Pennsylvania United Brethren Conference at Baltimore Church

Special to The Telegraph
Baltimore, Md., Oct. 6. — Preliminary sessions of important committees preceded the opening session of the Pennsylvania conference of the United Brethren Church at the Franklin Street Church yesterday afternoon. The boundary committee will recommend some important changes as the result of their meeting. The Conference Mission and Church Extension Board and Finance Committee finished the recommendations that will be made to the conference in regard to the interests they represent.

The pastor, the Rev. E. W. Leach and his congregation are looking after the comfort of the delegates who are coming in, and are providing for their welfare in the pleasant social rooms of the well arranged new church. The church in which the conference sessions are being held, and which has been recently completed, is a handsome stone structure of Woodstock granite, beautifully finished, nicely furnished, and most conveniently arranged for the work of the church.

The Old People's Home Board held its meeting last evening, preparatory to giving its final report to the conference in regard to the transfer of the old people from the Colestock Old People's Home at Mechanicsburg, Pa., to the magnificent and commodious Colestock Old People's Building, which was completed and dedicated during the year at Quincey, Pa., and is now occupied by a number of old people.

Mrs. Widener and Dr. Rice Get License to Wed

Special to The Telegraph
Boston, Oct. 6. — Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice, of 13 West Cedar street, Boston, and Mrs. George D. Widener, of Philadelphia and Newport, donor of the Harry Elkins Widener Library to Harvard University, yesterday took out a marriage license at City Hall.

Mrs. Widener was expected by some of her friends to announce her engagement to Dr. Rice at the ball she gave recently in her villa, on Bellevue avenue, Newport. She is a survivor of the Titanic disaster, in which her husband and son lost their lives. She is a daughter of the late William L. Elkins, of Philadelphia. Since the sinking of the Titanic in 1912, she has spent her summers at Newport.

Dr. Rice is a Harvard graduate and the son of John Hamilton Rice and Cora Lee Clark. He was born in Roxbury, Mass., 39 years ago, and has been a member of the Newport summer colony for a number of years. He is well known for his explorations in South America, and for his controversy with ex-President Roosevelt over the source of the River of Doubt.

EPISCOPALIANS ARE AT SUNBURY

Many Women From Diocese of Harrisburg Attending Convention

Women of Protestant Episcopal churches from all parts of the diocese of Harrisburg are journeying to Sunbury to-day for the eleventh annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the diocese, which will be held in St. Matthew's Church there to-day and to-morrow. Mrs. James F. Bullitt, of St. Andrew's parish, this city, is president of the auxiliary.

Some important business is to come before the body, including the adoption of a new constitution, which is designed to increase contributions to missionary objects without being burdensome on the individual parishes. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

A "quiet hour" this morning will open the convention, conducted by the Rev. George Israel Browne, rector of St. John's parish, Lancaster, and former rector of St. Paul's, this city. To-night a lantern slide lecture on the International Hospital at Tokyo will be given by Mrs. Charles R. Fennell, of Philadelphia. Bishop Darlington will speak at evening prayer preceding the lecture.

C. E. Choral Union Will Hold First Rehearsal

Rehearsal of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Choral Union will be held to-morrow evening in the Second Reformed Church, Broad and Green streets, at 8 o'clock.

The union has secured copies of "The Convention Chorister," used at the Chicago Christian Endeavor convention, and will use them for the first time at this rehearsal. This is the opening night of the Christian Endeavor Choral Union and is to prepare music for the Fall rally and conference which will be held October 19 in the Fourth Street Church of God.

Pennsylvania State Christian Endeavor officers will be here and will address the meeting. "Make Christ King" will also be used at the rehearsal.

"Prepare For Preparedness" Is Tip Going Round

Members of the Alricks Association got a unique tip to-day. It is: "Prepare for Preparedness."

So most of them are. "Preparedness" is the subject of an address which will be made at the association's next meeting on Friday evening in St. Andrew's parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets. The speaker will be Captain J. B. Kemper, the United States officer detailed by the War Department as inspector-instructor with the National Guard of Pennsylvania. He will give a concise sketch of the military and naval equipment and needs of the United States. The meeting, like all sessions of the Alricks Association, will be public; a special invitation has been extended to national guardsmen.

Because of the character of the address the executive committee of the association has arranged for a general "military evening," with some special patriotic decorations and patriotic songs. A short business session will open the meeting.

Crowds Scan Horizon to View Transports

London, Oct. 6.—Great excitement was caused at Saloniki and in the coast towns in that vicinity when rumors became current about a week ago of the impending landing of allied troops, with some special water fronts scanning the horizon in the hope of catching sight of the transports which were supposed to be approaching.

Correspondents at Saloniki declare in their dispatches that the troops landed there are not colonial, but white soldiers. The Greek Minister of Communications, M. Diamantidis, arrived at Saloniki a short time after the expedition landed and in the name of the Greek government took charge of the eastern branch of the Nish-Saloniki railway which had been in the hands of a Greek syndicate up to that time. The Greek authorities were immediately notified by the allied commanders that the troops would not be kept at Saloniki but would encamp outside the town so they would not interfere in any way with Greek mobilization. Many thousand recruits for the Greek army are being gathered at Saloniki.

Want 1916 C. E. State Convention in H'b'g.

Plans designed to bring the 1916 State Christian Endeavor convention to Harrisburg will be mapped out at a joint meeting of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Union and the State Christian Endeavor executive committee in the lecture room of Pine Street Presbyterian Church Tuesday, October 13. Sessions will be held at 10.30 in the morning and 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening a big rally will be held at the Fourth Street Church of God, when a number of State Christian Endeavor officers will make addresses.

ADAM AND EVE FOR FUN

Maine Couple Go Back to Nature Just to Prove They Can Skowhegan, Me., Oct. 6.—A modern Adam and Eve plunged into the woods near here yesterday for a two week stay. Adam was Walter Estes, of Gray, and Eve was his wife. They violated the biblical tradition by substituting bathing suits for fig leaves. But they entered the wilderness with empty hands, prepared to wrench subsistence from the earth-roots, or berry bushes—or from wherever else it might appear.

The two are familiar with the woods, and are confident of success in their experiment.
