"MUTT AND JEFF IN COLLEGE"

The people want to laugh, first, last and all the time. This has been the nucleus of Gus Hill's success. Laughter is the most popular sensation on earth. Mutt and Jeff, who come to the Orpheum, Friday, matinee and night, was conceived for philanthropic purposes, to cheer mankind and to make them forget their real or imaginary troubles, in which quest these two eccentric "near human" characters have been eminently successful.—Advertisement.

"DAMAGED GOODS"

"DAMAGED GOODS"

Richard Bennett's New York company of co-workers, comes to the Orpheum, Saturday, afternoon and evening, in Eugene Brieux's great sociological drama, "Damaged Goods."

'Damaged Goods' is a powerful purposed drama and deals with a subject standard of the consistency of the pulpit and the press, but the sincerity and startling frankness of its treatment and the earnestness with which Mr. Bennett and his co-workers interpret Brieux's play, rob it of all unhealthy sensationalism and causes it to be accepted as a profound moral lesson.—Advertisement.

"CASEY IN SOCIETY"

"CASEY IN SOCIETY"

Among the clever young women in the superlative cast of principals with the new musical comedy, "Casey in Society," booked to appear at the Orpheum, Tuesday, with a special matinee, will be found Miss Anna Grant, a particularly pleasing comedienne with a delightful personality and rare comedy talent, her style is always the same, but it never lacks the appearance of freshness and spontaneity.—Advertisement.

of School Children in Steele Bldg. Cornerstone

School days may come and go but the wonderful story of the biggest day the wonderful story of the biggest day in the history of Harrisburg's schools "September 24, the day of the Children's Parade) during the Municipal a Celebration of 1915—will be preserved by the board of control in a way to make the youngsters of the future gasp in surprise should his eyes behold the tale. The story of that parade as told in the Evening Telegraph was laid away in an unique way; it was placed in the cornerstone of the W. S. Steele school building which was set without ceremony in the presence of the directors and school officials at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Just another modest word or two about the Telegraph's story of the Children's Parade. President Harry A. Boyer mailed marked copies of the Telegraph of Friday, September 24 to the sixty odd contributors and patrons who made the procession possible. And the story went all over the country too, by the way. One copy went to faraway Newton, Kan.

But to get back to the other things that went into the cornerstone; there were copies of the local papers, copies of the councilmanic and the school directories for 1915, the report of the city teachers' retirement fund, school rules, and a cent, nickel, dime and quarter of 1915.

THE SUPREME MELBA

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE

This is the day that the Majestic's much advertised headliner bursts on our vision. It is a delightful musical fantasy entitled "The Old Dance." that Dan Burke and Girls present and which is declared by critics to be the sweetest story ever staged. Mr. Burke is assisted by Molly Moller, the celebrated danseuse of the Royal School of Copenhagen, also Cedi Von Mason, a dancer of considerable reputation. The theme of the playlet is both dramatic and activation over a strictic wandeville and at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theater. New York City, it was declared the most artistic attraction in vaudeville. Other features of the new offering will include Harry Hayward and company, presenting a comedy called "The Firefty." Mullen and Coogan, popular singing comedians: Carmola and Rose Ponzelle. "The Italian Singers," and the Gregory Troune sensetions have a leaves a both street of the reserved for the control and Rose Ponzelle. "The Italian Singers," and the Gregory Troupe, sensational hoop rollers.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL TOMORROW

The cream of the program for Friday and Saturday will be a Lubin drama called "The Valley of Lost Hope," featuring the famous green actor. Romaine Fielding, The films made under the personal direction of Mr. Fielding, who, it will be recalled, staged "The Eagles Nest." Fielding has the gift of making a thriller artistic, and in "The Valley of Lost Hope" tells a beautiful story in a way that is gripping without being common. "The Valley of Lost Hope" unfolds the real side of mining camp life and in this phase calls in many artistic exteriors.
