FARMERS' DAY AT WAYNESBORO

ing dawned with heavy clouds span-ning the sky and a threatened downning the sky and a threatened down-pour of rain at any-minute, "farmers' day" here was one of the most suc-cessful events of the year. The at-tendance was estimated at between 8,000 and 10,000 persons. All along the streets stands and tables had been erected on which were placed grain, fruits and vegetables, while coops were filled with poultry and pigeons.

placed grain, fruits and vegetables, while coops were filled with poultry and pigeons.

It kept the judges, Sheriff William Walmer, Chambersburg; Chalmers P. Omwake, Shady Grove, and George Rickard, Hagerstown, quite busy all day judging the hundreds of articles centered in competition for the $500 given away by the merchants in prizes. Several bands of music marched up and down the streets and rendered music throughout the day. The band that attracted the most attention was the "Rube" and "Farmers' Band," from Smithsburg, with about thirty men dressed in farmers' togs, who paraded the streets.

The automobile parade was a success. There were a number of automobiles beautifully trimmed with flowers and grain.

During the evening an open-air show was given from a platform in Center Square.

LOST—My Tennessee diamond-backed rattler Bob has left his usual haunts in my feed barn, Fourth and Pickering, and, being worth more than half a dozen cats in a feed barn, I will cheerfully pay a reward for his capture and return. One fang is broken off within an inch of the jaw bone, the other is extracted, so he's perfectly harmless. He is 3½ feet long, has five rattles, no button. Should you find Bob, do your best to get him in a box of some kind, then call 342 and I will come at once.

A Want Ad FROM Arkansas

THE above Lost Ad was clipped from Mena (Ark.) Star.

Not because we are of the opinion that Bob is headed towards Harrisburg, but just to illustrate the confidence people have in "Want' ads, we reprint the above ad. Bob was lost and his owner wanted him back; that was his object in advertising.

In Harrisburg when a valuable is lost the owner usually telephones 4100; that's the Want Ad Department of the HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH, and chances are that inside of a few hours he'll have his lost article again safe in his possession. And his ad costs him but a penny a word.
