BULGARS DECLARE WAR ON SERBIA

Notice of Government's Intention Posted Throughout Country Last Night

FIGHT WITH GERMANY Bulgaria Is Twelfth Nation to Take Up Arms in Europe

By Associated Press London, Oct. 13, 10.50 A. M.—Bulgaria has declared war on Serbia, says a Central News dispatch from Paris.

Bucharest, Oct. 12, via Paris, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from the Bulgarian frontier states that a declaration of war against Serbia was posted throughout Bulgaria to-night.

The decision of Bulgaria, the twelfth nation to enter the war, to join the ranks of the belligerents on the side of Germany, Austria and Turkey was reached only after a diplomatic duel reached for months between representatives of the Teutonic allies and the quadruple entente.

It is unofficially announced that Bulgaria has declared war on Serbia. Already Bulgarian troops have advanced to the attack on the Serbian flank.

GREECE MAY NOT ASSIST SERBIANS

Not Bound by Treaty to Help Resist Bulgarian Attack

TEUTONS ARE ADVANCING British Submarines Are Making Inroads on German Commerce

It is unofficially announced that Bulgaria has declared war on Serbia. Already Bulgarian troops have advanced to the attack on the Serbian flank.

Greece is maintaining her attitude of armed neutrality. Athens advices state that the Greek government does not consider the existing situation a pure Balkan affair and that therefore Greece is not bound by her treaty with Serbia to come to the latter's aid in resisting the present Bulgarian attack.

The Teutonic advance in Serbia is the best reported by the press. Progressing, although apparently with no great speed. The Serbians assert that the attacks on the Save front are being repulsed, despite the use of the heaviest artillery by the Teutons.

From the Dardanelles the only recent reports are from the Turkish side, recounting minor successes. A definite decision for or against concerted action in Great Britain may be made at to-day's meeting of the British Cabinet.

British submarines are making inroads upon German commerce in the Baltic. The latest report being that of the Walter Leonard of 1261 tons.
