NEWSPAPERS FOR NEGROES

A large newspaper plant in Philadelphia has recently been taken over by a company of colored men, who are preparing to issue a weekly paper for circulation in a number of different cities. Arrangements have been made for its distribution in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and thirty other cities within a 12-hour radius of Philadelphia are expected to be included in its circulation.

This is the first large newspaper enterprise ever under taken entirely by colored men, and the purpose of the paper is the general uplift of the colored and will embody the highest ideals of race journalism. The paper is to be controlled, edited and printed entirely by colored men. The printing plan includes every labor-saving and cost-cutting device known in the newspaper world. It will have a capacity of 96,000 newspapers per hour.

Special to The Telegraph Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—Players in the World's series will not figure in the big melon was handed out yesterday. None of the stars are worrying. They are sure of their cash.

A great throng has witnessed the present series, 123,040 followers of the Phillies and Red Sox paying to see the respective champions of the National and American Leagues in action in the first four games.

This mark is 13,964 less than the number that attended the recordbreaking 1912 scries. The receipts total $268,332.50. This amount is $11,549.50 less than that recorded in 1912 in the Giants-Red Sox series.

Yesterday's attendance and receipts were the second largest ever recorded at a world's championship series, yesterday's crowd being about 1200 less than those present on Monday and the receipts falling short by $1145. The attendance at yesterday's game was 6731 more than the number that witnessed the fourth game between the Braves and Athletics last year at Fenway Park, Boston, and the receipts were $19,393.50 greater.
