NANCY CAMPBELL'S FETE IN COUNTRY

Children Enjoy Hallowe'en Fun Out of Doors at the Seven Maples

Little Miss Nancy Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Walnut street had a party yesterday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock at the Campbell country place, "Seven Maples," New Cumberland.

All sorts of Hallowe'en games were played and tea was served on the porch at small tables, each with Jack O'Lantern centerpiece. On the lawn there was a weird looking tent covered with black cats, bats and little witches. Inside there was a real live witch stirring a big cauldron which bubbled over with gifts for the children.

Mrs. E. Z. Gross and Miss Margaretta Rutherford, with several of the mothers helped entertain the guests, among whom were: Mary Fager, Elizabeth Fager, Bailey Brandt, Jr., Anna Brandt, Carol Brandt, Elizabeth Shearer, Louise Melley, Blake and Jack Bent, Katharine Meredith, William Thornton, John and William Pearson, Jr., Charles and Virginia Fox, Mary Churchill, Thelma Kahn, Jane Olmstead, Dick McCarthy, Avis Anne Hickok, Winifred Meyers, Elizabeth MacDonald, Suzanne Rutherford, John Elder, Elaine Hibler, Louise Bailey, Helen and Grace MacDonald, Betty Benjamin, Eleanor Bailey, Suzanne Maguire, Harriet and Henry Gilbert, John and Boas Maguire, Christine Brandt, Spencer Hall, Henry and Florence Hamilton, Gertrude and Dorothy Hosford, Cecelia Kunkel, Louise Hickok, Betty Oenslager, Harriet Witman, Sara Ingram, Beatrice Walker, Nancy Campbell and John and Ned Campbell.

Paxton Valley Club Will Hunt Chestnuts

Paxton, Pa., Oct. 9. — Members of the Paxton Valley Club will "a-chestnuttin' go" next Saturday, according to a decision reached last evening at a meeting of the organization in the borough schoolhouse. A committee was appointed to arrange plans and select a place. It is believed the party will go to Roundtop, near Hummelstown, where there is a large chestnut grove.

Plans for a Hallowe'en party which will probably be held on October 30 were discussed. This is one of the club's annual events and will be held in a vacant house if one can be secured in order that the party can be made all the more "spooky."

The club members talked over plans for the proposed clubhouse but no decision was reached.

At the close of the business session last evening, refreshments were served.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. L. Santamaria and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McDonald of North Fifteenth street, motored to Philadelphia to-day for a week-end stay.

Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. William Pinkney Hamilton, spent yesterday with Mrs. William Reed at Hummelstown.

Mrs. Carroll Burkholder of Wormleysburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Spitzer at Chicago.
