 Carroll street, Pittston, their residence having been a wedding gift from the bride's father.

Mr. Hart is one of the best known newspapermen in the northeastern part of the State. For 12 past years he has been connected with the Scranton Times. He has represented the Times and other Scranton papers in Harrisburg during the past several sessions of the Legislature. In addition to his reportorial duties he is secretary of a committee of the State Senate.

—the real economy car

The 1916 Detroit Electric offers the relief you seek from operation overtax. Current from battery charging is furnished at low rates (averaging $5 to $7 per month) and is growing lower constantly.

Repair, replacement and adjustment charges—costs which swell the monthly bills of many motorists—seldom concern the Detroit Electric owner because the mechanism of the Detroit Electric is so simple and so strongly built that there's really nothing to get out of order. You are never bothered by ignition, carburetor, cylinder and engine ailments. You have no gasoline bills to pay. And the modern Detroit Electric is an ideal car for winter driving as well as summer motoring—without the expense of an additional body the gas car owner must incur. In many other ways the Detroit Electric is the preferable and practical car for your use. When will you take your demonstration drive?
