NOMINATION IN DAUPHIN COURT

Constitutionality of the Non-partisan Judicial Act Also Attacked in Proceedings

AFFECTS 6 CANDIDATES

Pittsburgh Lawyer Finds Fault With Attorney General and Makes Breezy Argument

Constitutionality of the nonpartisan judicial nomination act was attacked in the Dauphin County Court today and hearing given on that question and on the dispute over the method of computing the vote necessary to give a candidate the right to be sole nominee to be printed on the ballot for a judicial office.

The constitutionality was questioned in a suit brought by Fred S. Drake, a candidate for Court No. 2, Philadelphia, who claims his name should go on the ballot with three other candidates, while the question over the method of computing the 51 per cent. of the vote came up in Mr. Drake's action and in the mandamus proceeding brought by Stephen H. Huseilton, of Pittsburgh, to require the Secretary of the Commonwealth to certify the names of all six candidates for the Superior Court and not the three who received the highest number of votes. The Huseilton case was the first to be heard. The actions will occupy the attention of the court all day.

Counsel for Mr. Huseilton, Frederick W. Kahle, of Pittsburgh, sharply attacked the opinion of Attorney General Brown on the method of computation and insisted that it was contrary to opinions given by the former Attorney General, John C. Bell, and by the late Justice Elkin, and based on the assumption that each voter voted for three candidates, which, he asserted, was not the case.

State's Name Out of It

At the opening of the case Deputy Attorney General W. M. Hargest asked that the name of the Commonwealth and of the Attorney General be taken from the Huseilton petition because they were used without his consent and attacked the Attorney General's own opinion. The court granted the motion after a protest by Mr. Kahle, Deputy Attorney General W. H. Keller sat with Mr. Hargest and John G. Johnson, the eminent Philadelphia lawyer, and Jesse E. Cunningham, former Deputy Attorney General, represented J. Henry Williams and George B. Orady, respectively. Mr. Huseilton was also in court. G. W. Carr, of Philadelphia, represented Mr. Forake, with Charles H. Bergner, who was also associated with Messrs. Johnson and Cunningham.

The hearing of the case was attended by state and county officials, as well as city officials, all of whom were greatly interested in the matter. Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth Godcharles presented the official returns, showing that the vote of the six candidates for Superior Court aggregated 1,997,792, while the total number of ballots, except in Beaver county, which has not reported, was 1,026,769. The latter figure, Mr. Kahle contended should be the basis of figuring the majority vote. Mr. Kahle also said the total number of nonpartisan ballots could be given. He then assailed the Attorney General's rulings with vigor, but he did not suggest an alternative method when invited to do so by Judge Kunkel. He said that Mr. Brown held that the votes should be totaled, divided by three and then by two, he took exception to this method because, he asserted, it was a mistake to hold that every voter voted for three.

Alleged "Guessing"

The Pittsburgh lawyer held that the Attorney General had "guessed" at a method, when, in his opinion, there was a statutory provision, and that Mr. Brown in interpreting it had gone

Big Events of the War Now Staged in the East

Dispatches from Berlin via Amsterdam state that the Kaiser has abandoned the road to Calais, according to a leading article in the Berliner Tageblatt, which says this is the real meaning of the new German move in the Balkans.

WHY SUFFER WITH BACKACHE, KIDNEYS OR RHEUMATISM NOW?

Letter Telling of Long Looked-For Prescription

Dear Readers: I am making a personal appeal to those of you who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and rheumatism, to give up the use of harsh salts, or alcoholic kidney medicines that you know nothing about, and in their place take a short treatment of "An-Uric" and be convinced of its superiority, as I was.

The article declares that Germany decided to thrust at the Near East because in that direction now lies the moers of the State and ended his presentation of his case in a discussion of the difference between a ballot and a vote with Judge Kunkel. The State took up its side this afternoon.

Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, made his long expected explanation of the Balkan situation at London. As an explanation, however, of the failure of British, French and Russian diplomacy in the Near East it was a complete disappointment to Parliament and to the public at large. As an assertion of what, if anything, the Entente Powers will do to check the German march toward Constantinople it was not only a disappointment, it was an evasion.

Sir Alfred Milner in the House of

been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet. Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who have managed to procure a supply of "An-Uric" for their anxious customers in and around this locality.

Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's An-Uric Tablets. There can be no limitation. Every package of "An-Uric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and reconstructer for any one.

At any rate don't give up hope of being cured of your malady until just a few doses of "An-Uric" have proven that it will make you feel like a different person.—F. W. D. Editor—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.—Advertisement.

CANDIDATES AT BIG GRATZ FAIR

6,000 Paid Admissions During Day; $750,000 in Autos About Grounds

Special to The Telegraph
Gratz, Pa., Oct. 15.—Yesterday was the "big day" at the Gratz fair, and the Republican candidates were among the most conspicuous personages on the ground.

at least $750,000 worth of automobiles and wagons almost to the number of the motor driven vehicles. This notwithstanding that Gratz is eight miles from the nearest railroad.

The exhibits at the fair this week are more and better than ever before. The committees on premiums are working over their lists to-day and there are many farmers and farmers' wives anxiously awaiting the returns.

Great Display
The apple display is particularly good this year, nearly all of the fruit having been grown in orchards in the immediate vicinity, and the rainy summer is responsible for the unusually large pumpkins and other vegetables on display. There is corn also that would put to shame some of the big ears of the Nebraska belt and potatoes of phenomenal size.

The fancy work and cookery exhibits attracted women and men to the hundreds and the buildings were crowded all week. The machinery shown at the fair this year is more than usually attractive from the farmer's standpoint and an entire tent is devoted to automobiles while another tent is given over to gas engines and appliances.

Midway Attractions

The midway is an attractive as usual. "The Girl from Paris" with the "Five Legged Sheep" and you can knock down the babies or climb the revolving ladder with the hope of getting a big doll baby if you are successful. You can "take a chance" on a paddle wheel also, but the amounts are all small and the games are run for sport and not for gain, as the management frowns on all gambling devices tending to separate those in attendance from their money.

Harry Smith, who was one of the big guns at the fair yesterday, presided at the races which were among the best ever pulled off there and it was he who lined up Company C Reserve corps, of Tremont, who gave a war-like appearance to the scene and entertained with a sham battle just before the balloon ascension in the afternoon.

The Republican candidates had the freedom of the big fair grounds. They were piloted about by James E. Lentz, candidate for recorder, who knows everybody in the upper end, and Harry Buffington, one of the original stockholders of the fair, and they met hundreds of people. Generally they were well received and indications are that the upper end will give any usually large Republican majority this year.

Among those who motored to the fair were Henry M. Stone and Charles C. Cumber, candidates for county commissioner; James E. Lentz, for recorder; William W. Caldwell, for sheriff; William F. Houser, for resident; Michael E. Strover, for district attorney; H. W. Gough for county controller; Mark Mumma, for county treasurer; Fernando Laudermilch and F. B. Snavely, for poor director.
