14-Year-Old Girl Tells Ugliest Story of Dauphin's Courts

The ugliest story ever heard in Dauphin county courtroom was told to-day by 14-year-old Myrtle Walter, of Dauphin. Within a few feet of the witness stand sat the child's softly weeping mother; across the counsel table, face hidden in his arms, sat her father, Zar Walter, the defendant. Crowded courtroom No. 2 sat hushed norror stricken throughout the childish recital.

And, when the story was finished the jury returned a verdict of guilty

Germans Pushed Back by Russian Forces

Petrograd, Sept. 30, 11.30 A. M., via London, 1.55 P. M.—Territorial gains of considerable extent by the Russians are indicated by the latest information received at the war office. The Germans have been pushed back from the terminal station at Clubo koi, on the Svientsyanvo Glubokoi railway to a point midway to the Vilna-Dvinsk ra ilway. The position thus reached is the station of Postawy representing a gain of 35 miles.

COLONIAL TO-DAY
"THE CIRCULAR STAIRCASE"

"The Circular Staircase," the five-reel Selig Red Seal Play to be shown at the Colonial theater to-day is said to be one of the best offerings of the year. It is a mystery film, based upon the novel of the same title by Mary Roberts Rinehart and features Eugenie Besserer. A murder occurs in a house and susplayments of the movel of the same title by Mary Roberts Rinehart and features Eugenie Besserer. A murder occurs in a house and susplayments future of the sone solution that the element of the composition of the sone solution that the element one who is working on the case has not hit upon but this is so carefully covered up by the events which occur that no one who sees the film can imagine what it can be. Not until the climax occurs is the real culprit exposed and then it is sprung as the greatest of the many surprises which occur throughout the film.

Monday and Tuesday the Colonial will present the distinguished star. Robert Edeson, in the Vitagraph's five-part drama, "Mortmain," an unique sensational and weird story of the mysteries of medical surgery.—Adv.

LITTLE MILLIONAIRES HAVE NAMES CHANGED

LEONARD MOORHEAD THOMAS & HIS MOTHER

LEONARD MOORHEAD THOMAS, JR., AND HIS MOTHER MRS.

LEONARD THOMAS

New York, Sept. 9.—On September 15, on an order from Justice Giegerich of the Suprem Court, Leonard May Oelrichs Thomas and Meredith Michael May Thomas, the two little sons of Leonard M. Thomas and Meredith Michael May Thomas the two little sons of Leonard M. Thomas millionaire of New York, Newport and Philadelbhia, and Mrs. Blanche May Oelrichs Thomas will have their names changed.

On that date Leonard May Oelrichs Thomas will become Leonard Moorhead Thomas while Meredith Michael May Thomas will hereafter be known as Robin May Thomas.

In his petition for the change in names of his sons Mr. Thomas stated that he wanted his eldest son to bear the name "Moorhead" in honor of his wife's paternal grandmother. When Leonard was born in 1911, he was the first child of the couple, who were marired in 1910, and he wanted to have the boy bear the name of his wife's mother. On April 26 last a second son was born and as he was also given the name "May," there is no reason why Leonard should not bear it. He further stated that the names borne by his sons were too cumbersome and he wished them shortened.

Mrs. Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oelrichs of Philadelphia, and has often been called "the most beautiful woman in America."

Mr. Thomas is a son of the late George C. Thomas, member of the
