The Electro Board Plays World's Series Battles

Hundreds of enthusiastic baseball fars were turned away from the Board of Trade on Saturday where the famous Electro Wonder board is being used to reproduce every play of the world's series games in detail.

One can see the ball at the start of the game and it is never lost until the final man is out. The batsmen are shown in actual player figures; they run the bases, score and always on the job unless thrown out or the side is retired. The world's series games will be reproduced each day with the doors open at 1 p. m.

Play World's Series Games in Large Auditorium

The world's series was resumed this afternoon at Chestnut Street Auditorium. The attendance was larger than at the two previous games. The Wizard board has caught on with the fans. With this invention they get more out of a baseball game than with any other board. Last week the thrilling moments were so realistic that fans yelled themselves hoarse. Games will be played every day until the championship is decided. Play starts at 2 o'clock. Notwithstanding the games to-day and to-morrow will be played in Boston, local fans will get the news one minute after it happens in the hub city.

Upsets in football results Saturday

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 11.—In spite of the positive assurances of many of the heads of organized baseball, it seems certain that steps are being taken toward a definite settlement of the present baseball war. Plans have been discussed for a compromise with the Federal League before another reason opens and the powers of the organized throne have bent so far from their high and lofty attitude as to turn an attentive ear toward the supplications of the outlaws.

James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League. Who presumably was so spurned a few short months ago, has shaken the confidence of certain major operators so far that he was soles to gain an audience with the members of the National Commission members do not deny that at this meeting tentative plans for straightening out the existing differences were classes.

"Nothing formal has been done." In sists President John K. Tener of the National League. "It is true that we have talked informally of ways and means to end the strife. But there has been no compromise." But there has been no compromise.

Panama Canal Feared

Special to The Telegraph

Panama, Oct. 11. — A careful survey of the slide area in the Galliard cut reveals the fact that there probably are 10,000,000 cubic yards of earth in motion, which must be taken out by dredging operations before a permanent channel through the cut is possible. This is the conclusion reached by the canal engineers, who concede that there is now little hope of opening the waterway, even for the temporary use of shipping, much before the first of the year.

The present rate of wet excavation is 1,000,000 yards per month, and at this rate it would require not less than ten months to remove the mass, which is now silding into the canal considerably faster than the dredges can take it out.

LEHIGH LOSES STARS

South Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 11.—The price the Lehigh football team pald in the Yale game was costly. Saturday Chenoweth, the star quarterback, has a broken leg, which will keep him out of the game the rest of the season and Jim Keady, the powerful halfback has a broken shoulder.

The Wharton School Opens This Evening

THE WHARTON SCHOOL OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE inaugurates its extension course this evening at seven forty-five o'clock in the Technical High School.

Every Ambitious Young Man and Woman in Harrisburg should be interested in this event. If you are alive to your opportunity you will in later life look back to this day as the beginning of real success. It will be the anniversary of enlistment for training which fitted you for leadership.

It is easy for you, as for all of us, to find excuses for not doing the big, constructive thing. "I am not prepared to enter," perhaps you say. "THE WHARTON SCHOOL is only for those who have large educational opportunities." If you are over twenty-one your excuse is likely ill founded. have probably, through business experience, secured the training necessary to meet our requirements-in other words, to succeed in the Extension School work.

Are you going to be satisfied with offering a weak excuse to yourself? He who would succeed must grasp his opportunity.
