Bethlehem Steel Made New
Record of 467 on Two Point Rise Early

By Associated Press
New York, Oct. 14.—War shares and kindred specialties, mainly those comprising the automobile group were again the outstanding features of to-day's early market. Bethlehem Steel made the new record of 467 on a two-point rise. Willys-Overland sold at a new high with a gain of 9 points to 253. Studebaker's rise of a point to 165 marked a record and Maxwell first and second pfd. broke into new grounds on moderate advances. Other strong issues were Lackawanna Steel, Tennessee Copper, American Woolen, Goodrich, American Car and Continental Can. Newly listed issues in cluded United Cigar Stores and Burns Brothers, the latter rising two at 92. Rails were dull and lowe.

AUGUST BERKEET

New York, Oct. 15 .- A gallows stored in the dome of the Federal building here may be dragged forth from its dusty restingplace, set up from its dusty restingplace, set up and a man hanged upon it, although legal execution by hanging is prohibited in the State of New York.

A federal law of death by hanging for murder on the high seas is still in force and if August Berklein is found guilty in the United States District Court, the penalty is hanging and he may be hanged anywhere in the jurisdiction of the court, which extends from Governor's Island to Buffalo.

extends from Governor's Island to Buffalo.

Berklein is a steamship fireman and is accused of stabbing to death another fireman on the Clyde liner, Commanche, last July, while at sea. It has been forty-six years since a federal execution took place in this city. At that time a pirate was hanged on Governor's Island. After the hanging, the gallows was taken down and stored in the dome of the Federal building.

Wed Maimed Heroes. British Rector Urges

Special to The Telegraph London, Oct. 14. — The Rev. Ernest Houghton, a Bristol rector, has started an appeal to patriotle women of the nation to give their lives to ameliorate the condition of maimed heroes of the war by marrying them. He has launched a "League for the Marrying of Broken Heroes."
