

1896

THE GLOBE

1915

Anniversary Sale Gains Popularity Daily

That this unique sale has made a "decided hit" is not surprising. It's something different—a sale affording most unusual buying advantages at the beginning of the season.

Many manufacturers have made liberal price concessions on standard lines in co-operation with our ANNIVERSARY SALE.

To pass these and additional savings on to you is our method of showing our appreciation of your 19 years of loyalty to the "Big Friendly Store."

Handsome Fall Suits, Well Worth $22.50, in $16.19 Our Anniversary Sale; Special at $16.19

Just arrived—new stripe effects that have met with immediate favor among the smartest dressers. Unfinished Worsteds in new Brown shades with beautiful contrasting stripes of Gold and Green—also Blacks and Blues with White or Green stripes—and the greatly desired plain Blue Flannels in single or double-breast models.

Suits and Overcoats at Special Anniversary Sale Prices

Every new Fall Fashion is represented in this showing. Unusual fabrics—exclusive models for the smart dresser—different and dignified styles for the more reserved man. The price of every garment affords a substantial saving.

$19 For Suits & Overcoats Worth to $25 | $14.19 For Suits & Overcoats Worth to $20 | $12.19 For Suits & Overcoats Worth $15

Anniversary Special— $3.50 Boys' Extra Value Suits

All-wool fabrics in Gray, Tan and Brown. Some suits have two pairs of "Knickers"—sizes for boys 6 to 17 years.

Extraordinary Value— $5.00 Boys' Overcoats, at $5.00

Good, warm Chinchillas and rough mixtures in a great variety of models, including the new military model with belt and inverted pleat back.

Men's Furnishings Specially Priced For Our Anniversary Sale

MEN'S $1.50 SHIRTS, AT $1.19—newest patterns, including the high colored stripes—all sizes.

MEN'S $1.00 SHIRTS, AT 79c—soft and laundered cuffs—of Percales, Madras and Fongees.

$2 WOOL FLEECE UNION SUITS, $1.50—soft wool fleece—unequaled for warmth.

$1.50 FLEECE LINED UNION SUITS, AT $1.00—in Black and White Mixtures—practical for shop wear.

65c NECKWEAR, SPECIAL AT 45c—a wonderful showing of large, flowing-end scarfs in rich, Autumn colorings—remarkable values.

THE GLOBE, "The Big Friendly Store"

STEELTON (MIDDLETOWN & HIGH SPIRE) ROYALTON-OBERLIN-ENHART

EPWORTH LEAGUE WILL MEET HERE

Twenty-Ninth Annual Convention of Northwest District Opens Tomorrow

The twenty-ninth annual convention of the North West District of the Epworth League will convene in the First Methodist Church, Fourth and Pine streets, to-morrow afternoon, for a two-day session.

New Rector Triumphally Escorted by 200 Kreiners

In honor of the Rev. Father Lukas Gladek, the new rector of St. Peter's Slovenian Catholic Church, 200 Kreiners escorted the new priest to the rectory at Second and Mohr streets last evening.

Father Gladek is well known here by many who heard him sing his first mass at St. Mary's Church in 1905, following his ordination at Overbrook. He is a Kreiner by birth but was educated in America.

Steelton Snapshots

Girls' Meet.—At the first meeting of the Girls' Club of Trinity Episcopal Church, in the parish house, Monday evening, plans for the winter's activities were discussed.

Birth Party.—An enjoyable birthday surprise party was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. J. Mowers, 201 North Front street, in honor of Mrs. Mowers' birthday.

Suffrage Meeting.—Suffragists will open their campaign in Middletown this evening with a mass meeting in the stone marketplace.

Dr. Buckley to Speak.—The Rev. Dr. A. M. Buckley, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Middletown, will preach this evening in Monumental A. M. E. Church, Adams street, where the annual rally is now in progress.

Plan Fair.—The Citizen Fire Company, of Highspire, is making elaborate plans for the annual fair to be held the two weeks commencing November 6.

REV. KIEFER TO COME HERE SOON

New Neidig Memorial Pastor Will Remove From Lykens Charge

THE REV. H. S. KIEFER

The Rev. H. S. Kiefer, recently assigned to the pastorate of Neidig Memorial United Brethren Church, Oberlin, will move his household goods from Lykens and assume his new duties within a few days.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KOHR

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Kohr, who died Friday, were held from her late home in Oberlin yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and at Shoop's Church at 3 o'clock.

STEELTON PERSONALS

Miss Bridget Noonan has returned from a three-weeks' visit in Easton. Mrs. John Clepper, Locust street, went to Reading yesterday where her mother is ill.

Charles Roberts, Third street, is spending a week at Mt. Gretna. Dr. H. M. Cumber, South Front street, is in Philadelphia today.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Noonan, South Second street, have returned from a visit in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hugh McGovern and son, Percell, went to Lebanon yesterday to reside.

HILER—YESTADT

Charles Hiler, Harrisburg street, and Miss Louise Yestadt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Yestadt, North Second street, were married at 8 o'clock yesterday at St. James' Catholic Church, North Front street.

TO HOLD BENEFIT

Under the auspices of the Imperial Band, a Fall dance will be held this evening in German Quartet Club, Front and Washington streets.

Advertisement for A. W. Holman clothing store, featuring a woman in a dress and the text 'It Will Always Be Our Policy'.

COMMISSIONERS TO DISCUSS CODE

All Appointed by the Governor Have Agreed to Study Laws Relative to Decedents

Judge John Marshall Gest, of Philadelphia, and Judge Thomas J. Baldrige, of Blair, and Ex-Speaker George E. Alter, of Allegheny, recently appointed by Governor Brumbaugh as members of the new State Commission on the laws relative to estates of decedents have accepted the appointments in letters to the Governor.

The legislature appropriated $10,000 for the work of the commission which will also have any assistance desired from the State legislative reference bureau, the attorney general's and auditor general's departments in the preparation of the code.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Noonan, South Second street, have returned from a visit in Philadelphia.

Company Dissolved.—The York Cotton Company, incorporated years ago to manufacture cotton at York, has been dissolved by the courts.

Spoke at Reading.—Francis J. Torrence, president of the State Board of Public Charities, spoke yesterday on behalf of the State at the Reading convention of the State poor directors.

Regret Dr. Price's Death.—News of the death of Director Price, of the bureau of hygiene of the Department of Labor and Industry, was heard with regret at the Capitol.

May Meet Tomorrow.—A meeting of the State Water Supply Commission may be held to-morrow to discuss pending matters.

Dr. Surface to Talk.—One of the features of the State Department of Agriculture exhibit at Reading will be hourly talks on methods to eliminate pests in orchards by Dr. H. A. Surface, the State Zoologist.

To Discuss Stamps.—Auditor General Powell will to-morrow have a conference with officials and manufacturers regarding the stamp tax on stock transfers.

Officers Resign.—Adjutant General Stewart to-day accepted the resignations of Major Edmund N. Carpenter, Wilkes-Barre, quartermaster's department, and Second Lieutenant Harry J. Schaffer, Company G, Sixth infantry, Doylestown.

Local Charters.—Two local charters were issued to-day. The Department Reports Company, to do a publishing business, was chartered with $5,000 capital by C. B. Miller, G. R. Hull, W. S. Snyder, A. A. Herr, J. P. McCullough, J. A. F. Hall and F. E. Downes, of this city.

Influence of Women.—"Women are a wonderful influence in the lives of most great men," says the Washington Post, and upon women rests the responsibility for family health.

"If You Can't See, See Us" advertisement for optical services.

"No Drops Used" advertisement for eye treatment.

Advertisement for The Boyd-Norris Optical Co., featuring a man's face and text about eye examinations and contact lenses.

MIDDLETOWN

SERVICES FOR CHARLES KENNARD.—Funeral services for Charles Kennard, who died Sunday, were held at his late home in North Spring street, this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and at the Church of God at 2 o'clock.

S. C. BRINSER BURIED.—Funeral services for S. C. Brinser, famous as a corn-meal dealer and business man, who died Saturday, were held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at his late home near Round Top, and at 10:30 o'clock at Geyer's Church.

AUTO CLUB TO MEET.—The Middletown Auto Club will hold its first meeting of the season at the office of A. H. Luckenbill, in North in the cemetery adjoining Shoop's Church.

NISSLEY'S ENTERTAIN.—A delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nissley, 280 East High street, Saturday evening, in honor of their daughter, Mable. The house was beautifully decorated with Autumn leaves and a color scheme of brown and gold.

DR. BUCKLEY TO SPEAK.—The Rev. Dr. A. M. Buckley, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Middletown, will preach this evening in Monumental A. M. E. Church, Adams street, where the annual rally is now in progress.

PLAN FAIR.—The Citizen Fire Company, of Highspire, is making elaborate plans for the annual fair to be held the two weeks commencing November 6.

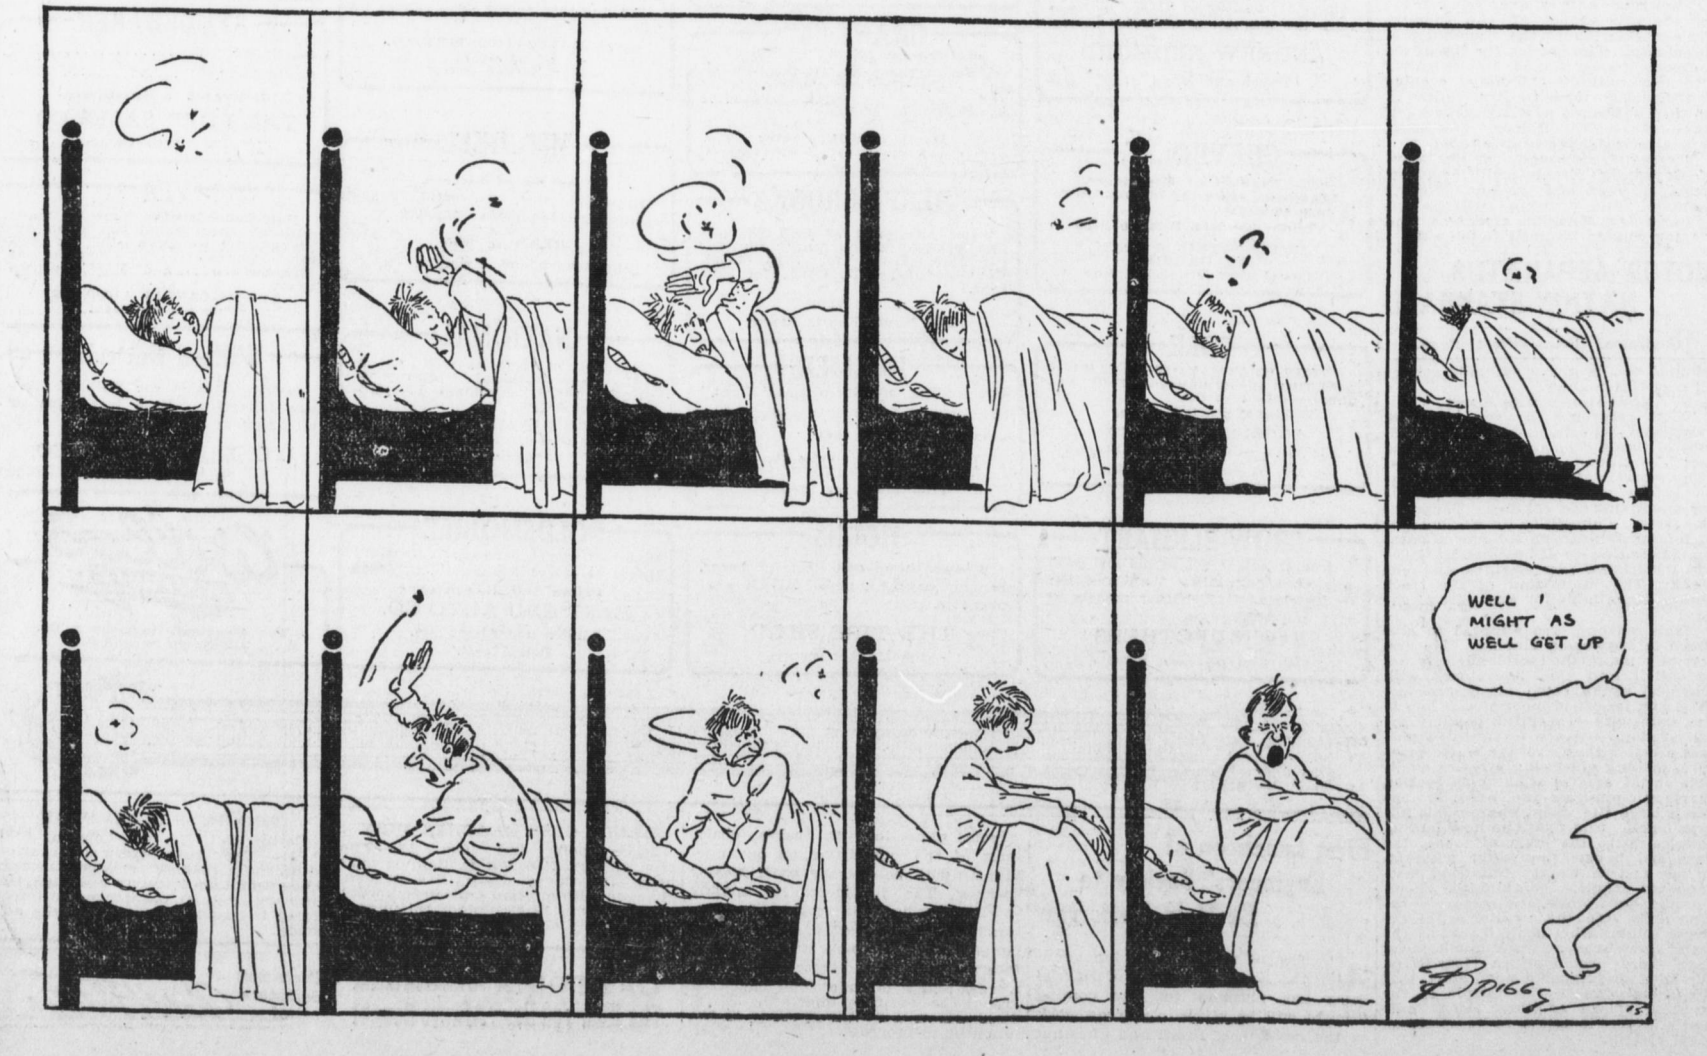

Union street, Thursday evening.

SUFFRAGE MEETING.—Suffragists will open their campaign in Middletown this evening with a mass meeting in the stone marketplace.

DR. BUCKLEY TO SPEAK.—The Rev. Dr. A. M. Buckley, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Middletown, will preach this evening in Monumental A. M. E. Church, Adams street, where the annual rally is now in progress.

PLAN FAIR.—The Citizen Fire Company, of Highspire, is making elaborate plans for the annual fair to be held the two weeks commencing November 6.

Movie of a Man Trying to Sleep After Daybreak

TRY THIS IF HAIR STARTS FALLING

Some Good Advice For Those Threatened With Baldness

At this season of the year many people find their hair coming out at an alarming rate and often fear baldness. This may very easily be the ultimate result if proper scalp treatment is not taken at once.

To Discuss Stamps.—Auditor General Powell will to-morrow have a conference with officials and manufacturers regarding the stamp tax on stock transfers.

Officers Resign.—Adjutant General Stewart to-day accepted the resignations of Major Edmund N. Carpenter, Wilkes-Barre, quartermaster's department, and Second Lieutenant Harry J. Schaffer, Company G, Sixth infantry, Doylestown.

Local Charters.—Two local charters were issued to-day. The Department Reports Company, to do a publishing business, was chartered with $5,000 capital by C. B. Miller, G. R. Hull, W. S. Snyder, A. A. Herr, J. P. McCullough, J. A. F. Hall and F. E. Downes, of this city.

Influence of Women.—"Women are a wonderful influence in the lives of most great men," says the Washington Post, and upon women rests the responsibility for family health.

"If You Can't See, See Us" advertisement for optical services.

"No Drops Used" advertisement for eye treatment.