

WOMEN AND THEIR INTERESTS

Pitfalls of Wives

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

(Copyright, 1915, by Star Company) Men who are not ready to marry, immature youths, or men who have not money to spend on theaters, cars, and flowers, often deny themselves the company of unmarried women whom they admire. But they will eagerly kill time by flocking to the side of any married woman who will permit it.

Instead of "making fools of themselves" about you, it is always the married woman who makes the fool in the matter of flirtation, when you sit the subject to the bottom. The men who you imagine dying over your pretended coldness are merely amusing themselves at your expense in their secret heart.

You will read this article aloud to you, perhaps, and declare that it is wholly wrong so far as their love for you is concerned, but they will know all the time that it is true.

You will urge as an excuse for your action that your husband does not appreciate you or sympathize with you; that he neglects you. Perhaps, my dear madam, he might be your devoted lover if you exercised upon him all the arts of fascination which you use toward your admirers. It might be worth while to try.

But even those of you who do turn from neglectful and unkind husbands to other men for sympathy, out of pure hunger of heart, stop a moment and think of all the dangers to which such sympathy will expose you. If you are an unhappily married woman, man's sympathy and attention can only increase your unhappiness and turn a discontent into despair, and wreck all hopes of winning your husband's heart back to you.

A NEW COAT FOR AUTUMN SUITS

A Youthful Model that can be Made with Straight or with Pointed Lower Edge.

By MAY MANTON

8757 Belted Coat for Misses and Small Women, 16 and 18 years.

Such a coat as this one is essentially youthful in its style. It is perfectly simple too, hanging in straight lines from the shoulders, with the fulness confined by means of the belt. In the illustration, there are four pockets and pockets are being much used just now, but either the upper or the lower pockets may be omitted if fewer are found more becoming, or, the coat can be finished quite plain without any pockets. On the figure, the lower edge is pointed and it can be made in that way or straight or it can be cut off to make a shorter coat. Also the collar can be made either high or low; altogether it is a most satisfactory coat for the early season. In the picture, it is made from one of the checked suitings that promise to be so much used, but the model will be found a good one for anything that is adapted to the tailored finish.

For the 16 year size will be needed 4 1/2 yds. of material 27 in. wide, 3 1/2 yds. 36, 3 yds. 44, 2 1/2 yds. 54, with 3/4 yd. 27 in. wide for the collar and sleeve trimming.

The pattern No. 8757 is cut in sizes for 16 and 18 years. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

AWFUL SUFFERING FROM ECZEMA

In A Fine Rash on Back and Limbs. Would Itch and Burn. Terrible Loss of Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My husband was tormented for quite a while with eczema which he contracted from the dust of buckwheat flour and he suffered extremely with it. It started in a fine rash on the small of his back and on his limbs, and it continued to spread, and later started to weep. It became very much inflamed and would itch and burn continually, and so badly that he was obliged to scratch it by scratching. When the eczema was in its worst stages his clothing would aggravate the eruption very much. It caused disfigurement and also a terrible loss of sleep.

"His mother advised him to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in five weeks he was rid of the eczema." (Signed) Mrs. Elmina S. Casey, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 10, Manns Choice, Pa., April 13, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

TOUR SURE TO BRING RESULTS Unique Swing Around State by Governor and Party Certain to be Beneficial

Governor Brumbaugh and the party of almost one hundred representative citizens who accompanied him in the "See Pennsylvania First" tour last week concluded their swing around the circle at Philadelphia Saturday night. It was a unique and interesting experience for most of those comprising the party and the results are certain to be beneficial in more ways than one, especially in arousing interest in the good roads movement. It is certain that the eyes of thousands of people were opened to the importance of improved highways and the need of easy communication between the cities and towns and rural communities. The Governor and his party covered more than a thousand miles and practically without exception over fine highways, many of them suggesting park drives. "Governor Brumbaugh has staged this week the greatest moving picture show that was ever placed on the road," said one of the speakers, "and he has been fortunate in having the most famous artists of all the ages—Jack Frost—to color the films." It was so, far no more magnificent scenery was ever spread before the admiring gaze of any audience. Rich in color, wide-spreading, with hills and valleys and mountains and streams, the constantly changing picture was a revelation and an inspiration to all who gazed upon it during the week.

TO PLACE MARKERS Thomas Lynch Montgomery, of the State Historical Commission, was particularly interested in the placing of many markers along the way and as a result of the tour it is certain that hundreds of places which represent epochal events in the making of the Commonwealth will be properly marked. Already much of this sort of thing has been done, but many other places should be marked that passing tourists may read for themselves of the development of the Commonwealth.

Another Highway One of the important developments of the tour will be the construction of another main highway between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. This will be known as the William Penn Highway and will touch Coatesville, Lancaster, Harrisburg, Duncannon, Newport, Millertown, Millintown, Lewisstown, McVeytown, Newton Hamilton, Mount Union, Mapleton, Huntingdon, Hollidaysburg, Cresson, Ebensburg, Johnstown, Indiana and Pittsburgh. This highway is already largely completed in long stretches of fine road and other parts are now under construction in the Juniata Valley, one of the most picturesque and beautiful of all the regions of the State. The William Penn Highway will in a measure parallel the Lincoln Highway, which covers a different route, embracing Harrisburg, through Feder Lines, Shippensburg, Chambersburg, McConnellsburg, Bedford Springs, Ligonier, Greensburg and Pittsburgh.

Pupils Out in Force Thousands of school children with waving flags and banners greeted the Governor along the route, and not only the children, but men and women, hedged the highways and in every way manifested their pleasure and respect. It was in the nature of a triumphal tour. There can be little doubt that Simple Way to Have Beautifully Wavy Hair Lustrous, fluffy, wavy hair plays an important part in the scheme of beauty. A heated iron should not be used to give the desired wavy effect, for it destroys the life, lustre and fluffiness of the hair. It is far better to use plain liquid simerline, which curls the hair more effectively, more lastingly, and at the same time keeps it beautifully soft, "light" and glossy. It is beneficial instead of harmful, and it is such a simple thing to apply the liquid before retiring, using a clean tooth brush for the purpose and drawing this down the hair from root to tip. Very different from the tressome, fussy, odorous curling iron method. Pure simerline in liquid form may be found in any drug store and a few ounces will last a very long time. It is neither sticky nor greasy and leaves no sediment, spots or streaks. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter what the style of coiffure.—Advertisement.
