A Living Model Exhibit Of New Modes In Annette Kellermann Knitted Garments of Fashion

A beautiful young pupil of Annette Kellermann will pose these new sweater coats on the Second Floor to-morrow for the last time.

More and more the sweater coat becomes an indispensable garment of dress for every woman for the new models are not merely coats of utility, but "real garments of fashion."

Admirably Adapted for Street Wear, Business, Shopping, Golf, Motoring, Riding, Sports and General Wear

There is no garment so "comfy," so smart and swaggar as the sweater coat and of late the styles are beautiful and becoming. This is especially true of Annette Kellermann Knitted Garments of Fashion, for which we have the exclusive sale.

A charming young pupil of Miss Kellermann (the famous diver and physical culture specialist) will give a series of artistic poses, illustrating the various purposes of these garments, and will explain their many style and comfort features.

CARNEGIE HEAD GOES TO MIDVALE

A. C. Dinkey Made President of New Syndicate's Rival Concern

New York, Oct. 5.—Alva C. Dinkey, brother-in-law of Charles M. Schwab, for twelve years president of the Carnegie Steel Company, the only armor plate subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, resigned from that position yesterday and associated himself with William Ellis Corey Perry, a Rockefeller, E. C. Converse, Ambassador Monell, Frank A. Vanderlip, Charles H. Sabin and the others of the syndicate to which was formally transferred control of the Midvale Steel Company ten days ago. At times the Midvale has been the Carnegie's most formidable rival in armor plate bidding.

Sunshine Society Holds Election of Officers

The Roberts Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society held its first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A. with a large and enthusiastic attendance. Plans were made to scatter much sunshine to the many crippled and shut-ins of the city during the fall and winter. Reports of various committees were read and especially interesting was that pertaining to children for whom the society cared throughout the summer. With the help of generous friends the society was able to send unfortunate children to the country who went away pale and wan and returned to their homes rosy and fat.

The annual election resulted in the following officers: President, Mr. Homer Black; vice-president, Mrs. Charles Etter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Andrew Patterson; recording secretary, Mrs. F. E. Downes; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Seel; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Charles Boll.

There are a limited number of the society's cook books, which Mrs. Spooner, 117 Locust street, will dispose of for half price.

Miss Ellen K. McCulloch, of 1202 North Second street, will be here for tonight's visit with relatives at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry W. Reed, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. William Reed at Elmistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thorne have gone home to Washington, D. C. after a short stay among relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Lucie Belle Hayes, of Baltimore, was a recent guest of her cousin, Miss Marie Anderson, of State street.

Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, of Fairfield House, has returned from Southwest Harbor, Maine, where she was the guest of her father, Colonel Cameron.

SERVE A CHILLI SUPPER TO TWELVE BIRTHDAY GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Derr, of 1612 Regina street, gave a birthday surprise last evening in celebration of their twenty-fourth birthday of their son, Valentine Derr. The evening passed pleasantly with social diversions and a chilli supper was served amid autumn decorations.

Physician and Nurse in a Hospital Romance

The marriage of Miss Emma E. Swomley, a graduate nurse of the Harrisburg Hospital Training school to Dr. William Lewis Crawford of Dillsburg, took place yesterday at McClure, Pa., with the Rev. A. L. Burkett, a former United Brethren pastor of that place, officiating.

The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swomley, of New Oxford was graduated from the local institution with the class of 1910. She later became a supervising nurse and after resigning from this position, took up private nursing.

Dr. Crawford is a graduate of the Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia. He later opened offices in Dillsburg.

The marriage is a culmination of a hospital romance, following an illness of appendicitis in which Miss Swomley nursed Dr. Crawford. Later they both had the care of the Rev. Mr. Burkett who was seriously ill.

YOU'RE BILIOUS! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT!

Don't stay headachy, sick, or have bad breath and sour stomach. Wake up feeling fine! Best laxative for men, women and children.

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowels poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two to-night and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts pills and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless—Advertisement.
