KEEPS KIDNEYS ACTIVE WITH A GLASS OF SALTS

Must flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly. Noted authority tells what causes Backache and Bladder weakness. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

Do you use

on washday morning? Then the hardest work you do is wetting the clothes, soaping lightly, and soaking for 30 minutes. Fels-Naptha contains a result-producing amount of naphtha—as well as other harmless cleansers. Dissolves grease, loosens dirt, and does the hard work for you. Not only for washing clothes—just as wonderful for all household cleaning.

Hunter Shoots Turkey; Nimrods Out in Force

Harrisburg hunters fared well in the first day's hunt, according to last night's reports. Those who did not stray far from home were many. In adjoining counties hunters were reported too numerous for good work. Those who sought secluded spots and will be out for two days are expected to show better results. One successful hunter who returned last night was J. C. Peightal, 273 Herr street, passenger fireman on the Middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad. He brought home a wild turkey that weighed 20 pounds. He had eight other chances, but the law allows but one turkey a day, and he took his best chance. Three other turkeys were killed in Perry county near where the local hunter was traveling.

Big Postmasters' Meet at Washington Oct. 20; Sites and McCrone Going

The annual convention of the National Association of Postmasters will convene in the City of Washington, D. C. on Wednesday, October 20, at the Hotel Raleigh. Business sessions will be held each day for three days. The Secretary of War has arranged for an exhibition drill of United States Cavalry at Fort Myer on Friday afternoon. President Wilson will receive the postmasters and their guests at the White House on Wednesday afternoon. At the banquet on Thursday evening, arrangements have been made with Bell Telephone Company to install a receiver at each plate and the president of the Panama Exposition will deliver an address over long distance telephone to the postmasters which will be responded to by Postmaster General Burleson. Postmaster Frank C. Sites, treasurer of the association and George S. McCrone, cashier of the local post office will be in attendance from this city.

The Best 10c Smoke That Human Skill Can Produce

MOJA

10c CIGARS

The quality is in a class by itself, because they are made of all Havana tobacco—the choicest, that grows and which is selected with that knowledge that is essential to produce a rich, fragrant aroma instead of a heavy, depressing smoke.

WOMEN APPLY FOR HUNTERS' LICENSE

Interesting Facts Found in the State by Returns of the Treasurers of Counties

Women have taken out hunters' licenses in almost every county in the State according to the returns which have been received at the Capitol. The number is expected to be far and away ahead of the number issued to women last year when approximately forty were given tags. Several of the women who applied for licenses are members of hunting clubs and will go with husbands or brothers to camps. Issuance of hunters' licenses has been very brisk this week as the opening of the bird season yesterday caused many to prepare to take to the woods and fields next week. Estimates at the office of the Game Commission are that the licenses will run close to the 300,000 mark, which is about the total for last year, and the revenue will be applied to game protection and propagation and payment of bounties. This number, however, will not represent all of the persons who will hunt as land owners, tenants and farmers are allowed to hunt on their own properties or those under their control without having to take out the licenses. Reports from the mountain regions indicate an abundance of wild turkeys and bear and that deer are also plentiful. The deer season starts next month and the number of applications for permits to camp on State forest reserves is ahead of any previous year. In commenting on the interest in hunting Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, the State game commission secretary, says it is a splendid thing for the nation as it trains men to use of fire arms, makes them steady and accustomed to outdoor life.

New U. B. Pastors Will Hold Their First Services

The new pastors will appear in the pulpits of city churches at the services to-morrow. The Rev. Joseph Daugherty, formerly of Columbia, will speak in the morning and evening in the Sixth Street United Brethren church on "Imitation of God," and "Blessedness of Spiritual Life." The Rev. Mr. Daugherty succeeds the Rev. P. H. Balsbaugh as pastor of the Sixth street church. The Rev. C. E. Boughter, newly appointed pastor of First United Brethren church will have charge of all of the services there to-morrow.
