

RED SOX, WITH FOSTER ON MOUND, TAKE SECOND GAME OF SERIES FROM PHILADELPHIA, 2 TO 1

WILSON, LATE, HOLDS UP START OF BIG BATTLE

Managers of Both Teams Give Alexander Credit For First Victory

BIG CROWDS ON HAND

Investigation Started to Determine How Speculators Got Tickets

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Before a crowd of 20,000 persons, including President Wilson and his bride-to-be, Mrs. Norman Galt, Foster, the big pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, by his twirling and stick work, won the second game of the world's series by a score of 2 to 1. Foster had three hits and succeeded in having one of them count in the tallying of the second run. Boston scored in the first and ninth, the Phillies getting their lone run in the fifth.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, looked on from the Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Americans came to grips to-day in the second game of the world's baseball series before some 20,000 spectators. With one batter captured, the Philadelphia players pressed on the second line of trenches to make it two straight games in this baseball warfare, while Manager Carrigan, leading the Boston Red Sox, started a counter offensive to even up the series before the second phase of the campaign was commenced in Boston next Monday.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Confidence stimulated by the fruits of victory in the initial struggle for baseball supremacy of the world was apparent in the camp of the Philadelphia Nationals to-day and we will try and force the second game of the big series it was with a determination to make it two straight. Their worthy opponents, the Boston Americans, although defeated, temporarily at least, were undismayed and were equally determined to even up matters.

EXCITING PLAY IN SECOND INNING OF FIRST GAME AT PHILADELPHIA

LEWIS CAUGHT BETWEEN SECOND AND THIRD... SECOND INNING. The picture shows the entire playing field with all the players of the Philadelphia team participating in the exciting play. After two fouls, Lewis, the first Red Sox player up at bat in the second inning, lined a solid single to left. He reached second on Gardner's bunt, Alexander throwing Gardner out the second. Barry meanwhile reached second on this play, on a close decision, Bancroft just missing him as he slid into the bag. In the picture Lewis is shown on the line between second and third, while Barry is racing for the middle sack.

GREECE OPPOSES ALLIES' LANDING

Great Britain and France Determined to Push Through Military Expedition

Strong representations to Greece against the landing of French and British troops at Saloniki have been made by Bulgaria, a London news agency dispatch from Sofia states. Great Britain and France are determined to push through with the military expedition started for the Serbian front through Saloniki according to Athens advices received last night in Rome. King Constantine, it is stated, was given to understand this in a plain-spoken statement by the British minister at Athens.

The sinking of a German transport by a British submarine in the Baltic has been announced by the Russian War Office. Two British steamers, the Silverash and the Scawby each of more than 2,500 tons register, have been sunk, presumably in the course of German submarine activity.

Patton Is Looming Up For Secretaryship

According to reports reaching this city to-day, Charles E. Patton, of Curwensville, former Congressman from the 21st district, expects to be appointed Secretary of Agriculture within a few days. A report is that Mr. Patton had accepted an offer of appointment to the place from Governor Brumbaugh and that the acceptance was due to reach him to-day. Mr. Patton's name has figured in the gossip concerning the new secretaryship ever since the approval of the effect of an announcement of the Commission of Agriculture as executive officer at $5,000 per year.

RUBENDALL DROPS EBY TO HOLD HIS JOB

Wells Too Strong; Now For Danner Alone, Is Report

THEY GO CAMPAIGNING

Office in Charge of Lawyer While Chief and Deputy Electioneer

The county register's office is being run to-day by an attorney of the Dauphin county bar, a man well known in Democratic political circles. Neither Deputy C. W. Rubendall or Register Danner is on the job. Both are out over the county campaigning. Rubendall doesn't want to lose his job as deputy register so he has taken personal charge of the Danner campaign. Yesterday and to-day he had Danner all over the upper end of the county. The office was left in charge of the friendly lawyer. Rubendall is said to explain that this doesn't matter much "because business isn't very brisk anyhow."

Rubendall Drops Eby

A short time ago Rubendall, in the hope of dragging some Eby votes into the Danner camp, started out to campaign. (Continued on Page 13)

U. S. Government Ready to Recognize Carranza

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—Intention of the United States Government to recognize the Carranza Government, it was considered almost certain here to-day, would be announced at the end of a fourth Pan-American conference on the Mexican situation. Latin-American diplomats were to meet with Secretary of State Lansing late to-day in what many believed would be their final gathering. The effect of an announcement of an intention to recognize Carranza it is believed, would be to bring opposing elements to his support and remedy present conditions, despite official reports showing little improvement in some parts of Mexico. BED ABLAZE AS MOTHER AND HER BABY SLUMBER

Both Narrowly Escape Being Burned to Death in Early Morning Fire

POLICE SEEK HUSBAND

Wanted on Theft Charge; Furniture Dealers Remove Household Goods

Poverty stricken, too weak to work and earn enough money for food, her husband hunted by the city detectives, herself and her eight-weeks-old child, narrowly escaping being burned to death, Mrs. Simon P. Griffith, 1517 Regina street, between sobs this morning told part of the story of her life, while second-hand furniture dealers were removing household goods, which she had sold as a last resort to keep the wolf from her door. Where she will stay to-morrow, and where she will eat to-morrow, were things she did not know. Bedclothes Afire This morning, both Mrs. Griffith and her child narrowly escaped death, when their bedclothing caught fire from a lighted candle. Mrs. Griffith said that she had no money to buy oil for the lamps and had gone to bed lighting the candle and placing it on the floor on the side where the eight-week-old baby sleeps. Shortly after she lifted the boy to the other side of the bed because of his restlessness. Then she fell asleep herself. When she awoke she found the bed-
