

are awakening to the fact, since they have had an opporunity to see what has been accomplished, that the three Republican members of the present Council have done admirably under extremely difficult circumstances. We believe that with the progress of the campaign the piffling efforts to disparage the work of the three depart Brethren church. ments over which Commissioners Bowman and Taylor are the Lynch, heads will be understood by the great majority of people and that the proturning out of experienced church-going of which it may well be proud. One of the strongest of the officials for others who want their places will not be in the interest of denominations in this city is the United Brethren, which includes five economy or efficient administration.

Merchants of Harrisburg are showing large and flourishing congregations in the city proper and four or five more their usual enterprise in presenting to the city proper and four or five more the autumn buying public an unusual in the immediate suburbs. The East were unrelated, but they were at least companions. Is it probable that if the young ceased to call their eledrs "old guys" or "geezers,' to refer to other people's mothers as "skirs" or "rags," and gen-erally began to lift their terminology toward levels of a decorum less figur-ative, if more prosaic, they might also improve their manners? At any rate is there any overwhelming reason why the youth of this time should be al-most wholly unacquainted with the plain English tongue and unable to say the simplest thing except in slang? It is a matter worthy of the consider-ation of those teachers and professors who may perhaps not agree with the Columbia sage that "everything goes."

HARRISBURG is honored this week in entertaining the East Pennsylvania Conference of the

Our Daily Laugh

-EX-Director Porter will start his campaign with "movies" to-day. He has opened headquarters. President Judge Charles L. Brown, of the Philadelphia Municipal Court, yesterday wrote a letter to the Com-mittee of One Hundred, protesting gainst the statement made by the committee to the effect that the court employed members of councils as clerks and court officers. Judge Brown said that there is not a single member of councils in the court's employ over whose appointment the court has any control. The committee issued a statement admitting its partial error.

statement admitting its partial error

The Pittston city council has distance of any statement by The absence of any statement by Based chief of any statement by Dership in the Grace Methodist Episco-pal church Sunday by the Rev. John Bership in the Grace Methodist Episco-pal church Sunday by the Rev. John Harrisburg has been celebrating for three days. Back in 1901 Harrisburg discovered that as a city it hadn't much to brag of except being the State birthday anniversary on Saturday.
 The State College this term has an enrollment of 3800 in all courses, 550 over last year. The Freshmen class has been limited to 600, owing to the lack of buildings, more than 200 ap-

V. J. Patterson, of Pittsburgh, is one of the five leading candidates for commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. , —Colonel L. A. Watres, of Scranton, reappointed a member of the State Armory Board, was one of the original members of that body.
 —Isaac Baum, prominent Washington county attorney, has gone to Newfoundland.
 —John A. Bigelow, the retiring district attorney of Luzerne, started in life as a telegraph operator.
 —H. K. Porter, the Pittsburgh manufacturer, has been spending some time in Lenox.

United Brethren in Christ, which is in session in the Sixth Street United This city has long been an important religious center, as evidenced by the many church conferences held here, and it bears reputation for

-John R. Halsey, Republican coun

-John R. Halsey, Republican coun-ty chairman of Luzerne, has been nom-inated for district attorney on most of the tickets in that county. He is well known to a number here. -Representative William Luxem-berger appears to have cinched the Democratic nomination for county controller in Lackawanna. -The Pittston city council has dis-missed Chief of Police Newcomb and seven patrolmen because they refused to stay interned in city hall on Pri-mary day. - The cites College this term has assortment of the best things that the Pennsylvania Conference includes 149 market has to offer. Long ago the ex-cuse for going to New York and other metropolitan centers ceased to have any basis. 23,000 communicants.

CABARET A RUM PARASITE O, and behold our old friend Neil hundred clerical and lay delegates are Bonner in the guise of a re- gathered here and we are more than Out in proud to have men of such high former and lecturer. Out in Springfield, Ill., yesterday Neil took a fling at the cabaret. The cabaret, he is a man of sacrifice even more than in is a man of sacrifice even more than in ness, is a parasite on the liquor busi-ness, is dragging it into disrepute and creased, the demands of the pew, on reputable saloonkeepers to financial the pulpit are so exacting that a costly Mr. Bonner puts himself on education is almost a necessity to suc ruin. record as strongly opposed to "articess, and the man of the cloth has to ficial stimulation" in the conduct of scrape to make ends meet more than the liquor traffic. "Artificial stimuever. But has anyone heard of any lation" is bad for business and evensudden jumps in the salaries paid to tually will wreck the trade, he decides, ministers? A few, perhaps, but only What a pity he does not follow his sufficient to establish the exception theory to its logical conclusion. If that proves the rule. "artificial stimulation" will wreck a business, what may we not expect it to The Telegraph extends its best wishes for the success of the United do to the complexities of the human Brethren conference and its greetings to the men who are here to report body ?

the gains their sacrifices have made An employment bureau is to be esduring the year. tablished by the State in a few days, and if we may judge from the anxious inquiries of local contractors there is work waiting for idle men right here in Harrisburg.

ADVERTISING STEELTON

THE Board of Trade of Steelton ings warn them they are about to be has decided to do something in pitched into oblivion by a nation-wide He was a beauty, I should say the way of town advertising, evi-y being awake to the fact that Senator Furnifold Simmons, dently being awake to the fact that "he who bloweth not his own horn, North Carolina, chairman of the Sen-the same shall not be blown." And ate Committee on Finance, now the same shall not be blown." And ate Committee on Finance, now Steelton has reason to do a little "toot- swash-buckles around in a suit of bor-The town has grown and pro-d wonderfully in the past few declares himself for a huge bond ising." years. Time was when nobody who sue to provide for an adequate navy knew anything about the situation Heretofore, Mr. Simmons' espousal of held a very high opinion of Steelton. the cause of national preparedness It was as dirty, as unpaved and gen-crally as sleepy as was Harrisburg a Kentucky colonel for the Hobson before the era of public improve- anti-redeye amendment.

But while Furnifold has glimpsed I just can't help a-dreamin' of, mough of the light to encourage him. The fish that got away. But Steelton took enterprises a leaf out of the Harrisburg notebook, enough of the light to encourage him

ONLY THINK-

SIMMONS AND KITCHIN

T is refreshing to note the belliger

sumed now that premonitory quak-

I ent attitude a few of the Demo crats in the House and Senate have

THE CONFERENCE

Wayne-Where re you thinking As the representatives of these tre you thousands of church people, several of going this summer? Payne — I'm thinking of the Panarra - Pacific common. He: We could hold your fortune in common, couldn't we?

ING.

Pa Pa

M

HE GOT AWAY By Wing Dinger

When, for two weeks a chap has been A fishin' down the bay, It's hard to come back and at work

To plug and plug away.

ve tried to concentrate my though On gigures, costs, et cet, ut I can't keep from dreamin' of/ 'That fish I didn't get.

At least four feet in length

I gave him lots of play and tried To use up all his strength, And when I thought the time was I tried to land him-gee, He leaped from water, jumped the hoe And got away from me.

The guide, a diplomatic cuss, To me did then remark: "Don't mind it, 'cause you missed him bo." For it was just a shark."

But shark or not, when o'er my work I'm struggling every day, mittees this week. This will be done by the Democrats as well as Republicans.

mittees this week. This will be done by the Democrats as well as Republicans.
mittees this week. This will be done by the Democrats as well as Republicans.
mittees this week. This will be done by the Democrats as well as Republicans.
mittees there as not constructing some attracting some attracting some attraction.
The one place in Luzerne county where there is not one Democrats is the recent primaries the Republicans there as the recent primaries the Republicans there as the recent primaries the Republicans there as the recent primaries the Republicans stores, but no fraud was discovered. The poll has been a Republican stores, they know in advance that their interest have know in advance that their interest there are perfectly safe.
mittees there are perfectly safe.
mittees the received that their interest they know in advance that their interest there are perfectly safe.
mittees ther

BARRING OUT BOOZE

Over the entrance gates of the great plant of the Illinois Steel Company at Gary, Ind., appear these electric

Before a for the many of the first in factor of the series and the series of the great series of

DO YOU KNOW

That Harrisburg playgrounds have a national reputation?

HISTORIC HARRISBURG

The The first Methodist church erected Harrisburg was near Third and ine streets.

IN HARRISBURG FIFTY YEARS AGO TO-DAY

[From The Telegraph, Sept, 29, 1865.]

Chestnuts in Market Chestnuts were on sale to-day in the markets of the city. The prices ranged from 25 to 45 cents a quart.

Murderer in This City? A murderer from Middletown, N. Y., is supposed to be hiding somewhere in this city or vicinity. His name is John Henderson, alias John Hardy. He is wanted for the murder of a farmer in the New York town.

Soldiers' Rally in Harrisburg At a meeting of discharged officers of the War in Pittsburgh yesterday it was decided to hold a rally of Penn-sylvania regiments in this city October 4. It is probable that a permanent organization will be completed then.

The busier a store is-if it be efficiently managed, the better it can serve you.

can serve you. The more a manufacturer makes the lower his prices. Volume of business lessens cost of handling and for that rea-son means economies. The stores and the manufac-turers who use newspaper ad-vortising are busy. It pays to patronize them be-cause the increased business gives better opportunities for service.